Mild-Mannered Bank "Rookie" Proves to Be Mellon's Son-in-Law

DAVID K. E. BRUCE

AILSA MELLON BRUCE

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent,

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—It was with a distinct shock that employes of a Wall street banking house learned today that Dave Bruce, one of their fellow-workers—a tall, quiet, likable chap—commutes each day from a 32-room mansion on a Long Island estate worth half a million dollars,

To them Dave simply had been "one of the fellows"—a regular fellow, at that, democratic, unassuming, eager to learn, willing to do his bit,

It has just leaked out, however, that Dave is the son-in-law of Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the Treasury and one of the wealthiest men in America,

Lindbergh, As Usual.
Incas and Uncle Sam.
Moses and the Oil Well.
Home, Motor, Radio.

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE—

(Copyright, 1928.)

IN THE machine that took him across the Atlantic, Lindbergh finished on Monday a 1200-mile non-stop flight from Havana to St. Louis, in 15 hours and 6 minutes. He could have done it in 12 hours, but, wise young man, he realizes that his task is to establish the safety of flying, not to do stunts. He never overtaxes engine or plane.

HIS "leisurely" flight means passengers before long will fly comfortably across the continent in 30 hours. The multi-engine plane will do the work. Lindbergh, who flew to France with one engine, says "long flights over water call for the three-engine plane."

DR. TRUJILLO, of Tlaxcala, Mexico, hunting for treasure, discovers an old city whose inhabitants manufactured spears, arrows and war clubs for the Incas. Thousands were found in the ruins. The Inca god of war presiding there.

THAT "munition factory" is no more out of date today than the Krupp factory with its cannon and the shipyards with their antiquated battleships will be, in the next war.

It is unfortunate that no explorer in this country could find a government plant for manufacturing fighting air ships.

AT GORHAM, Kansas, thanks were rendered by a clergyman to celebrate the "bringing in" of a 1,000-barrel oil well.

When Moses smote the rock and brought in water, the achievement was more important and remarkable.

But bringing in oil means that farmers can enjoy winter sunshine in Florida, California, or in the Gulf States, instead of wading through mud and snow to the barn, at four in the morning by lantern light.

MR. Bonfils, through his Denver Post, tells the world he wants "every family in the United States to own a home, automobile, and radio," because "this would tremendously increase the happiness and prosperity of all our people."

Some will detect a "dash of socialism" in the suggestion that "EVERY" family, should own a home, automobile and radio.

IT WOULD have seemed preposterous in Rome to suggest that anybody but the emperor, and a few of the great, should own a bathtub. There was serious protest against installing the first bathtub in the White House, on the ground that it was not democratic. The Bonfils trinity, of comfort, home, automobile and radio, for every family, will be realized, plus freedom from worry in old age, more important than the other three.

IMPORTANT is the suggestion that Congress "provide three highway trunk lines along the Pacific coast from Canada to Mexico for heavy commerce in peace and heavy ordnance in time of war."

These roads, through California, Oregon and Washington, should at intervals be widened into air plane landings. And roads like them should run East and West from ocean to ocean.

American fliers should be able to go East or West, North or South, with wide roads, and landing fields always below them.

THE national trust idea, combining great industries, with national governments back of them, becomes important, and menacing to privately managed enterprises.

While New York Standard Oil and British Royal Dutch fight each other for world markets, French government plans to give French interests and French capital a practical monopoly of the French oil business.

Two or three events of that kind might compel Standard and Royal

Mail Plane Falls in Monongahela River

"CRACKED UP!"

While flying over Pittsburgh the mail plane piloted by W. Edgar Leedy began to miss so he turned and sped for Bettis Field, his starting point. Over the Monongahela River the engine went completely "dead" and plane, pilot and mail fell into the muddy waters. Daniel Plummer and a fellow worker, John S. Cash, nearby, jumped into a skiff and rescued Leedy and one sack of mail. The plane, which turned amphibious, was towed to shallow water preparatory to lifting it out on dry land.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy and slightly colder tonight, possibly snow flurries; lowest temperature tonight about 30 degrees; Thursday increasing cloudiness.

Auto "Stolen," He Has Kind Word For Thieves

OIL CITY, Pa., Feb. 15.—E. L. Gallagher, a victim of auto thieves, has a kind word for these thieving gentry, nevertheless.

When Gallagher's auto was taken from in front of his place of business, he notified police. Station WLBW then broadcast a description of the car.

Two hours later the machine was returned. What's more, it had been washed, polished, oiled, greased and its crank case filled.

The "thief" took it by mistake.

Workmen Rescue Pilot

A mail plane, piloted by W. Edgar Leedy, and carrying 300 pounds of United States mail from Pittsburgh for Cleveland, made a forced landing in the Monongahela River, half a mile below the Glenwood Bridge at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The pilot and a part of the mail were rescued by Daniel Plummer and John S. Cash, who put off in a small boat from Clyde's Landing, a few minutes after the accident.

Leedy explained, while he was directing salvaging operations on the plane, that he was flying over Pittsburgh after a perfect take-off from Bettis Field, McKeesport, Pittsburgh terminal for the mail route, when his motor began to miss. He turned, in an attempt to regain the flying field, but when almost directly over the Monongahela River the engine went "dead" and Leedy volplaned to an emergency landing near the north bank of the river, alongside several old and partly submerged barges.

RESCUE AVIATOR

Cash and Plummer, working nearby, put out for the aviator, who was sitting on the top wing of the plane when the rescuers arrived in a small boat. Plummer grabbed one of the mail sacks and Cash assisted Leedy into the skiff. Leedy was soaked from his unexpected submersion and borrowed dry clothes from Plummer to enable him to remain and direct operations to get the plane to shore.

$1,000 FOR TAXI SLAYERS

A reward of $1,000 for information lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of John Nesslein, 25, driver for the Green Cab Taxicab Company, whose body was found on the Bairdsford road, near Dorseyville, last Thursday morning, has been announced.

Officers of the Green Taxicab Company offered to duplicate any amount of money raised by employes or outsiders towards a reward for Nesslein's slayers, and when the fund reached $410, the taxicab company officials contributed $590, making the reward total $1,000.

Nesslein had been shot three times and apparently was viciously beaten, leading detectives to believe a motive stronger than robbery had prompted the attack. The driver's pockets had been rifled. The taxicab in which the slayers fled was found later in the day wrecked against a telephone pole along the Butler Pike some distance from the scene of the crime.

PAROLE FOR 3; JAIL 1

The first of the election conspiracy trials which grew out of the September primaries ended in Criminal Court today, when four members of the election board in the Twentieth district, Tenth ward, pleaded guilty. Three were paroled for two years, and the fourth, Jacob Steine, 64, was sentenced to seven months in jail by Visiting Judge J. Frank Graff.

Charges against the fifth member of the board, a woman, Mrs. Carrie Weaver, were dropped.

Nearly 200 cases remain to be tried.

The paroled defendants were Michael McAndrews, E. J. Bennett and E. N. Fink.

The defendants pleaded to the fourth of five counts in the indictment, which accused them of negligently performing their duties to defeat the purposes of the election laws.

Steine admitted that he had been intoxicated when the ballots were counted and that his actions had confused the other members of the board.

The pleas came shortly after the first testimony had been taken. Andrew T. Park, assistant district attorney who prosecuted, explained to the court that he had not been able to find criminal intent in the board's actions.

Army Flier Killed in Crash

DAYTON, O., Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Capt. Thomas H. Miller, post surgeon at Wright Field, was killed, and Capt. Edward Laughlin, chief engineering officer at the airport, was injured seriously when the plane in which they were riding fell just outside of Fairfield, east of the post, this morning.

The fliers were in a training plane, and it is believed the plane developed engine trouble.

Capt. Miller was dead when residents of the village lifted him from the wrecked plane, while Capt. Laughlin suffered severe injuries and was rushed to the post hospital.

STRIKE PROBE ORDERED BY SENATE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee today approved the resolution of Senator Johnson (Rep.), California, for an investigation of the bituminous coal situation in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

The resolution would call for an inquiry by the full committee, but it was amended to permit a sub-committee to carry on the study in the event it becomes necessary for hearings in the coal fields.

FIGHT ON FLOOR LOOMS

Senator Johnson announced he would press for Senate action on his resolution during the week and in the event of approval, which he expects, he will seek to have the inquiry put under way next week.

Senator Reed, however, gave notice he would ask the Senate to act on his amendment, turned down by the committee, which would provide for an investigation by the probe committee of the freight rate structure on coal hauls. He reiterated that he believed the two investigations should be made simultaneously and by the same committee.

Reed's amendment was sidetracked on the grounds that it would require too much time and delay the actual strike probe.

The Pennsylvania senator, however, has not indicated any opposition to the coal inquiry as proposed by Senator Johnson and early approval of the resolution is predicted.

URGE PROBE AT MINES

Senator Johnson and representives of the mine union have urged that the committee make a first-hand study in the fields.

The resolution also would call for an investigation of charges that the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, and New York Central railroads have conspired with the operators in bringing about a suspension of operations in the fields.

The resolution now goes to the Senate for action. During the hearings by the committee, charges of brutality by coal and iron police of Pennsylvania figured prominently in the testimony of witnesses.

ASK "PLOT" QUIZ

In rejecting the Reed amendment the committee recommended that it be embodied in a separate resolution.

The committee was unanimous in reporting the Johnson measure. On the basis of charges of Philip Murray, of Pittsburgh, international vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, that the railroads had conspired to break the miners' union the committee agreed that a case had been made in favor of the investigation.

MOVE FOR DELAY LOSES

By ARTHUR L. MAREK,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

COURTROOM, LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 15.—William Edward Hickman, "The Fox," and his confessed bandit confederate, Welby Hunt, accused of the fatal shooting of V. Ivy Thoms, Los Angeles druggist, lost a move for a temporary respite today when Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy denied a defense motion for a continuance of their trial on the joint murder charge.

Judge Hardy, who withdrew from the Marian Parker kidnaping and murder trial because of defense charges of prejudice, assigned the Thoms case to the court of Superior Judge Elliott Craig for trial. Jerome Walsh, chief counsel for Hickman, sought a postponement until Monday.

In refusing to delay the trial, Judge Hardy ruled the defense failed to make a sufficient showing.

The brief arraignment took place in an overcrowded courtroom across the corridor from the court where Hickman was convicted of the kidnaping and murder charges.

Both appearing pale, Hickman and Hunt stood side by side before Judge Hardy during the proceedings, which lasted less than 10 minutes.

Hunt was represented by Attorney A. Gray Gilmer of Oklahoma City, who announced the 16-year-old Kansas City youth was ready to stand trial.

Gilmer said he was unopposed to a continuance until next week.

Judge Craig announced he would call the Hickman and Hunt case for trial at 10 o'clock.

Son Slayer Unaware Of Deed

By ALBERT GOUGH
Staff Correspondent.

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 15.—Her body convulsed with spasms seeming to come from some terrible mental reaction, Mrs. Jennie McCall, 35, stares wildly into space and asks repeatedly, "Where am I?" She stares and babbles while the law makes ready to reveal to her how she killed her only son in a crowded schoolroom at Mine No. 5, near here, yesterday afternoon.

The demented mother apparently does not realize what she has done. Mrs. D. K. Callahan, wife of Mercer county's sheriff, and Viola McArdle, comely fellow prisoner, are at her side constantly, administering to the woman who slashed her son's throat with a butcher knife before the horrified eyes of a score or more of his little schoolmates.

The son, Lawrence McCall, 7, died instantly and his father, John McCall, a miner employed by the Sharon Coal and Limestone Company, hardly realizes what he is doing as he goes about making arrangements for the burial of his child and consults with attorneys about his wife.

"The woman is undoubtedly insane," declared Dr. R. M. Hope, jail physician, today. "Whether she has suffered a mental derangement for any length of time, I cannot say at this time. It may be temporary insanity."

Mrs. McCall will be told how she killed her son at the coroner's inquest, scheduled late today. The inquest may be postponed at the last minute if physicians decide the woman's condition is too serious for the shock in store for her.

All night long, the mother tossed upon her cot in the jail. Mrs. Callahan and Miss McArdle were at her side constantly, and when the writhing woman leaped from bed as though prodded by some unseen force, they would attempt to sooth her by telling her she was "all right."

"No, I'm not all right," were the only distinguishable words from the suffering mother.

She seems to sense that something is wrong, but under Dr. Hope's orders she has not been questioned about the murder.

Yesterday being St. Valentine's Day, Eva Widing, Lawrence's teacher, had invited parents of the pupils to the school for a Valentine program.

Jannie McCall came in early afternoon, first of the mothers.

"I invited her to sit with her son," Miss Widing said, "and she passed down the outside aisle and sat at Lawrence's left. But she arose almost immediately and passed in the rear to his right, probably realizing that from the left she could not manage her attack.

"She sat silent while I turned to a group of the children at the blackboard. My back was turned. Suddenly I heard a commotion and turned. The whole class was on its feet and the children were stunned. Lawrence's head was sunk on the desk and there she was standing over him."

WELCH MAY CHEAT CHAIR ON MONDAY

ASKS FOR SANITY TEST

HARRISBURG, Feb. 15.—(INS.)—Lester Welch, Allegheny County murderer, will probably escape electrocution Monday. Decision in his commutation plea will be deferred until an investigation is made of his sanity, members of the State Board of Pardons indicated during hearing of the case today.

This means that a respite will be necessary and probably will be granted by the Governor.

After listening to arguments advanced purporting to prove Welch's insanity, Lieut. Gov. Arthur H. James, chairman of the Pardon Board, said, "If there ever was a case where the murderer should go to the electric chair, this is it."

Lieut. Gov. James suggested, however, that all arguments advanced before the board be taken before District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner and indicated his willingness to be guided by Gardner's findings. The board also will make a private investigation of Welch's sanity.

Welch was convicted of killing Mrs. Annie Exline, April 4, 1926. After beating her to death he mutilated the body. According to testimony counsel for Welch said the very nature of the crime pointed to Welch's insanity.

town and Cleveland, exonerated Leedy of any blame, praising the aviator for good judgment in making the water landing rather than risking injury to himself or others in a forced landing somewhere in the city.

"It was good piloting," Ball declared.

WING DAMAGED

A small section of the right wing of the plane was shattered as it struck the water, but it could not be determined just what other damage was done the machine.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad officials offered the use of a switching engine in an endeavor to drag the plane to the beach, but Leedy feared the strain of the cables would not be sustained by the submerged plane and it was decided to tow the plane across the river where a wharf derrick could lift it clear of the water.

After the plane landed in the water the current of the river carried it more than 100 yards along the bank before lines were got to the craft and it was towed into shallow water.

The mail was gotten out as quickly as possible, shipped back to Bettis Field and dispatched for its destination, Cleveland, by another plane.

VIRGINIA HUNT

When Virginia Hunt, daughter of the governor of Arizona, took out a license to marry Fred C. Brannen, of Big Creek, Cal., last year, she said it was "Just a Joke." But she's just done it again, and this time admits there isn't any joke about it. As a matter of fact, the joke is on the other boys.

TELL COURT ALL ABOUT BEAUTY

Today was "Ladies' Day" in Judge Thomas J. Ford's domain in Common Pleas Court. Male court officers were bewildered by testimony foreign to their cars, and mael spectators gave up their attempts to understand and moved to other fields.

It was the protest of one beauty specialist against another—two others. Elizabeth Arden, prominent New York beautician, sought to prevent two of her former employes, Ann Wimberly and Helen T. Taylor, from using Ardon methods in their shop at 429 Penn avenue.

The testimony was chock full of advice on how sagging muscles are lifted, notable wrinkles erased and second and succeeding chins eliminated, and the women in the audience drank in the suggestions. Improvements in Pittsburgh's pulchritude probably will ensue—not that it's needed!

Miss Ardon contended that the defendants had violated a contract by which they agreed not to set up shop within three years after leaving the Arden garden of beauty and that they had further violated their rights in using her methods to lend beauty to the face of the matron and enchantment to the features of the debutante.

Dutch to stop fighting and get together.

SHIP builders in Germany and Italy are at work on passenger ships to cross the Atlantic in four days. Such ships would carry air planes landing passengers in a hurry one day ahead of time—3 days, New York to Europe.

IT IS understood that President Coolidge is anxious that the United States keep up with the rest of the world in ship building and is ready to encourage fast boats.

This government, which spent about a billion dollars on ships never used, now rotting away or given away, might well spend a few millions more and have something worth while.

HOWEVER, if it is settled that government is too incompetent or dishonest to do anything on a big scale, the next best plan would be to help private individuals and let them do it.

Appears Lindy 'll Have to Return, Says Will

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Feb. 15.—Guess Lindbergh will have to go back to Cuba. He hadn't reached Key West before the Argentine and United States delegations at the Pan-American conference were hissing each other, so that Nicaragua can have a fair election next fall and no candidate spending too much. We have the Marines on horseback down there now watching the voters. It's a great idea for Nicaragua, but we haven't got enough Marines and enough horses to even patrol the Pennsylvania and Illinois precincts.

Wounded, Will Not Explain

Police are without clues as to the mysterious shooting, early this morning, of Alfred Goltsman, 25, 2216 Forbes street, who appeared at Mercy Hospital with a bullet wound near the heart which hospital attendants said might prove fatal.

Later this morning information regarding the condition of Goltsman was refused by the hospital and by Goltsman's physician, Dr. H. A. Kipp. Center Avenue police, who are investigating the affair, admitted they were completely in the dark.

Goltsman is alleged to have told Police Captain James Hoey that he had been shot by an unknown person in Forbes street near Moultrie, but later he was said to have declared he was shot resisting a hold-up man.

FINED $100 RECENTLY

Goltsman, according to Capt. Hoey, is a son of Mollie Goldman, or Goltsman, of the Forbes street address, and was fined $100 in Morals Court early this month when he appeared in behalf of his mother, whose grocery store was searched for liquor by police.

Hoey said Goltsman has been arrested three times, twice as a suspect in robberies and a third time as a hijacker.

City Detectives Robert Burke and Edward Sweeney are working on the case from outside sources, Goltsman's physician refusing permission to any one to talk to his patient.

Police Inspector John P. Clancey testified, at the time of the hearing in Morals Court, that Mrs. Goltsman's establishment had been raided on many occasions and that she had been arrested as many as 28 times on charges of keeping a disorderly house following discovery of liquor in the place.

Whether Goltsman was shot in a feud with bootleggers or while resisting a holdup man is the problem facing the police, and they are investigating under the direction of Capt. Hoey, who was but recently appointed to the Hill district.

BANK ROOKIE PROVES

Dave would never have told them how well fixed he is financially if they hadn't found it out themselves. He's that kind. He came on the job, in the offices of the Bankers' Trust Company, on February 1, and has been tending to his knitting ever since. He has mingled freely with his co-workers and they like him.

He smilingly admits he's "trying to find himself." His superiors think he's made of the right stuff. He hasn't been assigned to any particular position as yet. He may go out as a salesman or he may develop through office routine into an executive position.

At any rate the employes, for the first time, realize that if they look up the social register they can find out a few things about this young man. He is the son of Senator and Mrs. Bruce, of Maryland, and the husband of the former Ailsa Mellon, only daughter of Andrew W. Mellon. Their wedding in Washington, on May 29, 1926, was a brilliant social event attended by President and Mrs. Coolidge, the cabinet and all official Washington.

Young Bruce—he is 30—had just been appointed vice consul in Rome at a salary of $2,500 a year when he married Miss Mellon. Italy's climate, however, did not agree with her health.

It's a safe bet that Mr. Mellon is watching his son-in-law's career with interest. Some day Dave Bruce may be able to hold down an important post in one of the Mellon banking institutions in Pittsburgh.

The "fellows" who today are rubbing elbows with Dave at the Bankers' Trust Company would be among the first to congratulate him.

LORD ASQUITH, ENGLAND'S 1ST WAR PREMIER, IS DEAD

By International News Service.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The Earl of Oxford and Asquith, Great Britain's former premier, died at his country estate, the Wharf, Sutton Courtney, at 6:50 a. m. today.

Although his physicians had abandoned all hope of saving him yesterday morning, Lord Asquith clung tenaciously to life throughout the day and last night.

Lady Asquith, known more familiarly as Margot Asquith, and members of the family were at the bedside when the end came.

[illegible]wards 6 a. m., Lord Asquith's condition began to grow worse, and the family was called. Besides Lady Asquith, Princess Bi[illegible] one of Lord Asquith's [illegible] and wife of the former [illegible] minister to the United St[illegible] Lady Bonham Carter and [illegible] Anthony, were at the beds[illegible] Lord Asquith died.

KING [illegible]D

Lady [illegible] immediately sent messages [illegible] George and Premier Stanley Baldwin advising them of her husband's death.

News of "the master's" end spread quickly through groups of villagers who had gathered outside the residence in respectful reverence.

Lord Asquith was stricken with an acute attack of pharyngitis and his condition grew worse until on Monday it was felt the end was only a matter of a few days.

Herbert Henry Asquith, who came into the title of Earl of Oxford and Asquith in 1925 in recognition of his long public service, was the first "war premier" of England. He held that post when the war broke out and did not relinquish it until the conflict had been under way about two years.

Asquith came of sturdy Yorkshire stock. His parents were not rich. He was born at Morley, Yorkshire, on September 12, 1852. Shortly after his birth his father died and his education was left to the mother. When he attained school age he was placed in the City of London School and later attended Balliol College, Oxford, where he easily carried off many coveted scholarships. He was especially keen in history, rhetoric and debate, an indication of his trend for a political life.

Coming to London, he studied law and began to practice in 1876. One year after his admission to the bar he married Miss Helen F. Melland, of Manchester, who died in 1891, after bearing him four children.

After a short time spent as contributor to the "Economist," Asquith came to the front very quickly as a member of the bar. Although slow speaking in debate and deliberate, he brought a cold array of logical facts into his arguments which won his points. He went straight to the top of his profession, gaining his greatest fame in the Parnell case.

William Ewart Gladstone saw in Asquith a "coming young man" and brought him into parliament. In 1892 Asquith was honored with the post of Home Secretary, although he was barely 40 years of age. It was while serving as Home

EARL OF ASQUITH

Secretary that he contracted his second marriage. He was married to Emma Alice Margaret (Margot) Tennant in 1894. It was a strange match between the puritanical, learned Yorkshireman and the butterfly of Bohemian society. And it altered Asquith's career completely.

LIFE CHANGES

From a student he became a "diner out." From a Free Churchman he became an Episcopalian. He is accused of having cast off his middle-class friends to cast his lot with the aristocracy. Mrs. Asquith was ambitious for both her husband and herself.

Many Englishmen professed belief that Asquith's marriage to the brilliant Margot had "ruined" his career. Equally as many believed that the match had "made" him.

Asquith from the first had aligned himself with the Liberal party and soon became its undisputed leader, a political honor he maintained until dethroned by the little Welshman, David Lloyd George.

Despite the intrigues within the party, Asquith's intellectual attainments and his advocacy of certain reforms made him an almost certain choice for the portfolio of chancellor of the Exchequer when Campbell Bannerman formed his government in 1905. He obtained this post and held it until 1908, when he became prime minister.

Troubles engulfed Premier Asquith from the outset. The Irish controversy was coming to a head and the Lloyd George budgets were threatening a "social revolution."

SENDS BRITAIN TO WAR

In 1914 it fell to the lot of Asquith to decide whether Britain should enter the war. Having taken the step, he never hesitated, but the burden was too much. His war tenue was not a success. He was felt to be too old for the post and preferred to let his cabinet argue issues instead of taking decisive decisions. Consequently it was an easy matter for Lloyd George, then minister of munitions, to force first a coalition government in 1915 and then overthrow his old chief in 1916, when he himself became "war minister."

During his long public life Asquith was a member of the House of Commons from East Fife. He was elected first in 1886 and was returned with regularity until 1918.

"We shall be back in Downing street (the official residence of the premier is at 10 Downing street) within three months," was the confident prediction of Mrs. Asquith when the blow fell. But this prediction never came true.

The War Star, the War Medal and the Victory Medal were all conferred upon the ex-premier in recognition of his services during the first two years of the conflict.

Asquith attempted to "come back" after the war, but never succeeded. He retired to comparative obscurity, while his wife, through her sensational writings, notably "The Autobiography of Margot Asquith," assumed the spotlight for the family.

NATION'S EYES ON MELLON-VARE SPLIT

Maine Sank 30 Years Ago

BOYS HELD IN OHIO AS GUARD SLAYERS

SEE MORIN AS STORM CENTER

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The political honeymoon which a good many Republican organizations have been enjoying under the benign influence of Coolidge solidarity appeared today to be waning fast.

Herbert Hoover's entry into Ohio with his presidential candidacy has split the closely-knit Republican organization of that state into two snarling factions. The fur is already beginning to fly, and this probably will be followed by the spilling of real gore at the April primary when the Hoover and Willis factions come to grips.

In New York, a semblance of Republican harmony is being maintained only by the use of the Coolidge name. Charles D. Hilles, the titular Republican spokesman of the state, is still holding aloft the Coolidge banner and calling for his renomination.

PENNSYLVANIA FIGHT LOOMS.

Today there was every indication that the Republican organization of Pennsylvania is in for a slam-bang fight of far-reaching and important proportions.

Representative John M. Morin, who has represented a Pittsburgh district in Congress for 16 years and who has risen to the chairmanship of the Military Affairs Committee, returned to the capital this morning determined, it is said, to oppose Senator David A. Reed for renomination. Morin has been turned down for renomination to Congress by the organization in Pittsburgh, and by way of retaliation is going to run for the Senate with, it is reported, the support of most of the Vare organization in Philadelphia. If so, it spells the breaking of the Mellon-Vare alliance in Pennsylvania, and opens the door wide to another bitter and slashing primary in Pennsylvania.

The Vare people are openly disgruntled over Reed's handling of the Vare contest in the Senate, and there has been open talk of the "double cross" and "dilatory tactics." On the other hand, they regard Morin with considerable approbation because of his support of Vare two years ago in the historic clash with the Mellon machine, which backed George Wharton Pepper for the Senate.

Closely watching the slowly crumbling Mellon-Vare alliance is Gifford Pinchot, who ran a bad third in the Pepper-Vare-Pinchot battle two years ago. Petitions calling for Pinchot's nomination for the Senate already are being circulated in Pennsylvania, and formal announcement of his candidacy may be forthcoming at any time.

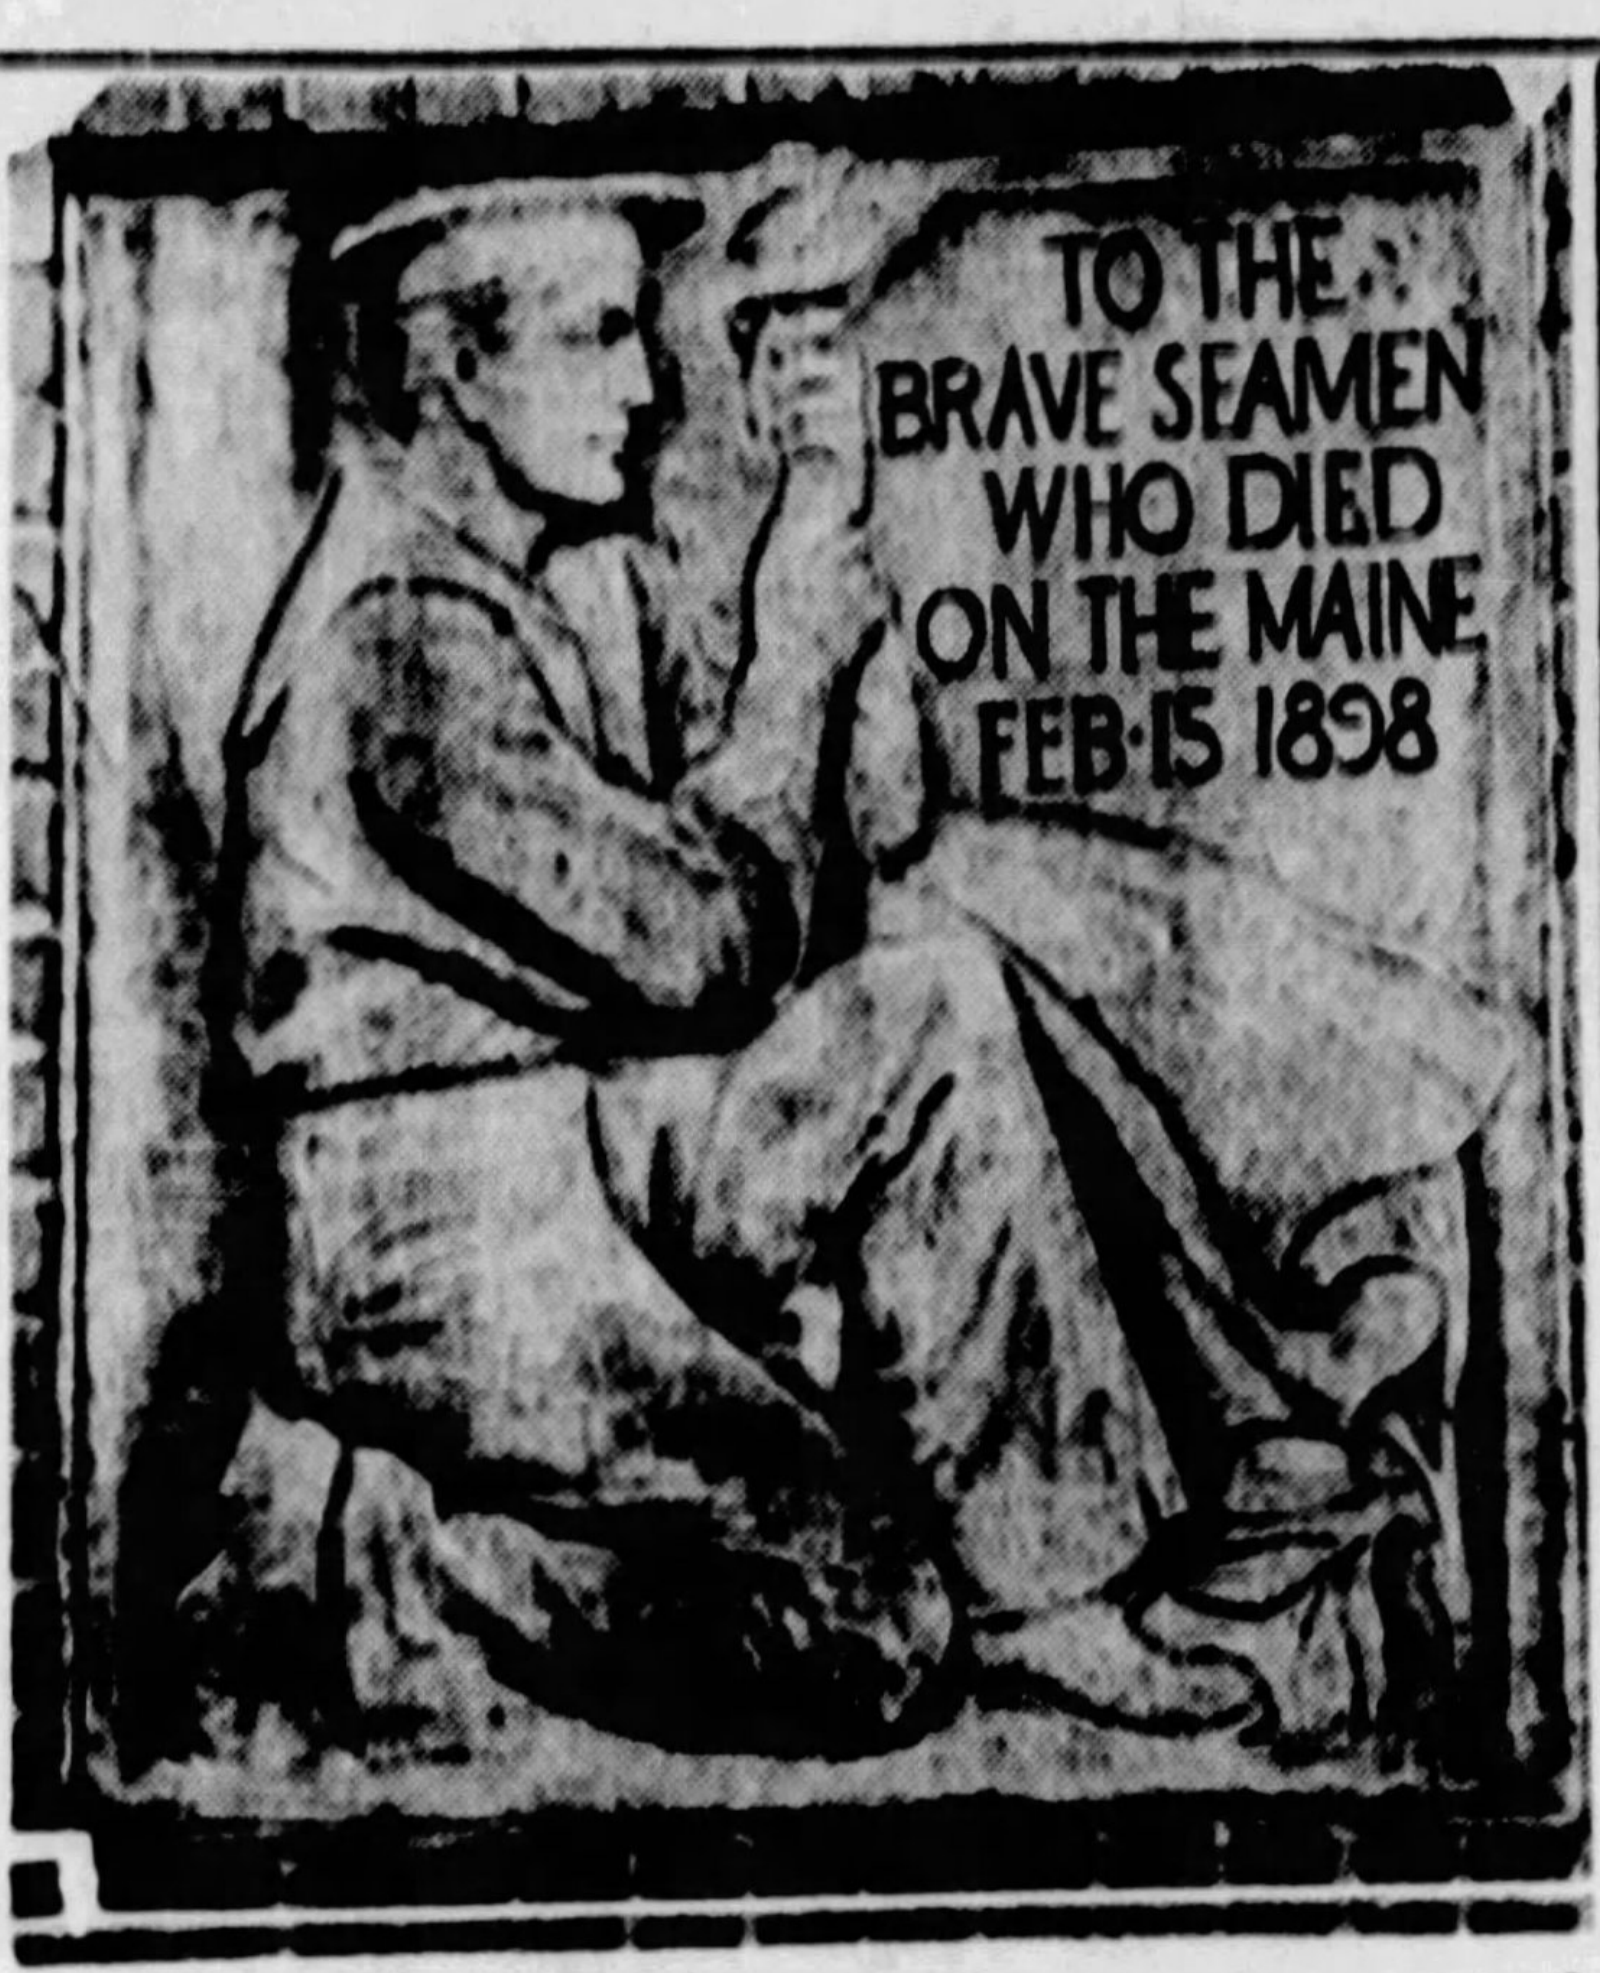
PINCHOT HOPEFUL

If the Vare and Mellon organizations again fly at each other's throats and back different candidates, there is more than a possibility that the flaming Progressive ex-governor might step through the breach and into a Senate seat. The primary is in April.

Presidential politics enter into all these state contests, which involve three of the largest Republican organizations in the country—Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania. Illinois is split, too.

Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon has thus far been noncommital on the presidential contest. His only public reference to the Republican presidential fight was an indorsement of Charles E. Hughes some months ago. Thereafter, Mr. Hughes took himself out of the race, and thereafter Mr. Mellon remained silent. He has refrained from any word or act that might be construed as an indorsement of Hoover, Dawes or Lowden. The Hoover managers say that ultimately Mr. Mellon will be found on their side, but there has been no confirmation from Mr. Mellon.

A presidential indorsement at this time by any of the factional leaders in Pennsylvania—Vare, Mellon or Pinchot—might provide the spark for a fight of nation-wide interest.



MEMORIAL TO HEROES OF '98

This stone medallion is Pittsburgh's memorial to 250 American seamen who lost their lives when the Battleship Maine was torpedoed in Havana Harbor, Cuba, 30 years ago tonight. The tablets were placed in the walls guarding relics of the ship by Pittsburgh and Allegheny County in 1914. The memorial is in West Park, North Side.

"REMEMBER THE MAINE!"

Gnarled armor plate and a shattered torpedo tube saved from the wreckage of the Battleship Maine when the vessel was raised and dismantled, tell mutely the story of the explosion which caused the greatest excitement the United States had known since Abraham Lincoln's assassination. The relics are surrounded daily by North Side school children who obtain from their view a graphic lesson in American history and a subject for classroom essays.

PITTSBURGH HERO

Lieut. Friend W. Jenkins, one of the two officers killed on the Maine, was a native of old Allegheny City and opposite the sailors' tablet the crescent walls bear a stone medallion bearing his likeness in the naval uniform of 1898. Lieut. Jenkins was a graduate of the Western University of Pennsylvania.

CAPTURED IN GUN FIGHT

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Feb. 15.—Lafayette, Ind., officers are speeding here today in an attempt to identify two youths arrested here early today as the pair which left Lafayette February 7 in custody of two deputy sheriffs for Pendleton, Ind., reformatory. The deputies have not been heard from, and belief prevails that they were murdered by the youths.

The boys, who surrendered after one was wounded in the knee, fired a fusillade at Deputy Sheriffs Louis Shaw and Wayne Street after a filling station had reported that the pair had refused to pay for gasoline. The suspects gave their names as Albert Jennings and Frank Fornes, both 17, of Youngstown, O., but later admitted this was not their home.

RESEMBLE VANISHED PAIR

The two youths wanted by Indiana authorities are John Burns and Samuel Baxter, both 17. Sheriff Clyde Hardesty declared that Jennings answers the description of Burns, a photograph of whom appeared in a newspaper on sale here.

Sheriff Hardesty talked over long-distance last night with Indiana authorities, who mailed Bertillon descriptions of the two youths and started officers for St. Clairsville. The officers and the measurements of the youths are expected here late this afternoon.

In the automobile driven by the youths, which they admitted was stolen in Columbus, O., Sheriff Hardesty found a blood-stained map which showed tracings from Indiana to Cincinnati, O., Memphis, Tenn., Louisville, Columbus and St. Clairsville. The wrists of both youths were cut as though from a file. The Sheriff believes these cuts were received when the boys filed handcuffs from their wrists.

"PHONE FOOL" MIXES WIRES

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Feb. 15.—Police matched wits today with Uniontown's "phone fool," who during two weeks' of activity has dropped telephone messages of gloom into more than a score of the city's homes.

"We may get his connection soon," police said.

The "phone fool" erred in his last performance. He telephoned the home of Attorney F. C. Newcomer to inform Mrs. Newcomer that her husband had been kidnaped.

But the attorney happened to be at home when the call came through.

That a woman is implicated in the "telephone joking" was indicated, police said, when a feminine voice put through the Newcomer call and then a man broke the news of the "kidnaping."

PAL MARRIAGES HIT AT CHURCH PARLEY

Companionate marriage was criticized by Prof. William L. Young, head of the department of education at Capital University, Columbus, O., at the closing meeting today of the nineteenth annual national Lutheran men's missionary conference in the Fort Pitt Hotel.

"Marriage should be for life, not merely an option contract," Prof. Young said. "A young man in marrying should select a Christian girl of such qualities that he would be willing to live with her until death parted them."

At noon a special service was broadcast over Station WJAS. The Rev. F. B. Hax, of Massillon, O., delivered an address, and the Rev. S. C. Michelfelder led in singing.

MAINE SURVIVOR TO HONOR VICTIMS

William T. McNair, of 3324 Smallman street, only surviver in Pennsylvania of the sinking of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, February 15, 1898, will be the central figure in the observance of the thirtieth anniversary of Maine disaster to be held by United Spanish War Veterans in North Side Carnegie Hall tonight.

McNair enlisted in the Navy in 1895 and served as an ordinary seaman. After 30 years he declares that he cannot yet explain how he escaped alive. The other Pittsburgher on board the ill-fated ship was Lieut. Friend W. Jenkins, who was killed.

Judge Harry H. Rowand will be the principal speaker at the anniversary meeting. Clark Mansfield, president of the county council of the United Spanish War Veterans, will preside. Capt. Robert S. Cain will be master of ceremonies. Other speakers will be the Rev. Hugh Leith, Capt. Carl S. Lauer and the Rev. James Cox, all ex-service men. Among the guests will be Capt. Luther Crawford, of Tyrone, department commander, and Charles McLain, of Indiana, past department commander.

While commemorating the loss of the Maine and its 250 officers and sailors, memorial services will be held for all Spanish War veterans who died in Allegheny county during the last year.

THIEVES GET $50 IN DERRY HIGH SCHOOL

DERRY, Pa., Feb. 15.—The thieves who broke into Derry Township High School weren't seeking education. They took $50 in currency and ignored interesting text books, including a large supply of Washington Irving's Essays.

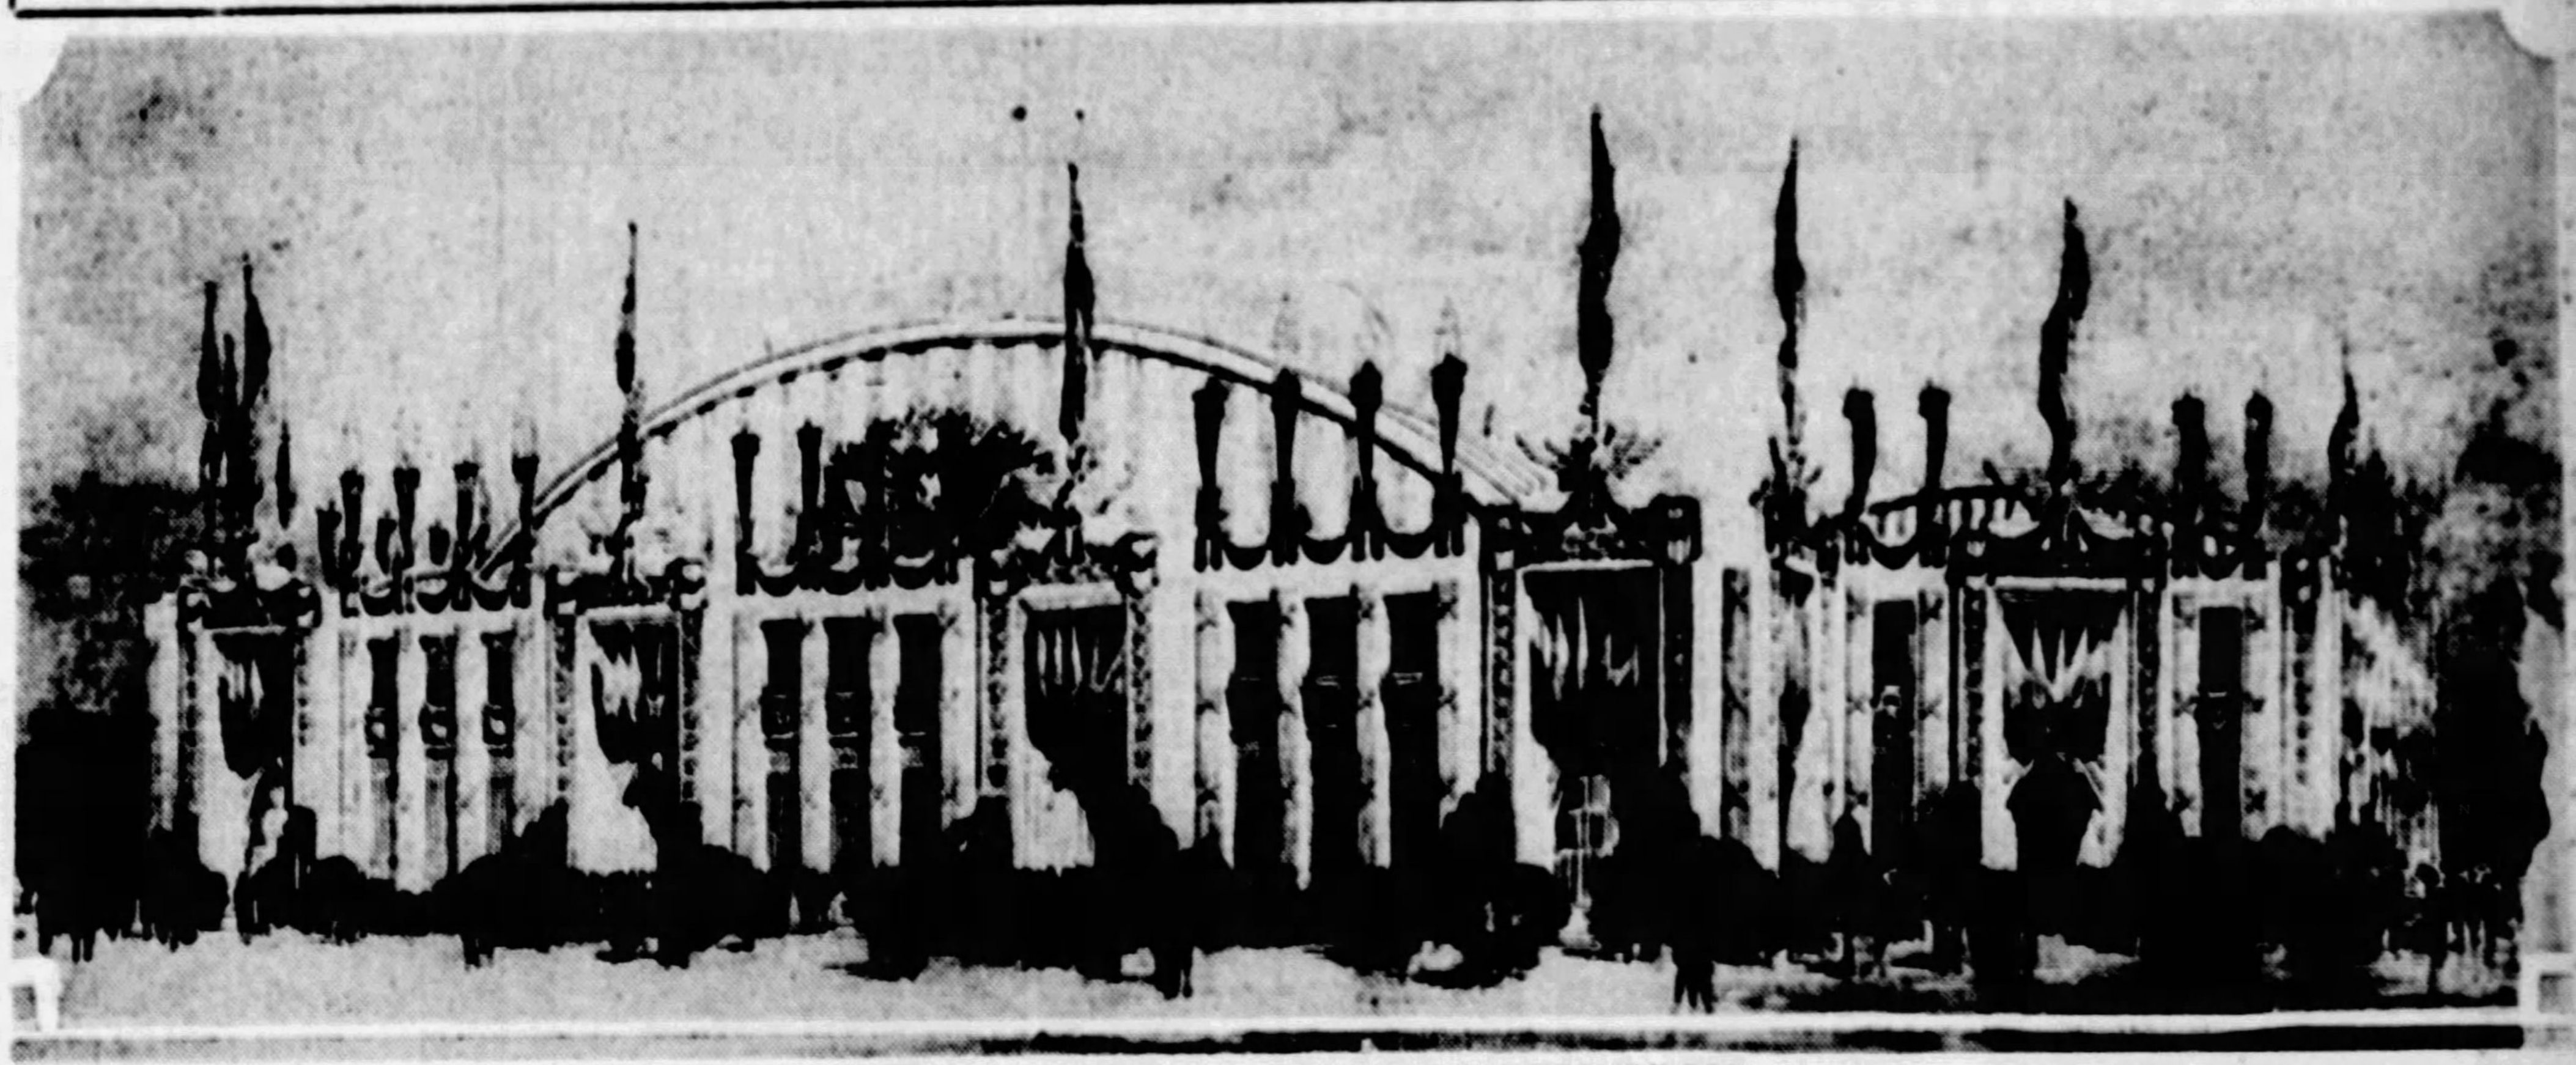
HOUSTON TO BUILD FOR CONVENTION



NEW CONVENTION HALL TO HOUSE 25,000

Having decided the convention hall of which the town now boasts will not be large enough to handle the Democratic National Convention, citizens of Houston are to build a new and bigger auditorium which will house 25,000 persons. This artist's sketch of the building's front is reproduced in the Sun-Telegraph through courtesy of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

ROPE TO CLAIM TOLL -:- FOR LIVES -:- HICKMAN BLASTED

"THE FOX" TRAIL ENDS

Sentenced to death on the gallows April 27, William Edward Hickman, confessed killer of 12-year-old Marian Parker, is to pay for the lives he has wrecked through his crime.

TELL HOW TO USE BOND INTEREST

An answer was filed in Common Pleas Court today to the petition of John Francies, now county treasurer, for instructions as to the disposition of more than $9,000 which accrued as interest on bonds posted with him while he was clerk of courts.

Attorney Homer N. Young, with three clients who gave bonds to Francies, filed the answer, proposing the interest be returned to the bond-posters in cases where there had been no forfeiture or breach. Where the bond provisions had been violated, it is suggested that the money be turned over to the county.

Attorney Young represents Otto Schuchman, Frank L. Swallow and Alex Madfish, who would receive a total of $79.95 if the interest were returned to the persons giving the bonds.

EX-OFFICER'S SLAYER GUILTY

Fess Neal, Negro, 22, tried on a murder charge for the death March 10, 1925, of Joseph W. Leech, 42, of 209 Shetland avenue, a former city policeman, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter today by a jury in Criminal Court.

The Negro was sentenced to serve from one to two years in Western Penitentiary by visiting Judge Miles I. Potter. It was testified he struck Leech, who was intoxicated, and knocked him to the sidewalk in Frankstown avenue. Leech died from a fractured skull. Neal was captured three weeks ago in Bridgeport, Conn.

ASKS CITY FOR $5,000 FOR DAUGHTER'S INJURY

James Buckner, in behalf of his minor daughter, Jennie L. Bruckner, has entered suit in Common Pleas Court asking for $5,000 damages against the City of Pittsburgh for injuries received by the child October 5, 1926, when she is alleged to have fallen into a hole in a defective wooden sidewalk on Oneida street. The child was confined in a hospital seven months and is permanently lame, it is charged.

WELFARE BODY TO URGE CHILD HOME LAW

Legislation which would provide a home for every normal-brained and able-bodied child in the United States will be fostered at the National Conference of the Child Welfare Committee of America, to be held at Hotel Commodore, New York, February 20, 21 and 22. Leaders of the movement from every state will attend, including a number of governors and former governors.

Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson will preside at the opening session. The first day's speakers will include Dr. Nicholas M. Butler, Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Dr. John F. Finley, Dr. Charles H. Johnson, James E. West, J. L. Cohon, Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, Judge A. I. Noya, and George J. Hecht. Gov. Alfred E. Smith, of New York, will address a night meeting on February 21.

BOOKLET TELLS GROCERS HOW TO RAISE TURNOVER

A method for grocers to figure their rate of stock turnover is given in the February issue of "Jelko Good Luck News," a pamphlet published by the makers of Jelko Good Luck margarine. The system is: Deduct the gross profit from the gross annual sales, and divide this amount by a figure showing the average value of the stock carried. Most grocers, the article says, aim to have 12 turns a year.

This man will never grow old

Full of pep at 60. Never expects to get too old to enjoy life. Has found secret.

He's always astonishing people by introducing a lanky grandson or a flapper great-niece. For he's one of those men who seem young. With a clear skin, a springy step. And a laugh like a boy's. Actually he's reaching the age when most men think about retiring from business.

"Why should I retire?" he asks. "Never felt better in my life. All I ever need to keep well is Nujol. And that's not medicine." He's right. Nujol is a natural substance, perfected by the Nujol Laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). It contains absolutely no medicine or drugs. But it keeps the body functioning normally. For Nujol not only prevents any excess of the body poisons (we all have them) from forming, but also aids in their removal.

There's no age limit on Nujol. Doctors put babies on it soon after they're born. School children take it. Mothers and fathers. And the very old folks, too.

Maybe you think you feel perfectly well. Perhaps you suspect you don't. Anyway, try taking Nujol and see if there isn't a difference. Take it for 3 months. It can't do any harm to try. And it might do a lot of good. Everyone else who's tried it says so.

Be sure you get the genuine.

GIMBEL BROTHERS

the modern spirit in men's wear

Now, since moving pictures are actually sent through the air and the talk of television increases, a man can't be too particular about his appearance. Rapid world . . . . rapid impressions . . . . the limbo or fame in the twinkling of an eye . . . . how great a role a man's clothes play in his brief 'on stage' moments.

The modern man . . . . the true cosmopolite . . . . today in Pittsburgh . . . . tomorrow in New York . . . . next week in London has need of clothes that express his general modern philosophy. Excellent cut and tailoring . . . . reflecting clear thought and rapid concepts. Length of line and breadth of chest . . . . expressing extreme masculinity. Certain freedom . . . . indicating an easy attitude toward life. In these correct clothes the modern man wins by a wide margin before the game is played.

Gimbels in Pittsburgh well know these clothes needs and clothes thoughts of the modern man. In Society Brand clothes . . . . in Burberry London-made topcoats from the Men's Store . . . . and in correct modern accessories, likewise here, he can be certain of that well-turned-out, cosmopolitan air that is the spirit of modernity.

M'CREERY AID HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

The McCreery Mutual Aid Association, composed of the employes of the McCreery department store, held their annual meeting yesterday, chose officers and directors for the ensuing year, and in the evening had their annual banquet as guests of their employers. A Valentine party followed the dinner, in which more than 700 persons took part.

The election resulted as follows: President, J. B. Swinney; vice president, J. B. Price; secretary, C. L. Buckley; treasurer, H. Engel; directors, Miss Doris Ollerenshaw, Miss Minnie Jankosky, R. W. Wallace, A. L. Bailey, George A. Feeters, W. J. Keller, William J. Murray and Joseph A. Frey. The retiring president was E. Bert.

The speakers at the banquet were Alexander MacLachlam, president of the store; Arthur Kaufmann, general manager, and J. B. Swinney, superintendent. The spirit of St. Valentine was reflected in the decorations of the store dining room, where the dinner was held, and in Valentines distributed to the guests.

A program of entertainment was given after dinner under the direction of Miss Jankosky and Miss Ollerenshaw. J. P. Eichmiller led the singing. C. E. Dovey played a mandolin solo, accompanied by Miss Irene Dovey. Dances were presented by Miss Dorothy Wenzel, Master Paul Bozan and little Miss Helen McAllister of the Barth School of Dancing. A violin solo was played by Leo Daniels, accompanied by Simon Feigenbaum. Miss Jeannette Stout of King's School of Oratory read a one-act play. Cards and dancing followed the entertainment.

The McCreery Mutual Aid Association is 24 years old, having been formed when the store was opened.

Melodie, B major, No. 3, Opus 8	Paderewski
Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 2	Liszt

Paderewski, obviously in wonderfully generous mood, played for us once again in Syria Mosque last night. There seems to be little diminishing in his powers, either technical or poetical, for he kept his audience entranced for more than two hours, and then added four good-sized encores. That he is still an offender against good taste in acoustics is an old story, but far oftener than before he remembered the limitations of his piano. I found a more distant place for the second half of the concert; since Paderewski plans his effects and tone for a large auditorium, I am now certain not everyone was similarly impressed with his music.

It was a magnificent program to hear. The Schumann Etudes and their romantic atmosphere spilled over somewhat into the Moonlight Sonata. That was suitable enough for the first movement, but dimmed the brilliance of the presto which we are accustomed to hear nowadays at lightning speed. Of the four imperishable melodies of Schubert paraphrased by Liszt, I preferred the Erlking which was almost vocal in its declamation.

By judicious use of tempo rubato the entire Chopin group was rejuvenated, though not entirely free of sour notes. The Black Key Etude had to be repeated, but the Mazurka was really Paderewski at his best. It is difficult to imagine a more stirring bit of music than his playing of the Liszt Rhapsodie, when his tone became orchestral and his imagination became ecstatic. A Schubert Impromptu in A Flat Major and Chopin Berceuse rested him so he could burst forth again in a very tired rendition of Liszt's Campanella, and then a happier interpretation of the Military Polonaise and another Chopin Waltz.

Don't Let People Say "He Lost His Nerve"

New Discovery Makes Weak, Uncontrollable Nerves Strong and Steady in Two Weeks or Money Back, Says May Drug Co.

The mighty energizing power of Lifetone Tablets shows so quickly that often one package is all that is needed to turn run-down nerve shattered men and women who lack confidence and ambition into strong, vigorous people.

Men who possess buoyant vitality never lose their nerve in emergencies, but on the other hand are always full of confidence and the joy of living.

Start to get rid of nervousness and increase your vitality today, take two Lifetone Tablets after each meal and two at bedtime for two weeks.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not much steadier than before; if you do not feel more ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, May Drug Company, or the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them. 72 tablets for $1.00.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.

Face the truth about body odor

Don't risk embarrassment—this toilet soap purifies

HOW SHOCKED we would be if anyone ever told us that we were guilty of body odor!

Of course, no one would be so indelicate. But the truth remains that anyone of us may offend.

To live, we must perspire. Even on cold days our pores give off invisible perspiration—often as much as a quart of waste each 24 hours.

This body moisture, whether it can be seen or not, is always odorous. And it never plays favorites. Housewife or banker—laborer or society debutante—all may offend unless they take precautions.

But while others notice body odor instantly—the offender doesn't.

Don't take chances. To avoid embarrassment, just wash and bathe often with the world's most delightful toilet soap—Lifebuoy—it deodorizes.

The same gentle, antiseptic lather that helps protect health by removing germs—prevents body odor by purifying pores. And Lifebuoy keeps complexions so fresh and clear! You'll enjoy it for every purpose.

Note its hygienic scent

You will learn to love Lifebuoy's pleasant clean scent, which tells you Lifebuoy purifies, yet which quickly evaporates after rinsing. Use Lifebuoy a week and you'll use it for life. Get some today.

Hemorrhoid Sufferers

You Can End All Pile Misery Without Cutting or Salves.

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting often fails?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by May Drug Co. and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, quick and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you.

MAKE MORE MONEY

Healthy, vigorous men land life's best prizes. Buoyant step, bright eyes, clear complexion and exuberant vitality denote a system free from impurities. Constipation poisons the whole system, slows the step, saps energy, destroys confidence and cuts down the earning power.

Rid your sytem of constipation and its poisons. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets remove them gently, tone up the system, clear the eyes and complexion and bring back normal vigor. A compound of vegetable ingredients, prescribed to patients for 20 years in place of calomel. They act easily and quickly on bowels and liver.

Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets and keep fit for the daily grind. Thousands of happy men and women use them regularly as an aid to success in their everyday tasks. Know them.

RAP HARMONY FARE CHANGE

Protesting against increased fare and reduced trolley service by the Harmony Route, a large delegation of the Keown Civic Association appealed to the county commissioners yesterday to have the old fare and service restored.

John A. Hollinger, chairman of the delegation, informed the commissioners that car service had been cut to one and one-half-hour intervals during the day. As one result, Hollinger said, property values were depreciating.

The commissioners replied that the Public Service Commission was the proper body to deal with the complaint.

FORMER DRY AGENT SENTENCED IN BRIBE

Walter S. Henshell, former government prohibition agent in the Pittsburgh district, convicted of extortion in the Federal District Court November 2, 1927, yesterday was sentenced by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker to serve six months in jail. The jury found him guilty of accepting a diamond ring from Roy A. Blakely, a North Side saloonkeeper, to influence him in the performance of his official duties.

Wallace Beery Through With Slapstick Movies—To Appear In Tully's "Beggars of Life"

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS,
Motion Picture Editor of Univesal Service.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.

WALLACE BEERY can cease grinding his teeth and threatening to leave the screen, Paramount, after months of refusal to listen to Mr. Beery, have seen the light and from now on will permit their unhappy comedian to resume his former vocation as a character actor.

Only one more pie-throwing movie for Wally with his side-kick, Raymond Hatton, and then Jim Tully's excellent story, "Beggars of Life." Wally is so pleased that his face these days is wearing a perpetual grin.

One thing more. He has a hankering to play "Trader Horn," after he completes "Beggars of Life." But so far Paramount cannot see this fascinating tale in the screen. But Wally has hopes. After talking B. P. Schulberg, Jesse L. Lasky and the rest into submission on the slapstick proposition, nothing seems hopeless.

The movies, after all, are not to compete with grand opera. "Pagliacci," sung by so many world-renowned operatic stars, will not be Al Jolson's next Vitaphone picture for Warner Brothers. Mr. Jolson has very wisely decided not to compete with Caruso. Why should he when he is so successful in his own line of work. I hear tell there are plans on foot to write a story based on "Mammy," his most successful song.

Warner's studio is due to open its doors March 15, when "Noah's Ark" and six other productions will get underway.

The success of "Sadie Thompson" in New York has encouraged Gloria Swanson to go out and get herself the best play obtainable. It has likewise induced Joseph Kennedy, who is financing her next United Artists production to encourage this expenditure. Gloria has her eye on "Burlesque," New York's greatest Broadway success. But the way is anything but clear for her. Famous Players-Lasky also wants that play.

Rod La Rocque, who says he hasn't smiled since his bride, Vilma Banky, left Hollywood to sail for Europe, can smile again. Rod is joining Vilma in Budapest. He left last night for New York, where he will sail on the Mauretania February 21 for Hungary. This will be his first opportunity to meet the mother and father-in-law.

Pauline Garon, the former Mrs. Lowell Sherman, is on her way to New York on an interesting mission. Polly is going to take out naturalization papers and become an American citizen. She is a Canadian, having come from the part of Canada where French is spoken as frequently as English.

Singer in Alvin Once in Local Choir

Sudworth Fraser, former tenor in the choir of the Third Presbyterian Church, has the role of Prince Karl Franz in "The Student Prince," current show in the Alvin.

Mr. Fraser is a native of Minneapolis. While singing in a church choir there he was heard by Mrs. D. M. Clemson, formerly Christine Miller, who was so impressed with his work that she induced him to come to Pittsburgh to the choir of the Third Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Fraser left the local choir to join the DeWolf Hopper Opera Company in a revival of "Erminie," singing the tenor lead.

Star Has Emotional Role

LILLIAN GISH is said to have the best emotional role of her career in "The Enemy," film version of the stage play of the same title. The first public showing of the picture outside of New York is scheduled for the Penn, beginning February 20.

Male Baby Stars Out for Glory This Year

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 15.—Thirteen male baby stars today swam into the motion-picture skies to pair off, mixed — metaphorically speaking, with the 13 regularly qualified Wampas baby stars of 1928.

Announcement of baby stars has been an annual custom of the film publicity men's organization for seven years. The baby stars have always been feminine. This year someone thought something should be done for the men.

The male branch of the order is not official, but, anyway, here are the 13 names:

Charles Rogers, Lawrence Gray, Charles Farrell, Nils Asther, George Lewis, James Murray, Richard Arlen, Nick Stuart, Raymond Keane, Larry Kent, George Duryea, Donald Reed, Gary Cooper.

All are expected to attend the annual Wampas ball on February 25, when the regular Wampas baby stars, announced some days ago, will be presented en masse.

DRAMA, MUSIC COMING

David Belasco will present Lenore Ulric in the Nixon next week in "Lulu Belle," which ran two seasons in New York. Miss Ulric's supporting cast includes Frank Thomas, Jack Hartley, Lawrence Eddinger, William St. James, Jean Del Val, William Boag, Jane Ferrel, William Friend, Joseph Allenton and many others. Seats go on sale Thursday.

Jed Harris, proprietor of "Broadway," drama of the cabarets, which will be seen in the Pitt next week, is the youngest and one of the most successful producers now active in the American theater. Harris, is 28. The sale of seats for the local engagement of "Broadway" will begin Thursday morning.

"Oh, Kay," which will occupy the stage of the Alvin next week, playing the Wednesday and Saturday matinees, is a musical play. Heading the cast are Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit. The seat sale opens Thursday.

A single unit, consisting of six vaudeville acts, headed by Harry Carroll, will form the Keith-Albee vaudeville program in the Davis Theater next week. "Ladies Must Dress," starring Virginia Valli, will be the photoplay.

PAUL WHITEMAN BOOKED FOR SANDERS'

Paul Whiteman and his orchestra of 30 pieces will appear for a dance engagement in Sanders' Saturday night, February 25. The Whiteman Melody Boys and "Skin" Young will be featured in the program. This will be the first time for Whiteman and his organization to play here exclusively for a dance.

ALGERIANS REMAIN DANCELAND FEATURE

Capt. Warnack's Algerians are entertaining for a second week in Danceland. In addition to furnishing music for the dancing, the organization includes a number of performers, who entertain with dance specialities, vocal solos and comedy antics.

BURCHFIELD QUITS CITY PLAN GROUP; NAME TONE

The resignation of A. H. Burchfield from the city planning commission, and the appointment of S. L. Tone as his successor, was announced yesterday by Mayor Charles H. Kline. The appointment was confirmed by Council.

He suffered contusions of the face and shock. Homer Bigley of Swissvale, driver of the cab, was arrested by police.

PRINGLE DENIED NEW TRIAL

Charles K. Pringle, of 5850 Ellsworth avenue, convicted of possession of intoxicating liquor while an election officer of the Eighteenth District of the Seventh Ward at the general election November 2, 1926, a case prosecuted by William L. King as executive secretary for the Citizens League, was refused a new trial in an order and opinion handed down in Criminal Court by visiting Judge William A. McConnel, of Beaver, trial judge.

Pringle was placed on trial May 27 last, accused of being intoxicated at the polls and of possessing intoxicating liquors, being convicted on the latter charge. It was stated that he was an inspector on the board of that district. In the order Judge McConnel stated that sentence would be imposed when the District Attorney's office is ready.

DEATH ROLL

Harry Kerns Bartley.

Harry Kerns Bartley, 55, died yesterday in his home at 810 Bellefonte street. He was a lifelong resident of Pittsburgh, born in the old Twelfth Ward, a son of the late Alderman Calvin Bartley. He was past grand associate of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and was a member of J. B. Nicholson Lodge No. 585, the New Liberty Encampment No. 198, and Adelaide Nicholson Lodge No. 186 of Odd Fellows. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Edna Clare Johnston Bartley; two sons, Harry and Robert C. Bartley; a brother, Charles B. Bartley, and four sisters, Mrs. W. H. Ross, of Bellevue; Mrs. T. O. Patterson, Mrs. E. K. Hagy, of Penn avenue, and Miss Carrie Bartley, and his mother, Mrs. Calvin Bartley.

John J. Cooper.

J. J. Cooper, 33, a master engineer with the Fifteenth Engineers during the World War, died yesterday in the family residence, 613 Sterrett street, Homewood. He served with distinction with the active engineers throughout most of the war and was transferred to the headquarters company, Division of Supplies, just before the return of the regiment to Pittsburgh. Cooper was a member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church and Lodge No. 11, B. P. O. Elks. He leaves two brothers, two sisters and his father.

Mrs. Helen H. Easton.

Mrs. Helen Holden Easton, wife of Dr. John S. Easton, 1292 Denniston avenue, died early yesterday. Mrs. Easton was born in Jamestown, N. Y., the daughter of the late Morris S. and Adelaide C. Holden. She was educated in Pittsburgh and married Dr. Easton in 1900. Besides her husband, she leaves a son, a sister and a brother. She was a member of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

John E. Huntsman.

John E. Huntsman, of 3239 Feronia street, Sheraden, died at his home yesterday. He was born in Minerva, O., and lived in Sheraden for the past 12 years. He leaves two sisters and one brother.

PATRICIA PITT'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

Younger Society Woman Enjoys Her Movies Just as Well as Poorer Sister

HAVE many persons been trying, I wonder, like me, to discover what the social set does after the season is ended here, and after a large number of the "400" have left for the South or West or Europe? And perhaps you have, like me, been particularly interested in what the younger set still in the city does for social diversion. For the older women always have work to do for the charities and institutions or projects in which they are most deeply interested.

Of course there is always one answer, the movies. Perhaps many think the society folk would not value such entertainment. But they do. Quite often I have seen members of the smart set entering a movie, and the buds and those who have not yet flowered into buds talk of the stars of the cinema just as well as their poorer sisters.

Just at present society women and girls are showing a keen interest in bridge. And it really is quite natural that they are turning to this fascinating game for which they have had precious little time during the earlier part of the winter.

Every day bridges are given for the different little groups of intimate friends. And these affairs are, of course, most informal. Many society women are finding contract bridge, which requires, as you know, a much more accurate appraisal of the value of one's hand than auction, quite diverting.

The little bridge gatherings almost always have an interesting topic of news to discuss, such as the latest engagement. And just now a number of engagements are being made known.

The George Hobart Baileys of Dunmoyle place, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Isabel Bailey, to Kenneth V. Hughes, son of Mrs. Joseph Hughes, of Anderson, Ind.

Dorothy is a college girl, and she chose Sweetbriar as her Alma Mater. Her fiance went to the University of Indiana. No date has been set for the wedding.

I understand that Katherine Cunningham has decided on next Tuesday as the date for her marriage to George Field MacDonald, son of Mrs. George Field MacDonald, of the Ruskin apartments. Katherine is the daughter of Mrs. S. Woodward Cunningham, of Shady avenue, and she is to be married in the home of her brother and his wife, the Crawford Boyer Cunninghams, in Darlington road. The Rev. Dr. Albert Edward Day, pastor of Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, will perform the ceremony.

Kathryn Mitchell Franzell, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Frank Gilman Allen, of Norwood, Mass., who was, you recall, Eleanor Hamilton Wallace, of the North Side, before her marriage in November, will be Katherine's attendants, and Charles Henry Fleming III is to be best man. The ushers will include John Alexander Moore and Charles Edward Munn, of Pittsburgh. Quite a few parties have been given recently for the bride-elect, and among those entertaining were Eda McCoy, Kathryn Fransell, Mrs. William Earl Widau, Lois Olivia Linhart and Marjorie Bartholomew.

Since the close of the season with its duties of presenting to society her charming daughter, Florence, Mrs. Walter Cockrill Carroll, of College avenue, has made several visits to Springfield, Mass. There, as you know, she is staying with her married daughter, young Mrs. Edward Standish Bradford, Jr. Mrs. Carroll has just returned to New England, where she expects to stay about 10 days.

Florence, her youngest daughter and the bud of the family, is still in the city. She expects to go away later, I hear, but her plans are not yet complete.

The social activities of Pittsburghers wintering in the South are much more varied than those of the social set remaining in the city. In Palm Beach and other society winter colonies there is much entertaining.

Mrs. Henry R. Rea, one of Pittsburgh's most prominent social leaders, is active, as we might expect, at Palm Beach. She was the guest on Saturday at a bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia. Among the other guests was Princess Leon B. M. Raguinowska.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Goldman, of Hobart street, have made known the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Lillian Goldman, to Robert Leonard Dashew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dashew, of Baltimore. Miss Goldman formerly attended the University of Pittsburgh and has appeared as a dancer in several New York productions. Mr. Dashew is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University.

Miss Katherine A. and Miss Marcella M. Lutton, of Walnut street, entertained 20 guests at the Tuesday Musical Club concert yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Walter Lang, of Kendallville, Ind. Mrs. Lang, who formerly lived in Edgeworth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Glendon E. Curry, of Denniston avenue.

At a bridge-luncheon given Saturday in the Hotel Riverview, Greenville, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cooke, of Greenville, to the Rev. Elmer Ortner, of Saxonburg. The party was given in honor of Miss Cooke's house guests, Miss Dorothy Miller, of Cambridge Springs; Miss Margaret Beattie, of New Alexandria, and Miss Ethel Henderson, of Greensburg. Mrs. R. A. Getter, of Wilkinsburg, was also a guest. Miss Cooke is a graduate of the Pennsylvania College for Women and is a teacher in the Parnassus High School. The Rev. Ortner was graduated from Thiel College and Mt. Airy Seminary and is now pastor of St. Luke's Church in Saxonburg. The wedding will take place in the late summer.

Pittsburghers who spend the summer at Chautauqua will hold a get-together dinner Friday night in the Italian room of the William Penn Hotel, when Dr. Arthur E. Bestor, president of the Chautauqua Association, will talk on his recent trip around the world. The Rev. Dr. C. Wallace Petty is to be toastmaster. Wallace Russell is chairman for the dinner, and Mrs. H. C. McEldowney is chairman of the patron committee.

A card party is to be given Saturday afternoon in St. Canice's Hall, Knoxville, by girls of St. Canice's Sodality. Euchre, bridge and "500" will be played. Miss Elizabeth E. Bradshaw is president of the sodality.

Mrs. Theresa L. Jacques, of Forbes and Craig streets, gave a dinner recently for her nephew, Regis F. Leheny, who is leaving tomorrow night for Paso Robles, Cal., to join the Pirates.

Sterling Court No. 55, Order of the Amaranth, will hold a card party Friday afternoon in Gimbel's. Mrs. Roxalena Holman, royal matron, is to be assisted by Mrs. Katherine Cunningham, Mrs. Clara Moore, Miss Isla Brooks, Mrs. Minnie Shoop, Mrs. Amelia Shelat, Mrs. Clara Taylor and Mrs. Romilda Deiss.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Marion Charlotte Kohne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Kohne, of Hazelwood avenue, and Donald S. Ryder, son of Mrs. Carrie G. Ryder and the late Rev. Harry S. Ryder, of Pasadena, Cal., which was solemnized January 28 at Long Beach, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Ryder will be at home in West Thirty-first street, Los Angeles.

Lorena Orr Chapter No. 18, O. E. S., will hold a Valentine dance tomorrow night in the chapter room in Boyd's Hall, Penn avenue. Mrs. Emma Reinhard, Mrs. Lottie Hennie, Mrs. Lillian Zange, Mrs. Anna Chisholm, Mrs. Eva Trefaller, Mrs. Ida R. Dixon, Mrs. Lillian Noss and Mrs. Alma Boyd will be hostesses.

WELLESLEY CLUB TO MEET ON SATURDAY

A meeting of the Pittsburgh Wellesley Club will be held in the home of Miss Eda McCoy, South Negley avenue, on Saturday afternoon. Plans will be discussed for sponsoring the opening night of "The Mikado," which comes to the Alvin March 19. Mrs. Roswell Johnson will tell of her recent visit to Wellesley for the meeting of graduate counsellors.

The Business and Professional Women will have a Valentine party tomorrow night in the Fort Pitt Hotel. In the absence of the president, Mrs. James Myers, who is in the East, Mrs. Alberta Hull will preside. Plans will be made for a reception in honor of Mrs. Myers, who was married on Monday.

Mrs. Myrtle Hollar is chairman in charge of the banquet which Allegheny Sisterhood, No. 5, Dames of Malta, will give Friday night in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the organization. The banquet, which will be held in the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church rooms, will be followed by a program of entertainment and dancing at the new Malta Temple, North avenue and Reddour street. Mrs. Lillian Neisch is to be honor guest.

"Changes in Farm Life in the Last Twenty-five Years" were described before the Prytaneum Study Club yesterday by Mrs. W. F. Nebo, the members meeting in the home of Mrs. F. B. Woodward, Fifteenth avenue, Munhall. Mrs. Nebo's paper was supplemented by articles on farm relief, the earning of masters' degrees by farmers and "America's Debt to the Men," these being presented by Mrs. L. P. Lincoln, Mrs. J. M. Norris and Mrs. J. W. Snodgrass. "Giants of the Earth" was reviewed by Mrs. W. F. Stevens.

Boneless Chicken Pie with Mushrooms

IMAGINE a plump chicken cooked along with a pert, fragrant onion, a young carrot like a golden cornucopia of delicate flavor, and celery, crisp and succulent.

Think of fresh mushrooms, cooked with butter and a few stimulating drops of lemon juice. Crisp bacon. Firm white potatoes.

Picture a savory sauce of butter and flour and fresh chicken broth, seasoned with lemon.

And then imagine the meat of that young, juicy chicken imprisoned steaming hot along with that sauce and those flavorous mushrooms and bacon and potatoes, under a flaky golden crust that fairly melts in your mouth!

That is Chicken Pie Pennsylvania.

It is only one of the dishes that is making the Pennsylvania diners more popular every day. You can have it—or one of the many others—on the Pennsylvania trains all of this week.

Boneless Chicken Pie Pennsylvania. It's a dish for an epicure!

HE DRESSED HELEN OF TROY

Max Rée

Hollywood, Cal.—Max Rée, costume director for First National Pictures, who designed the costumes for the film "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," supervises a vast wardrobe with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of lovely clothes and fabrics for sets.

He recently told of his methods in keeping fine fabrics looking new during the hard wear of making a picture.

"Everything from silk to cheesecloth is worn at some time or other in our pictures," he said. "Repeated experiments have been made to keep these vast wardrobes in perfect condition. Nothing is so effective as Lux. I have ordered our wardrobe departments to use Lux to cleanse fine materials because it actually prolongs their life."

Every other great motion picture studio in Hollywood also uses Lux to get double wear from fabrics—sheer ones and sturdier ones, too. They buy it in the familiar blue packages found in millions of homes all over the country, used by millions of women in cleansing their own fine things, to get extra wear.

"A GLORIOUS SURPRISE to find my smile so dazzling white," says Miss Jane Fenwick of New York and Philadelphia. "Pepsodent is magical"

Find Out How White Your Teeth Are

Simply remove dull, "off-color" film this way

FREE 10-Day Test Proves It

IN hundreds of thousands of cases it is discovered that teeth thought naturally "off color" are actually dazzling white. A film coat makes them lustreless and dull. When you remove it the new way teeth take on a brilliance that amazes. Gums grow firm and coral pink.

Here is a simple test that shows what the new way can do for you.

Stars of the stage and screen have made this test by scores. It has shown them a most important beauty aid.

This scientific way in tooth and gum care removes the dingy film that clouds your teeth.

Just run your tongue across your teeth. And you will feel that film. It is the great enemy of pretty teeth and healthy gums.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It forms a breeding place for germs. And germs, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Ordinary brushing fails in successfully removing film. Under film are the clear, whiter teeth you envy.

Now modern science has perfected an effective film combatant called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film, then removes it. It firms and protects gums; beautifies teeth quickly and correctly.

"WILLING TO DIE FLYING"--LINDY; WON'T QUIT AIR

SPURNS PLEA TO STOP STUNTS IN PLANE

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Informed of the intention of Secretary of War Davis to request him to stop all stunt flying, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh replied he was perfectly willing to sacrifice his life if he should happen to be killed in the work he is doing.

"I don't consider what I am doing hazardous flying in the sense that I have taken unnecessary risks," he said.

"At the outset when new methods of transportation are coming into use, there must be pioneers to show the way and some of them are killed. But the ones who do the pioneering are the last ones to think of the hazards."

Col. Lindbergh said he had no intention of giving up experimental flying work.

"If it happens that I am killed doing these things, I'm willing to make the sacrifice," he declared.

"There are so many things to be done," he said. "Improvements in aviation are certain. They must come and they cannot be made unless experiments are made."

"Have you any particular flights in mind?"

"No," he replied. "But for the present there is no cause for worry," he added with a smile. "From now on until further notice I am in retirement. I need a rest in private life and am going to try to get it."

The last of his public appearances here for a time was scheduled for today when a banquet was planned in his honor.

APPEAL $10,000 WILL VERDICT

A new trial was asked yesterday by Attorney Joseph Stadfeld in behalf of Mrs. Elizabeth Felkar and others, to set aside a recent jury decision in Common Pleas Court awarding Alexander Felkar, her brother-in-law, the right to $10,000 insurance carried by Joseph Felkar, who died January a year ago. Three different groups were seeking the insurance money and the Canadian Life Insurance Company put the matter in the hands of the court to decide to whom it should be paid.

Pittsburgh's Third Cold Prevention Campaign

Wins Enthusiastic Co-operation

NOZOL Proves Successful Prevention Against Colds and Grippe

Take no chance with a cold

Beware of that slight cold in the head or clogged-up nostrils. They may be the start of more serious trouble. Take no chance! Begin the use of Nozol today.

Since 99% of colds originate in the nose, the greatest weapon of defense is Nozol, the new discovery that kills cold germs that lodge in the nose.

It is absolutely harmless, being widely used in hospitals and recommended by physicians. Get a bottle today.

NOZOL
(Nose-all)

WITH people everywhere suffering from colds and grippe, the May Drug Stores are leading a fight against these afflictions and are acquainting people with the remarkable new discovery known as NOZOL.

This preparation is being used in various parts of the country to break up head colds over night and to prevent colds at their source, which, in most cases, is the nose.

A few drops of NOZOL in each nostril clears them, kills the cold germs, makes breathing through the nostrils free and easy and enables Nature to throw off the attack.

When just a few cents will work such wonders it behooves everyone to co-operate with the local drive and do their part in breaking up this epidemic. NOZOL is guaranteed to produce results, or your money will be refunded.

"Never Neglect Sore Throat"

Don't ever underestimate the danger of a sore throat; if neglected, it may develop into something serious—as many know to their sorrow.

The same goes for a cold; pneumonia at this time of the year is your great enemy.

At the first sign of cold or throat irritation, use Listerine full strength as a gargle. Keep it up systematically.

Being antiseptic, it immediately attacks the countless disease-producing bacteria in mouth and throat, and halts many an ailment before it becomes dangerous.

During winter weather, when you are usually subjected to poor air and sharp changes in temperature, it's a good idea to use Listerine every day as mouth wash and gargle.

This pleasant and easy precaution may spare you a trying and painful siege of illness. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

That Morning Backache

Often Warns of Sluggish Kidneys and Uneliminated Waste Impurities

DOES morning find you stiff, achy—"all worn out?" Do you feel tired and drowsy—suffer nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells? Are the kidney secretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage?

Know then, these are often signs of improper kidney action and should not be neglected. Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to remain in the blood and upset the whole system. One can't feel well when the kidneys do not function properly.

If your kidneys are acting sluggishly take things easier for awhile, drink plenty of pure water, and assist them with Doan's Pills. Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Since 1885 they have been winning new friends the country over. Ask your neighbor!

EYE SHOT OUT, ASKS DIVORCE

Mrs. Freda Dashkewitz, Wilmerding, has filed a libel in divorce against her husband, Fred Dashkewitz, now serving a sentence in the Western Penitentiary for shooting her eye out in February, 1926. The wife charges cruel and barbarous treatment. Assistant United States District Attorney Ralph H. Smith, who as an assistant district attorney of Allegheny county prosecuted Dashkewitz for the shooting, is the wife's attorney in her divorce suit.

Other libels in divorce have been filed as follows: Fern R. Schupp, 402 Selma street, against Henry Schupp, Seventh Avenue Hotel, desertion, and Myra M. Osbourne, 338 Taylor street, against Clyde Kingsley Osbourne, Butler street, desertion.

ASK UNSIGHTLY WALL SURVEY

A resolution directing Public Works Director Edward G. Lang to survey the unsightly concrete wall along Bigelow boulevard, and submit estimates of the cost of rehabilitating it, was presented in Council yesterday by James F. Malone.

The wall, according to reports, is in good condition, but is unsightly. Councilman W. Y. English presented a resolution asking Lang for a survey of streets, where the distance between the car tracks and the curb is insufficient to permit the passing of automobiles.

COUNCIL STORM FAILS TO BREW

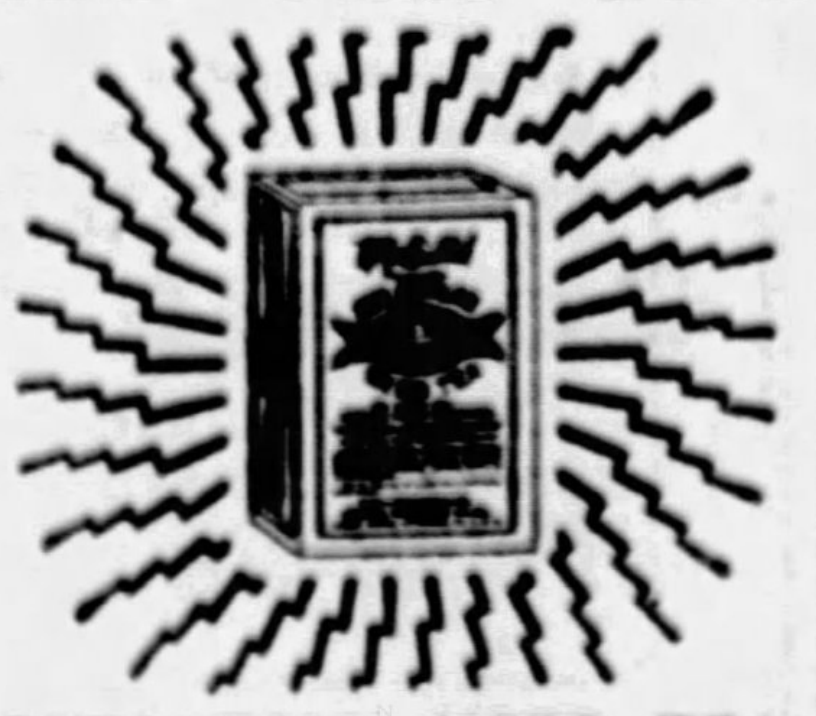
Police were on duty at the doors of the Braddock council chamber for the first time in history last night and although a stormy session was expected, little took place other than the swearing in of George B. Magill, as a member of that body, succeeding John C. Phillips. Phillips, who retired recently after 20 years' service as a councilman. Burgess G. Fenton Mitchell said that the police had been requested by Morgan S. Harrity, president of council.

TOT GETS LOST ON AUTO RIDE

Found wandering in the Carrick district last night, George Morgan, 6, of East Ohio street, North Side, told police that he had been taken for a ride by a truck driver who put him off the truck near where he was found. The boy was taken to the matron's department in the South Side Police Station and held for his parents.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO COAL CAMP WAITER

Heart disease caused the death of John Kelly, 41, of 437 Third avenue, in the Allegheny General Hospital last night. Kelly was taken to the hospital after he had collapsed in front of his residence. He was employed as a waiter at a Castle Shannon coal camp.



Kill That Cold

BULGARIAN HERB TEA

Taken steaming hot breaks up your cold quickly. The rich vitalizing juices brewed from the roots, barks, leaves, plants and flowers build power and resistance in your blood and aids nature to purge the poisonous germs out of the system.

It costs but a few cents at your druggist.

SPINE FOUND IN BLAST RUINS

Part of a spine, about four inches in length, was found yesterday afternoon by workers dismantling the tank of the Equitable Gas Company at the site of Manchester explosion last November. There was nothing to cast light on the identity of the spine and Morgue Superintendent John Black expressed belief that it was part of one of the bodies recovered.

5 BOY TOURISTS, IN STOLEN CAR, FAR ASTRAY

Faulty knowledge of geography led five Pittsburgh youths far astray when they started out to see the "middies and battleships" at Annapolis, Md., they testified today in Morals Court when arraigned for stealing an automobile for their journey.

"We got a little mixed up and started for Indianapolis," they told Magistrate A. D. Brandon, after taking the car of Oster Hempelman from in front of his home, 3551 Gerber avenue, North Side.

The lads were picked up in Columbus, O., Monday night and were brought back last night by Detectives Albert Grayber and James McInerney.

The five were discharged with a reprimand by Magistrate Brandon at the plea of parents of the boys and after learning no damage had been done to the car, which was returned to its owner.

The youths are Martin O'Brien, 16, of 1404 Eckert street; Charles Newman, 16, of Oxfield street; Elmer Schneider, 17, of 3001 Shadeland avenue; Carmen Soave, 17, of 3016 Shadeland avenue, and Martin Schwartzbauer, 16, of 3004 Frederick street.

DANCE CONTEST ANNOUNCED

A non-stop dancing contest to start at 11 o'clock Monday night was announced today by the management of Danceland, in the Olympic Theater Building, 319 Fifth avenue. The contest is open to all dancers, and the prize for the winning couple will be $100 in gold.

A huge clock will be erected in Fifth avenue to acquaint the public with the progress of the contest, and a catering company will build a temporary stand in the ball room to furnish food to the dancers, who must continue dancing while eating. Each couple will be permitted 15 minutes rest for each six hours of dancing, to be taken at one time or at intervals. Entrants may register, by mail, with the director of the contest.

NAME PATRIOTIC DAY ORATORS

At the joint celebration of the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington to be held under the auspices of the American Flag Day Association in the Central Young Men's Christian Association at 8 p. m. Saturday, Chairman William T. Kerr has announced Councilman Daniel Winters as the orator for Lincoln while Col. Charles F. Irwin will speak on the life of Washington. The music will be furnished by a chorus of 50 voices from the Congress of Women's Clubs, directed by Earl B. Collins; the Flag Day Association Quartet, under E. M. Tanner, and the Boys' Y. M. C. A. Orchestra, directed by A. D. Liefeld. The meeting will be free to the public.

MAY BAR POLLS FROM CITY'S SCHOOLS

Refusal of the County Commissioners to pay rental for the use of rooms as polling places in nearly 150 school buildings, may result in closing the doors for such purposes, Attorney N. R. Criss, of the Board of Public Education, said today.

Attorney Criss, who is the chairman of the committee to which the subject of seeing that several years' rental are collected, was referred, said he hoped to take the matter up with the commissioners soon, as the claim for the arrears amounts from $3,000 to $4,000 a year.

Attorney Criss says that the board had to close the Hancock School at the last election, due to disorder, drinking and other causes and that these conditions exist elsewhere. The question may come up at the Board of Education's meeting next Tuesday night for a further airing.

OFFICER HURT IN CRASH

Motorcycle Patrolman Edward Zygello of the Sharpsburg Police Department was injured yesterday when his motorcycle struck a traffic signal at Eleventh and North Canal streets, while answering an emergency call. A tire on the rear wheel of the machine burst, throwing the cycle and driver against the signal. He suffered cuts and bruises and was treated at a physician's office.

RUMOR PART OF HARTJE BLDG. LEASED

A deal is in progress whereby the American Radiator Company will lease for a 10-year term a large part of the eight-story Hartje Building, 810-14 Second avenue, near Wood street, according to reports circulated among real estate men.

It is understood that the papers have been sent to New York for final approval. The Hartje Building is erected on 48x160 feet and extends through to first avenue.

A program of national advertising to show the world the power of Pittsburgh's diversified industry was advocated by Arthur V. Snell, secretary-manager of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, speaking at a luncheon of the Pittsburgh Real Estate Board at the William Penn Hotel. He told of some of the false ideas regarding Pittsburgh, which have gained wide circulation, and outlined methods of correcting them. C. Edward Keck presided at the meeting.

The Kelly-Wood Real Estate Company has sold for William A. Robinson, to Mary J. Murray, a 12-room brick residence at 660 Northumberland street, Fourteenth Ward, at private terms. The property was then resold to Ralph M. Chantler. The lot is 50x137 feet.

McLain Davis has sold to Dr. Charles A. Lauffer, a three-story brick building in Rebecca street near Hay street, Wilkinsburg, at private terms. There is a store room on the first floor and five apartments above. The lot is 22x80 feet.

Lotta C. Weaver has sold to Joseph Daibler, a 10-room brick house and garage on 50x130 feet on South avenue near Pitt street, Wilkinsburg, for $14,000.

A two-story frame dwelling and two-car garage on 25x100 feet at 211 Lorenz avenue, Twentieth Ward, has been sold by William Horsfall to Joseph B. Arbuthnot, for a private consideration.

Elias F. Heim has sold to William J. Archbold a house on 30x160 feet in Bensonia avenue, Beechview, for $11,000.

Christian Binder has transferred to Joseph S. Zodia a house on 40x132 feet in Cedarville street, Lawrenceville, for $11,000.

Zea Kostelski has sold to W. Wilma Brown, of Toledo, a house on two lots in Acme street, Harmar township.

'FINGERPRINTS' TALK TOPIC

Fingerprints of every citizen will be taken in the near future for purposes of identification, in the opinion of Dr. Manuel C. Elmer, professor of sociology at the University of Pittsburgh. He made the prediction yesterday in an address before the members of the Credo Club of the Credit Association. Prof. Elmer presented charts to show that 62 per cent of the prison population has been confined more than once and that 78 per cent have committed more than one offense.

He said that Milwaukee had only two murders per 100,000 population, while Pittsburgh had 14 per 100,000.

A large delegation from the Credo Club will leave Pittsburgh Thursday night for Harrisburg to attend the Pennsylvania credit conference.

WASHINGTON MAN GETS 2 YEARS IN COAT THEFT

Joseph McBridge, 20, Negro, who came to Washington, Pa., from New Orleans last year, was sentenced to the workhouse for one to two years by Judge Ambrose B. Reid in Criminal Court after a conviction for larceny. He was accused of taking an overcoat and watch November 20 from the loan office of David Levy, 1010 Wylie avenue, being caught after a chase.

Featuring the New Blues In Misses' Spring Coats

Blue . . . any shade of which is a tribute to youthfulness . . . enters the field of fashion with two new interpretations . . . Middy (a deep shade, slightly lighter than Navy) . . . and Corsair (gay . . . with hint of electric intensity in its color.) Blue coats are new for Spring . . . and indubitably lovely.

Particularly Effective With Blonde Mole

These blues can be combined attractively with almost any fur . . . fitch . . . or the longer haired fox. But they are particularly effective with new blonde mole. One model has a long Tuxedo collar of the golden, flattering fur. Another boasts a small horseshoe collar that just frames the head. (The illustrated model utilizes leopard most ingeniously as to cuffs.)

The Furless Coat Appears

Some of these youthful models carry only tie scarfs as trimming. Some introduce the chic cape that Paris has sponsored this season. Some mark a transition between the furred and the unfurred by combining fur cuffs and scarf collar. And all are smart, new and becoming!

49.75 to $275

TEA, MRS. SCHENLEY POURING

It was about this tea-table that the action took place in "Old Pittsburgh Days," a play written by Mrs. Gertrude Margaret Rohrer, and presented by members of the Swissvale Women's Club Monday afternoon in the Swissvale Public Library Building. Discussion of such advanced agencies of speed and daring as street cars, fast trains and bicycles were made. Mrs. G. A. Thompson represented "Mrs. Jane Gray Swisshelm," whose family founded Swissvale; Mrs. F. Dixon McCloy played the part of "Mrs. Negley" and Mrs. George C. Norris portrayed Mrs. Schenley."

MRS. L. N. SMITH

Old costumes, discovered in many homes of Swissvale, were used in costuming the play, which was directed by Mrs. Smith. Items of dress were found which dated back more than 75 years, and added much to the convincing quality of the play.

IN MALE ATTIRE

Several characters in the Swissvale Women's Club play donned male attire, for such characters as Andrew Carnegie, Pa Pitt, Henry Heinz. Mrs. Roy B. Connor represented "Stephen C. Foster" and was caught in a genteel gesture before Mrs. Edward R. Felton, characterizing "Mrs. Mellor." Mrs. C. F. Long, Mrs. W. D. Taylor, Mrs. R. A. Walters, Mrs. Resler Calihan, Mrs. J. C. Forman and Mrs. H. K. McJunkin played in the charming sketch.

BIBLE CLASS VOTES DEFI

Members of the Callender Men's Bible Class of the South Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Wilkinsburg, last night, voted to have Dr. T. Morton Sankey, ousted teacher, instruct the class Sunday morning over the orders of the Sunday school superintendent, even if police are called to carry out the orders of the superintendent, Dr. Sankey will be recognized as the "undeposed teacher," by members, according to the decision.

Dr. Sankey was ousted by Superintendent V. R. Covell, who has the support of the Rev. Sheridan W. Bell, pastor. Since that time Covell, Dr. Bell and the board of trustees have refused to appoint any one of seven persons selected for the teacher by members of the class. The decision last night means that the class will hear no other teacher than Dr. Sankey.

Vermiform Appendix a "Worm"—Like Ape's at Birth—It Works Only in Lowest Monkeys

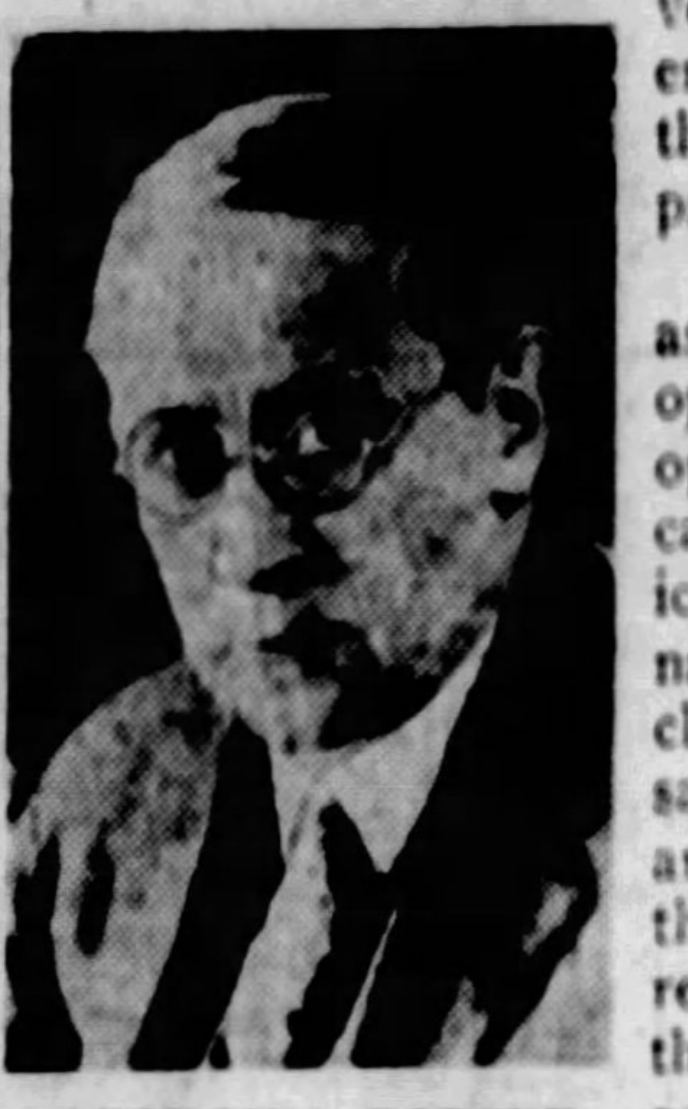
Mr. Dorsey is convinced that parents never will be able to choose the sex of their offspring; at least no means to selectivity has been discovered. So he told in the Sun-Telegraph yesterday. Also he explained how the hairy coat varies individually and in races. And that our finger and toe nails were inherited from our animal ancestors.

Teeth Point to Fish and Reptiles

By GEORGE A. DORSEY, PH.D., LL.D.

CHAPTER IV.

THE function of the renal organs or kidneys is to preserve a certain constancy in the blood stream and to eliminate certain noxious elements from the body. To perform this double function, three types of kidneys have been evolved. The developing human embryo, as well as embryos of other mammals, rehearse this story, all three types appearing in prenatal life.



GEORGE A. DORSEY

The alimentary canal appears first as a closed tube within the body. It opens later at each end, the upper opening becoming part of the mouth cavity. Below this opening four crevices appear which represent the internal arrangement of the fish-like gill-clefts. Below these crevices a single sac-like structure appears; this divides, and by further subdivisions becomes the right and left lung. From the region of the crevices outgrowths of the alimentary canal develop into thyroid, epithyroad and thymus glands.

From the extreme upper end of the embryonic canal develops a portion of another important gland, the pituitary. The stomach at first is merely an enlargement of the canal. Just below the stomach two outgrowths of the canal develop into the important glands of digestion, pancreas and liver.

Without further details of fetal development it will be worth while to recall certain variations in the systems of digestion, respiration, and circulation, which are significant in light of our animal ancestors.

Our Teeth Going

Our dentition is as well adapted for spinach as for beefsteak, specialized for neither. Our front, or incisor, teeth are only fair cutters; our bicuspids, or premolars, are not strong enough to crunch bones; our grinders, or molars, are not very good millstones. Our snarling muscle discloses no such canines as the flesh-eaters stab and tear their prey with. Our teeth are on the go. A perfect "civilized" set is rare. In hundreds of skulls I collected in New Guinea there was not one imperfect set—all strong, sound, beautifully aligned.

Man, apes, and old world monkeys have 32 teeth, eight on each side of each jaw; two incisors, one canine, two bicuspids, three molars. Man's mammalian ancestor had 44 teeth; three incisors, one canine, three bicuspids, four molars.

Variation rules. Often there is only one incisor, an inherited condition; there may be three incisors. The canine is rarely absent, but it may be a tiny stump; more often it is over-developed, disfiguring the face. A third bicuspid is not rare. A fourth molar is more rare, but frequent enough to be suggestive. The third molar, or wisdom tooth, is a bad lot among whites—jaws too short; it comes in at any angle, varies in its cusps, often is a mere stump, often never erupts at all.

Most fishes have teeth in the roof of the mouth as well as in the jaws proper. They do not occur in "sets," but are endlessly shed and reproduced. In the fish embryo the dental germs appear before the jawbones; in the human embryo also. In the infant's mouth is a ridge with from five to seven pairs of cross ridges; they are even more pronounced in the fetus. They disappear with age. Apes have 10 pairs of these ridges. In pigs, they are strong enough to crush food. Their presence in man, with an occasional more or less complete third set of teeth, points to fish and reptile days; teeth in the roof of the mouth, endlessly replaced.

Tonsils appear in fetal life as pockets. They shift position and develop into prominent bodies. With adult life they begin to disappear, leaving pockets prone to disease. They are not understood and are never alike.

Resemblance to Fish

The cricket's chirp was the first music on earth, but it was instrumental. The first voice was the amphibian's. Frog, bird, cat, dog and man would be silent without a larynx; without the human larynx there could have been no human speech or Tower of Babel. Ours is a wonderful larynx; let us get such joy as we can from it. Our developing respiratory system suggests fish; in our youth it is a hotbed of infection. Our vocal cords are human only in their high development. But we all have the blind pocket between true and false cords which served as a resonator and so strengthened the roar by which our ancestors frightened their foes and called their mates. In man it varies, but is never so deep as in the gorilla.

The vermiform appendix is the worm its name implies. It is a feeble, narrow, tapering blind alley, opening by a small mouth into the large intestine. At birth, in size and form it is like an ape's. At puberty it begins to shorten; it is about closed in every fourth adult; in every thirtieth adult it is closed throughout. It shrivels up with old age. It may be 10 times longer in one brother than in another. It is a true vestige. It is predisposed to disease; appendicitis is a fashionable operation. Only apes in captivity develop appendicitis. For an appendix that functions we must go to the lowest monkeys.

The liver usually has two lobes—it may have none, it may have 12; it may have two gall-bladders—it may have none.

Diet Brought Change

The abdominal viscera in the human embryo are not human in their arrangement. Only later does the mesentery, or sheet of membrane connecting the bowel, become attached to the back wall of the abdomen and so hold it in place and in perpendicular position. Sometimes the mesentery is found arranged as in monkeys. The loosely attached bowel easily twists and becomes obstructed.

There are more than mere structural variations in our food canal; there are signs of degeneracy—in teeth, in jaws and throat, and in the large intestine. Changed diet does it. To digest raw food our ancestors had to chew it. They had strong jaws, heavy muscles, sound teeth properly aligned, big throats and a colon that could digest husks for grain and skins of fruits and vegetables.

The lobes of the lungs vary in number and position. Due to man's upright gait, the heart has come to rest on the diaphragm. In monkeys the azygos lobe of the lung lies between. In man there is always a remnant of varying size, of this lobe.

STATE IN HEALTH ROW

SWISSVALE PUT UNDER CONOVER

Dr. John Conover, state medical director of Allegheny County, has assumed charge of the board of health in Swissvale Borough and until further orders he will direct the work of that board, he informed the borough council last night. Members of two boards have resigned since the first of the year because of political arguments, it is said. Dr. Conover, who said he came only to help, was introduced by borough solicitor, R. L. McDonald.

The meeting last night was featured by several outbursts on the part of Burgess Dr. W. T. Pyle and Councilman John Soles. The burgess was in favor of Dr. Conover's presence, but Soles was opposed to his taking charge. The first board of health was dismissed because it appointed a health officer over the opposition of council. Another board was appointed and fired because it retained the same health officer. A third board was appointed and another officer named. The state refused to recognize the present board.

Boom for Heflin Creates Mirth In Senate

By Universal Service.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Senators got a hearty laugh when a pamphlet was circulated among them bearing the slogan:

"Senator Heflin for President and Mabel Walker Willebrandt for Vice President."

"They do not choose to run, but we are going to draft them," stated the circular, issued by the National Fundamental Protestant Christian Association.

Heflin was first mentioned as a presidential candidate by Senator Moses of New Hampshire several weeks ago, when he facetiously urged the Democrats to adopt the slogan: "Houston, Heflin and Harmony."

SIDEWALKS OF PITTSBURGH

By HAVEY J. BOYLE

IT IS probably true that shop-talk engages the fancy of all men. By that we mean that railroad men are never happier than when discussing railroads; insurance men in discussing insurance; ad infinitum.

In the van of all of them, however, newspapermen seem to be. There is something about their ever-changing world that causes them to drift onto the affairs of the newspaper world and stick to them tenaciously through a long period.

SUCH a preface is prompted by a recent visit to Pittsburgh's sidewalks made by a Baltimore newspaperman. When a stranger comes into town, somehow, he lands among the reporters and editors and there ensues a long pow-wow. The stranger in question is Mr. Douglas, of Baltimore, here to look over the coal strike situation.

NEWSPAPERMEN, of course, do not stick to their text of nauseum. Such trifles as politics, the magazines, the theater and travel drift into the foreground now and then. Mr. Douglas having worked for the London Times, having seen service in the journalism of South America, and now engaged in reportorial work which takes him from one end of the country to the other, of course, was select meat.

AFTER a small group of us had skinned Mr. Douglas of an appalling amount of information as to the situation in New York and Chicago; what prices some of the magazines were paying (he also writes for the cultural magazines) and what size socks and neckband Mr. Mencken, of Baltimore, wears. Mr. Douglas took his turn to delve into all matters with a Pittsburgh connection.

CAN YOU TELL ME—?
WHAT IS THE SIZE OF HIS SOCKS?
WHAT ABOUT CHICAGO?
AN' NEW YORK?

IN THESE talks, of course, newspapermen have the advantage over some other walks of life. Bond men, for instance, must do their talking in the noisy daylight when street cars and auto horns toot, whereas newspapermen seldom get to operating conversationally in high gear until those quiet, peaceful and hushed moments contiguous to 3 oclock in the morning.

ALWAYS there are references to the big money reporters; the various favorites of the various cities, and the latest contracts signed by the high-powered syndicate men among columnists, cartoonists and prominent sports writers.

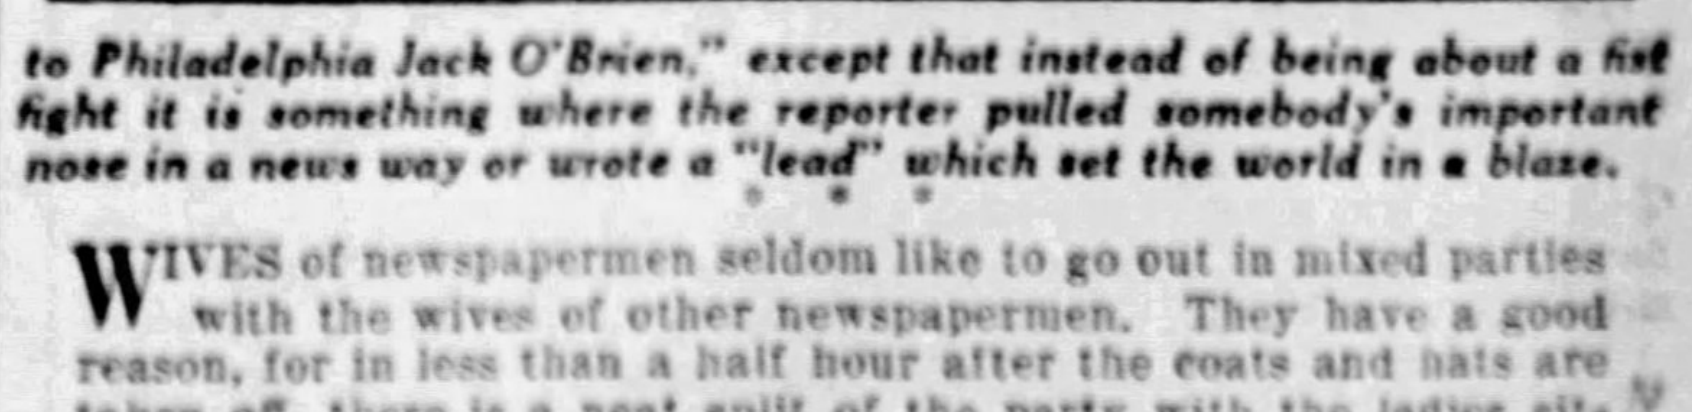
AROUND the close of the conversations, and this always is the signal for the important conference to break up, one of the boys moves to the center of the stage, asks for the spotlight, and comes out with his favorite story whose context is in this vein: "Tell him what I did to Philadelphia Jack O'Brien," except that instead of being about a fist fight it is something where the reporter pulled somebody's important nose in a news way or wrote a "lead" which set the world in a blaze.



SAY, DO YOU REMEMBER?
I'LL TELL YOU A FUNNY ONE!

WIVES of newspapermen seldom like to go out in mixed parties with the wives of other newspapermen. They have a good reason, for in less than a half hour after the coats and hats are taken off, there is a neat split of the party with the ladies sitting in one room twiddling their thumbs while in the kitchen (the kitchen preferably) are the reporters enthusiastically making over the fourth page, changing to their heart's content an editorial policy, perhaps, or engaging in a period of joyful reminiscence.

WHAT helps a little is that hokum comes into the conversation only about every hour. Reporters are so accustomed to smelling hokum at 100 yards that as soon as it rears its head in their own band there is a general yawning and somebody manages to change the subject. Either that or somebody decides to leave, remembering suddenly that the Little Woman by that time is fixing up a few hand grenades for nocturnal target practice.

Sue Sparkles With Joy In Anticipation of Her Marriage

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

LILLY LEXINGTON, spoiled daughter of the CYRUS LEXINGTONS, is engaged to marry STALEY DRUMMOND, a rich bachelor much older than herself. She is fond of him, but realizes she does not really love him the day after she accepts him, when she becomes instantly and violently infatuated with a taxicab driver whom she sees downtown when she goes to meet her chum, SUE CAIN. Forgetting all about Sue, she jumps into his cab and he drives her home. She learns that his name is PAT FRANCE and that he owns his own cab in a company headed by his friend, ROY JETTERSON. She marries Pat. Lily tried, and their domestic ship sailed smoothly for a few months. One day Lily met SUE CAIN, an old friend, on the street. Sue invited her to a card party. Lily, without funds, went to a store and tried to charge some clothes to her father. She was informed her mother had left word that "Mrs. Patrick France could not charge things to Mr. Lexington." Drummond pays all her bills. She leaves Pat. When her parents come home they tell her that they are broke. Drummond again comes to the rescue.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

BUT on Saint Valentine's night he telephoned from his office at 6 o'clock and told her he was coming to get her to take her to dinner. A half hour later he arrived with a box of pure white gardenias for her.

"Where do you want to go?" he asked her, as they started down the steps in the half darkness.

"Oh, some place gay and wild!" she told him, smiling sidewise into his eyes.

It would be easier to spend an evening alone with him some place where there was music to listen to, a crowd to watch. . . . It came to her, shocking her, that the thought of being alone with him anywhere here was a very dull and depressing thought.

"And yet I'm going to marry him in all probability," she said to herself as he opened the door of his car for her.

CHAPTER LII.

THE "some place gay and wild" that Staley picked was a restaurant called the Club Casanova.

It really was not a club, except in the sense that it was a night club and that a membership there could be bought for a hundred dollars. Moreover, practically anybody who had a hundred dollars to throw away could belong to the Club Casanova.

"It's out in the country about 20 miles," Staley said that St. Valentine's eve, as he started his smooth-going, soft-purring car, and it swerved out of the driveway with the low hum of its motor as quiet and steady as the hum of bees over a field of sun-soaked clover.

The night was cold, and all around Lily were the cream-colored panther skin robes that he had tucked around her. In the little cut-glass vase fastened against the window frame were fresh white gardenias, like the ones that he had brought her to wear that night. Their fragrance filled the inside of the car.

Lily gave a sigh as he leaned back and touched her cigaret with the silver cigaret lighter that was attached to the dash. All these luxurious things were pleasant—there was no getting away from it.

It was pleasant to get into a car that was like the coziest, most luxurious little room that ever was. Pleasant to lean back against the soft cushions—and to be on her way to a delicious dinner that she had not had to get herself.

She sighed again. "Oh, Staley, I've worked so hard all day," she said. "It's such a job for me and mother to keep that big house in any kind of order. It seems to me I've been dusting and sweeping and tearing around all day. And yet we didn't get the silver polished or the kitchen floor scrubbed—and I'm so tired."

She saw Staley smile to himself in the half-darkness, as he put out his left arm and laid it around her shoulders.

"Well," he said humorously, "I know I'm not much of a fellow, but my wife will have a pretty good time just the same. She won't have to work her lovely fingers to the bone, anyway—" And he bunched Lily's fingers together and kissed all of them.

After a minute she drew them away. His touch irritated her just as it always had.

"Let's go and get Sue and Jack," she said to him as brightly as she could. She did not feel half so bright and cheerful as the lovely, rippling tones of her voice sounded. She could have groaned at the thought of the long evenings ahead of her with Staley—but with Sue and Jack along it would not be half bad.

"Do you really want them?" Staley sounded disappointed. "I thought I'd have you to myself for once. I wanted to talk to you seriously."

That meant that he wanted to pin her down about starting her divorce suit. She knew. It meant that he wanted to hold her hand across a table for two and tell her how much he loved her.

"Oh, let's get the kids," she said carelessly, but she had made up her mind that she would not go unless they went, too. Her head ached, and she would be better off at home in bed. Anyway "two people alone in a restaurant are always the lonesomest-looking creatures, I always think. A crowd—even a foursome—is so much more cheerful."

She had her way, and they drove to Sue's house. Sue had just come home from some place or other with Jack Eastman, and she was standing in the hall saying good-night to him when they rang the bell.

She turned, a slim, vivid young figure in a tomato-red coat and hat that made her look more like a gypsy than ever, and gave her quick, boyish grin when she saw them standing outside on the lighted porch.

"I was just going to call you up, darlings, she told them as she opened the door. And then her voice dropped. "Come along in, and we'll give you some inside dope. But you're not to tell anyone."

She told them what her news was in a vibrating whisper. "We're going to be married tomorrow afternoon and we want you to be with us. No one else—just the four of us. We aren't telling anyone else."

She was radiant and sparkling with happiness, and for a second Lily almost hated her. Here she was, not only marrying the man she loved to distraction, but sure of plenty of money always, besides. She never had had to make the difficult choice that Lily had had to make—whether to marry for money or for affection. Everything had come her way, and it was a smooth and easy and pleasant way.

"We were coming to get you to go out and make a night of it somewhere," Lily told her, "and now we'll have a real reason for celebrating, won't we?"

But Jack shook his head. He had a million and one things to do before the next day, he said. He couldn't go out and make a night of it anywhere.

"I can't either," sue added. "I've got to pack up some clothes and sneak them out of the house. You can help me, Lily, now that you're here."

It was no secret that the Cains had forbidden Sue to marry Jack Eastman until he was really earning the money that he was paid every week in his grandfather's factory, and so far Jack, weak and charming and ne'er-do-well, had shown no signs of even trying to earn it.

"Don't bother to pick up your things right now," Staley said, as the two girls turned towards the wide staircase that led to the upper floor of the house. "You can do that later on. Let's run over to my house now and open a bottle of wine in honor of tomorrow. What do you say? It won't take half an hour."

Jack said that would be fine. Jack almost always agreed to anything that had a bottle mixed up in it.

"We may as well go, Sue," he said, when she looked doubtful. "It's only a half hour before your dinner time, and you know you won't get anything done in half an hour if you do stay here."

So Sue came along, rather reluctantly.

"I hope Staley won't get Jack drunk on the night before his wedding," she said softly to Lily, in an anxious tone. Sue was always accusing people of getting Jack drunk, whereas the plain truth was that Jack never had needed any help from anyone along that line. Staley's house was so perfectly ordered that it was like a magician's house of tricks. Good food would appear suddenly at the right time. Cigarets would be poked under guests' noses just at the moment when they were beginning to look around for one. The same was true of matches—and of liquor.

That February night Staley said something in a low tone to Ito, the Jap butler, when he let them in, and in less than ten minutes two bottles of champagne appeared in a bucket along with a big silver tray of sandwiches.

"Staley, how do you manage to have a house like this?" Sue asked him, watching him pour the sunlight-colored liquid into thin glasses. The Cains' own house was always in a turmoil, in spite of the big staff of servants that were coming and going there constantly.

Instead of answering, Staley blinked absent-mindedly. He did not seem to hear what Sue said, and presently he looked over at Lily, who sat smoking a roseleaf-tipped cigaret as she lolled in her chair with her feet on a velvet pillow before her.

"Is that new La France piston ring the one your husband has been working on for so long?" he asked, and she jumped. Down came her feet from the puffy cushion, and she sat bolt upright.

"Yes," she cried, all interest at once. "Why? What about it?"

Staley looked bored. "Nothing. Only a much simpler and better one was put on the market about the same time that his was," he said. "It's called the Scintilla, and I'm thinking of putting some money into the company."

Lily stared at him. Staley never talked about his money, or the things that he did with it.

What was he driving at now . . . ?

CHAPTER LIII.

SHE waited for Staley to say something more about the piston ring. But he did not. He just went on pouring out the champagne into the thin, shallow glasses carefully, never spilling a drop.

"If there is a better ring on the market than his, it won't be such a howling success, will it?" she asked slowly. "Especially if you put a lot of money into the other one."

Staley shrugged his shoulders under his perfectly fitting coat. His mouth lifted the corners of his little blond toothbrush mustache as he smiled to himself.

"Well, that's not why I'm doing it," he answered. "I'm not an old-fashioned villain, Lily. I don't want to ruin your husband just because he is your husband—I probably never will put any money into the other company anyway. I just told you about it to see what you would say, more than for any other reason, I think." He laughed.

And that was the last Lily heard of the Scintilla piston ring for a long time.

Mary Harrison Finds Delight in the Prospect of Men Warring Over Her

IT DID not take any unusual keenness upon the part of an observer to see that there already was a well-defined if suppressed hostility between Noel Veritzen and the young man who called himself "George Logan Jackson." Of course they were both too well-bred to display their antagonism, but nevertheless, watching them as we took our leave of Miss Lincoln and her guests at The Larches, I was irresistibly and amusedly reminded of two strange mastiffs eyeing each other with the neck hackles of each bristling.

Of course I knew the reason for this sudden hostility. In the person of Mary Harrison it walked demurely beside me to our waiting car. She apparently was perfectly oblivious of the existence of either young man, playing the role of attentive and devoted niece to perfection. But when we had driven home she left Noel upon the veranda and followed me to my room.

"Auntie Madge," she said, slipping her arms around me and giving me a bear hug. "Do you know you're a perfect duck?"

"Just why, Mary?" I countered.

"Because I've provided you with a new mechanical toy to wind up till you break it."

I held her off, smiling amusedly at her. She did not pretend to misunderstand me, but she was perfectly unabashed, giving a gay little laugh at my query.

"That's the answer," she said crisply. "Things were really getting dull around here. Noel's a darling, but he isn't particularly exciting. But do you know"—reflectively—"I imagine that young Mr. 'George Logan Jackson' ought to provide some pep for the long summer vacation."

"He may provide coffee and pistols for two at daylight," I reminded her jestingly, albeit I felt that Noel Veritzen's mental attitude would have translated my little speech into a distinct wish.

She clasped her hands theatrically, and her eyes danced with mischief.

"That certainly would be peppy," she exclaimed. "Do you know I've always thought it a shame that dueling should have gone out. Talk about thrills! With all our new stuff those girls of the old time certainly had it all over us. Can you imagine anything more hair-raising and spine-creeping than to have two spiffy lads shooting or carving each other into bits because of you!"

"No, I can't," I retorted a trifle curtly, for there was something in her manner which jarred a bit upon me.

She narrowed her eyes and looked at me speculatively.

"You're terribly shocked at me, aren't you?" she asked, and I thought I caught just a hint of patronage as if I could not be expected to understand her modern young viewpoint.

"Not a bit," I drawled. "I'm pretty nearly shock-proof by this time. You've been with me some time, you know. But I don't think I ever shall get over being amused by you. The viewpoint of you young moderns is the drollest thing I know."

Nobody Loves a Skinny Woman!

Gain pounds of weight and strength in 3 weeks with new YEAST and IRON—or pay nothing

Get a Lovely Skin for an Ugly One

"Gained 20 Pounds!"

"When I started taking Ironized Yeast a month ago I weighed only 90 pounds and I could hardly drag myself around. Today I weigh 110 pounds and I feel fine. Best of luck to Ironized Yeast, say I."—Mrs. C. S., Hattiesburg, Miss.

Folks are amazed at Ironized Yeast. They see 5 to 15 pounds gained in 3 weeks! Skinny limbs covered with rounded, graceful flesh! Ugly hollows in shoulders filled up! Eyes sparkling with health. They ask—how does Ironized Yeast work so quickly?

How Ironized Yeast Builds Quick Flesh and Health

Ironized Yeast is two tonics in one—weight building Yeast and strengthening Iron. The yeast is the same used in making malt, and which makes malt so beneficial. It is specially cultured yeast, concentrated to give the utmost in flesh-producing value.

This Yeast is treated with pure, vegetable iron, the same as in spinach, lettuce and celery. In this form Iron is easily assimilated by the body, making rich, red blood and toning up nerves and muscles.

Only when Yeast is Ironized in this way is it more effective—for Iron is needed to bring out the weight-building, strengthening values of Yeast. By this special formula Ironized Yeast gives you results in half the time required by yeast or iron taken separately.

If you are underweight, nervous or tired, you need Ironized Yeast. Start it today. It does not cause gas or bloating. Safe for everybody—containing no harmful drugs. Nice, pleasant-tasting tablets in a handy bottle.

Try It on "Money Back" Offer

Go today to any drug store and get a full size treatment of Ironized Yeast. If not delighted, get your money back. If inconvenient to buy from the druggist send $1.00 direct to the Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga., Desk 219-A.

CAUTION! While the amazing health-building value of IRONIZED YEAST tablets has been clearly and positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion, and a generally weakened physical and mental condition, IRONIZED YEAST should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having weight increased to normal.—©1927—I. You may be a chronic long-time sufferer, you may have tried many things without relief, but do not give up hope before you know what Aurine Ear Balsam can do for you. Dr. Edward Kolar, M. D., said, "Aurine helped cases I had given up as hopeless. A truly remarkable scientific remedy."

Stop paying high prices for earphones, stop buying expensive treatments and enjoy the glorious relief that more than 100,000 others have found in Aurine. A few drops in each ear and relief comes instantly. Mr. R. P. Maxwell, a well-known Deputy Sheriff, says, "Just started using my second bottle and am glad to state that I can now hear my watch tick. Today was the first time, this summer, I heard the church bell ring." No matter how stubborn or what your trouble is, you must try Aurine. No risk, no chance, no doubt, Aurine must do the work or cost you nothing.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

Mrs. Henry B. Stipp

Scranton, Pa.—"I feel it my duty to let others know what wonderful relief I have received from Dr. Pierce's information and medicine. At times I thought I would never recover and have had many different doctors tell me I would not get well unless I had an operation. But I have taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Irontic Tablets' with the most wonderful success. I also used the 'Healing Suppositories' and the 'Lotion Tablets.' I can assure any one affected with disease of wonderful help from Dr. Pierce's medicine."—Mrs. Henry B. Stipp, 1032 Monroe Ave. All druggists.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

by Royal S. Copeland, M.D.

U.S. Senator From New York

Treat the Infant as a Growing Flower

DR COPELAND

SEVERAL years ago I prepared a brief outline of the particularly important things every mother should know about the care of her baby. Of course, I was not seeking to give any information to the experienced mother, the parent of several children.

But every year there are thousands upon thousands of new mothers. I know they will be glad to receive anything that may help to make their little ones happy and well.

Suppose I outline these things under seven heads:

AIR AND SUNSHINE—A baby is a beautiful flower in God's garden. Treat it as such. During certain hours every day in the year, except in the rare time of a terrible storm, the baby should be taken out-of-doors.

Fresh air, day and night, is absolutely necessary.

FOOD—The feedings must be accurately and carefully made. In their preparation, clean hands and clean utensils are essential.

The baby must be fed at regular times. You must be regular as clockwork in this matter.

WATER—Two-third of the weight of the human body is water. All the functions are carried on by organs and tissues which must be kept moist. To this end lots of water must be given the baby.

Don't wait till the infant suffers from thirst and cries in protest. Give cooled boiled water at regular intervals.

SLEEP—A normal infant sleeps from 20 to 22 hours out of every 24. All the surroundings must be arranged with reference to comfortable and undisturbed sleep.

CLEANLINESS—Whether you believe in the germ theory or not, you certainly believe in cleanliness. Never forget that body, nose, mouth, the clothing, feeding outfits and all the toys of the infant must be included in your efforts at cleanliness.

EXERCISE—It is more important for the baby to use the muscles than it is for the grown-ups. Spread a clean sheet or quilt on the floor in a sunny room and let the youngster stretch and kick and coo to its heart's content. This will develop strength and promote health.

HABITS—Don't resort to "pacifiers," rubber rings and other things to chew on. Keep the thumbs out of the mouth. Start right and keep right as regards baby's habits.

These are seven important things to remember. I am sure your baby will thrive if you mind them all.

Best of luck to you, dear mother.

Answers to Health Queries

M. H. Q. — What causes "tremors" or "chills" in and around the brain?

2—What is the cause of nightmares?

3—Is an enlarged gland caused by lack of iodine in the system?

A.—This condition is most likely due to poor circulation caused by a run-down state of health. Build up the entire system by proper exercise and dieting.

2—Very often this is due to indigestion or intestinal disturbances. Proper diet and correct exercise should alleviate this trouble. For further information send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

3—It is believed now by many authorities that enlarged thyroid may be due to lack of iodine.

FAY KING

By FAY KING

NO DOUBT, back in the days when the pyramids were as new to the Nile as our latest skyscraper is to us, some foolish Egyptians were chiseling hieroglyphic love letters which were later read in court!

Those gentlemen who pride themselves upon writing poetry and prose should compose their romantic plots and mail them to publishers instead of to pretty gold diggers, for it were better to receive them back with a rejection slip than with a court summons.

A few tears properly shed on these numerous crosses indicating kisses have changed them into dollar marks.

It's funny how a wise man who wouldn't think of signing his name to any document without having it carefully read over by his lawyer, will in secret draw up the most damaging documents of a sentimental and promissory nature in his own handwriting and sign his name in full and send it off directly without consulting a soul.

It is so evident that when the gentleman's talents as a writer are brought to the attention of the world at large through the public prints, that he did not mean all he said.

In other words, he simply had not thought of a private publication of his works or engaging an agent to place them in the market for him.

The agent's commission or the cost of publication would be nothing compared to what it has cost some of those talented gentlemen to publish their romantic writings via the courts.

They should profit by these experiences and in the future put their writing in the hands of proficient copy readers who will not see dollar marks where only commas and periods were meant for punctuation.

Simple Vamping

Lesson Nine

By HELEN ROWLAND

DON'T ASPHYXIATE LOVE

WHEN a man's love dies a sudden and unexpected death, it is usually due to asphyxiation from the monoxide gas of a woman's jealousy.

Jealousy is the serpent that lurks under the rose of love in nearly every little Eden.

A man's love is seldom starved to death or frozen to death—it is nearly always stifled to death. Blowing the cold winds of indifference on his passion merely fans the flames. But one touch of jealousy acts like a fire-extinguisher.

HELEN ROWLAND

A man is never as jealous as a woman; because once he has permitted a woman to love him, he cannot, in his sublime self-confidence, imagine how she could possibly want anything better.

Jealousy is the admission of an inferiority complex; and as far as a woman is concerned no man has an inferiority complex. It is never a mystery to him why a woman should love him. The only thing that could astonish him would be to discover that she had STOPPED loving him.

When a woman shows the first spark of jealousy, she flatters the other woman, and insults herself.

A man may be jealous of another man. But a woman is subconsciously jealous of EVERYTHING.

A man is like a cat; he cannot be tied. And nothing so quickly gives him that TIED feeling as a woman's jealousy.

A woman may tread all over a man's heart with cruelty, selfishness, coquetry and caprice, without killing his love; but at the first tiny breath of jealousy it will flicker out and gasp its last.

Man is a free, free soul, filled with the spirit of Pan. As long as he feels unfettered, he may not care to roam; but at the first touch of a leash, the first suspicion of a "claim," he is off—to the other woman.

Jealousy and "It" cannot exist under the same marcel wave; for "It" is based upon perfect self-assurance. And jealousy is always an admission of self-doubt. If you can't have faith in a man, at least have faith in YOURSELF. Don't hand the other woman all the trumps in the pack by being jealous!

FOR THE LOVELORN

Barbara

DEAR MISS GALE:

I have a very real problem, and I hope that you will be able to help me. I am 21 years old, and love a boy about the same age. We are both in college, but he is a year ahead of me. I have passed through the stages of "puppy love" and infatuation, and know that I really love this boy. I see him every day, and talk to him, but he has never asked to take me out. He is very bashful, and I don't think he goes out with girl very often. He is very good-looking, and could very easily be popular with girls if he wanted to be. I really think this boy likes me, but is too bashful to try to get better acquainted. Now, Miss Gale, I have received two invitations for the next month to which I must take a gentleman friend. They are both to be held in a near-by country club. One is an informal dress and the other is a private dinner party. Would it be proper for me to invite this boy, or should I let him invite me out first? There is another young man that I can take to these affairs, but being in love with this other boy, I haven't any desire to go out with anyone else. Please help me, Miss Gale, and thank you for your advice.

BARBARA.

Don't invite this boy until he has shown more interest in you, my dear. He might think you were running after him and be scared away from you.

Brown Eyes

DEAR MISS GALE:

Am a continual reader of your column. I am a girl in my teens. Now, Miss Gale, I agree with you on the petting, drinking and smoking. I can truthfully say I have never tasted liquor or had a cigaret enter my mouth. Now, Miss Gale, I don't believe in kissing every Tom, Dick and Harry that comes along. I go with a boy friend a little older than myself. He is the only boy I allow to kiss me. Miss Gale, I come to you now to ask you if you think it all right for him to kiss me? Miss Gale, it seems as though he likes me very much, and I think the same of him.

BROWN EYES.

Don't let him kiss you, my dear.

Tip, Tap, Tip

DEAR MISS GALE:

Received some excellent advice from you about two years ago, and have decided to ask for more, about some old doubts that seem to bother the greater number of the human race. Met a young man about a year ago through a friend and have been going with him for the past six months. He has asked me to marry him, but I have decided to wait for another year or so. We are of different religion and nationality, although he is willing to accept my creed. The main objection is our age for I am three years his senior, he 21, and I, 24. Do you think three years difference matters much, Miss Gale? The young man has nothing else to offer but his love for me. He is not ambitious; he has wonderful day dreams which I know will never come to pass. Outside of that he is perfect in his manners, behavior, kindness, personality and honesty, no doubt, make an ideal husband, and I do love him. So, dear Miss Gale, what is your advice?

TIP, TAP, TIP.

Your decision to wait for a couple of years is a very wise one, my dear. The boy is very young to be sure of his own mind.

Bobbie

DEAR MISS GALE:

I read your advice in the paper about every evening and think it is very interesting. I used to go with a fellow from a neighboring town, but haven't been with him fro two or three months. The other day I heard that he was getting married in the near future. I don't know whether this is true or not, but if he does get married should I send him and his wife a wedding present? If I should, what would be appropriate and what should I say when presenting it to them? Although I'm not acquainted with the girl, I went with the fellow for about a year and therefore know him real well.

"BOBBIE."

No, don't send them a wedding present, "Bobbie."

BAD LUNGS NOW HEALED

Mrs. R. R. Redenbaugh is another grateful friend of Murrmann's Compound, the wonderful new lung remedy without alcohol or narcotic drugs. She writes:

"My boy's lungs were in bad shape. He was bedfast for 11 weeks and was ordered not to go to school. A neighbor told us about Murrmann's Compound. He commenced to gain at once. After taking two bottles he gained ten pounds. He returned to school after Christmas and continued to improve. In the spring a doctor examined his lungs and found them entirely healed. With the hope that this will encourage others who might be suffering from a similar complaint, I am gratefully yours."

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Thursday, February 16

The life of man is dependent upon psychomagnetic vital forces permeating the air.—Astrological Theorem.

AN unusually interesting congeries of stellar forces promises a day of lively and interesting situations and events. This in business and personal affiliations.

An opportunity for change might be postponed as the time is not propitious, but generally affairs should thrive, especially employment. New enterprises may be stimulated, particularly corporate interests and secret agreements.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a lively year and one of high adventure, but these should not include radical change of environment or travel. Agreements with new corporations or secret affiliations may prosper. A child born on this day may be bold and adventurous, with a tendency to travel and make frequent changes which would be inimical to really fine prospects.

Corns Lift Right Off!

Hard corns, soft corns, corns between the toes and callouses lift right off! You'll laugh—it is so easy and doesn't hurt a bit!

Just drop "Freezone" on any tender, touchy corn. Instantly it stops aching; then shortly you just lift that old bothersome corn right off with your fingers. It works like a charm, every time. Seems magic.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs only a few cents at any drug store. Try it!

Bill Haeffner.

DON'T get the idea that Catcher Bill Haeffner, who has just been reinstated in organized basebal by Commissioner Landis, and who will leave with the Pittsburgh club's advance guard of battery men tomorrow night for the spring training camp at Paso Robles, is to be carried on the conditioning trip only for the purpose of helping out in the daily limbering up of the huge squad of 17 pitchers,

On the contrary, Haeffner must be looked upon as a real live candidate for a place on the Pittsburgh catching corps.

WHAT is more, Bill stands a good chance of landing a berth for, even though he has not been with the Pirates since 1920, he has been playing ball right along with the strongest independent teams around Philadelphia, and competent judges of ballplayers who have watched him during the last year or two declare he is just as capable a maskman as he ever was.

IF that is true, Haeffner is apt to prove a serviceable man for the Pirates. He is only an average hitter, but he can do a catcher's work

COLGATE SEEKS LLOYD JORDAN

Lloyd Jordan.

Lloyd Jordan, former University of Pittsburgh football, basketball, track and baseball star, who averaged seven field goals per game for the basketball season of 1921, and who carried away three varsity letters and deserved a fourth while in school, is in line for the assistant coaching job at Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y., and may be appointed to the post after the Easter holidays.

Jordan, at present coach of Jeannette High School, where he has lost one game and tied two out of a total of 33 played in three years, in football, has been favorably considered by the Colgate athletic council, after being highly recommended for the post by a prominent Pittsburgh district football man.

Notre Dame's basketball stars, who encounter Carnegie Tech on the latter's floor Friday night and Pitt on the Stadium court Saturday night in games that are being looked forward to by the local fans with exceptional interest. Knute Rockne, famous coach of the Irish football elevens, although athletic director, does not supervise the handling of the floor stars of the institution, but the tradition of Rockne and his spirit pervade all the teams of Notre Dame. The Notre Dame passers are attracted to the university from many parts of the country. For instance, Capt. Jachym hails from Westfield, Mass.; Crowe from Lafayette, Ind.; Colerick from Newark, N. J.; Bray from Kansas City, Mo., and Smith from South Bend, Ind., the home of the university.

PLAY TOUGH SCHEDULE

The Notre Dame basketball squad is entering the home stretch of a strenuous season which includes games with four Big Ten teams, Iowa, Northwestern, Minnesota and Wisconsin, in addition to Carnegie, Pitt, Princeton and Pennsylvania. The record to date is 13 victories out of 15 starts.

WITH the signing late yesterday of Pitcher Burleigh Grimes, obtained from the Giants last Saturday in a trade for Vic Aldridge, Pirate officials this morning announced that all plans for the departure tomorrow of the first squad for Paso Robles, Cal., to begin spring training had been completed and that every man on the roster had been signed to a contract.

Grimes came to Pittsburgh yesterday from his home in Minerva, Ill., for a conference with Owner Dreyfuss and he lost little time in affixing his signature to a contract. Grimes left for his home in Ohio last night and will join the advance

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—Their aim set on the group leadership, the Pittsburgh Pirates prepared today to move on to Ottawa, where they will face the Ottawa Senators in the National Professional Hockey League battle tomorrow night. The Buccos will leave here in third place, a play-off, and therefore a pay-off berth, which they attained by defeating the local Leafs, 4-2, last night, shoving the Leafs further down the ladder, while they were ascending. Following last night's victory, the team today is intent on gaining nothing less than the sectional leadership.

The Pirates, in the midst of a sensational and almost too late spurt, played fine hockey to down the leafs. Herb Drury led his team's attack, clicking in two of the four goals. The others were tallied by Darragh and Tex White.

The Leafs had to wait until the final period before they were finally able to smash through the Buc

Cubs Send Dean To Colonels For Holley

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—(INS.)—Wayland Dean, pitcher, has been traded to Louisville of the American Association in exchange for Ed Holley, star hurler, President William Veeck of the Chicago Cubs announced today. Dean was traded to the Philadelphia Nationals last season, but left the club for reasons unknown. He later was reinstated by Commissioner Landis.

BOWLING and BILLIARDS

THE second of the big bowling tournaments of the season in this section will get under way this afternoon on the Club alleys, downtown. It is the annual Southern Duckpin Association event. The tri-state tenpin tournament started the ball rolling last week.

A large entry list has been recorded for the duckpin competition and the alleys will be occupied every afternoon and evening for the remainder of the week, the last squad finishing up after 10 o'clock Saturday night.

W. B. Chapman, veteran cue star of the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, is to succeed John A. Clinton, Jr., as Pittsburgh's representative in the national amateur 18.2 balk line billiard title tourney which opens in New York next Monday. Chapman is a polished performer capable of giving the best of the amateurs a real battle. Pressure of business forced Clinton's retirement from active competition after he had won the national title in 1926 and 1927 without the loss of a single game.

Billy Greenwood.

With first place at stake in the local amateur Three-Cushion Billiard League, Billy Greenwood and Robert Carter will cross cues this evening in Kalmer's parlors, Oakland. Carter gained a lead of one game by defeating Eichenmiller, 45 to 44, Monday evening, but Greenwood hopes to deadlock the race in tonight's match. The pair have been tied for the top position several times.

U. S. OLYMPIC WIN OUT; THAW ENDS MEET

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—The executive committee of the International Olympic Committee today decided to throw out the 10,000-meter race, held yesterday, from the Olympic records, canceling the results thus far obtained, and to rerun the race if the weather grows colder,

Despite the decision of the committee to cancel the race, the Norwegian skaters called upon the American contingent today and congratulated Irving Jaffee, of New York, as the 10,000-meter speed skating champion, saying that they considered him the winner of the event.

When the 10,000-meter event was called off yesterday because of soggy ice, Jaffee was leading with a time of 18 minutes 36 5-10 seconds and was considered a virtual winner.

The executive committee also announced its readiness to alter the Olympic winter sports program in accordance with atmospheric conditions, but the sports will continue, weather permitting. The weather is very poor for skating, the temperature being eight degrees above freezing point and the skating rink is like a lake All events have been indefinitely postponed.

The American team will leave for Paris tomorrow morning

Will Assist Junior Play

By FRED VAN DEVENDER,
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Sandlot baseball, the hope of the big leagues, has come into its own,

Presidents John Heydler of the National League and E. S. Barnard of the American League, and Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, Commisisoner of Baseball, have sanctioned the National Junior Baseball Tournament, heretofore sponsored solely by the American Legion,

The two major leagues will back the tournament to the extent of $50,000, it has been announced.

The action of the two leagues was the most unique ever heralded, but it was pointed out by the officials that they have been looking for something of the kind for many years.

The tournament will comprise teams from every state in the union, composed all of boys under 17.

There will be state district tournaments, state tournaments, regional tournaments, divisional tourneys and finally the national tourney, where the amateur champion team of the United States will be selected.

The national tournament will be known as the little World's Series and will be that in fact.

The final tourney must be held prior to September 10. The players of the winning team will be the guests of the major leagues at the World's Series.

Under the plan, there will be six regions in the East and four in the West.

After the state champions are selected, they will play in their respective groups until a regional champion is selected.

The regional champions will then play to select the winner of the East and West, and the two divisional champions will play the little World's Series.

SPORT COMMENT

by JAMES J. LONG

in a finished style, is a fine thrower, and in his one season as a Buccaneer he demonstrated that in the all-important matter of smartness he ranks ahead of quite a few backstops who have been holding down regular jobs in the big show.

Even though he is 32 years old, Haeffner should still have a lot of baseball left in him, and don't be surprised if you find him retained on the Pirate roster after the season begins.

ONCE again President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pirates has given the other magnates of the major leagues a lesson in the art of signing ball players.

The New York club had not succeeded in getting Burleigh Grimes in line for 1928 before it made the trade with Pittsburgh for Grimes, and in previous seasons Brooklyn and New York had almost annually found it a difficult matter to enroll Burleigh, but the local magnate's system of treating his men fairly won Grimes over very quickly yesterday when he came here for a conference, and only a few words were exchanged before the pitcher affixed his signature to a Pirate pact.

THE official announcement by the club after the signing of Grimes that the entire Buccaneer crew is under contract for 1928 means the hanging up of a new record, for never before has a club that won a pennant succeeded in signing every one of its players for the following season at such an early date as February 14.

It's all in the way you handle them, evidently. President Dreyfuss treats them with a degree of fairness that makes them feel satisfied and to want to work for him.

THE fact that Grimes has signed with the Buccaneers again after pitching for Brooklyn and New York for a period of 10 years, brings to mind that Burleigh's first year here presents a striking contrast to some other records in the big show.

Only a few days ago a veteran big leaguer was discussing the chances of the Washington club in this year's American League pennant race, and expressed the opinion the Senators could feel none too sure about their pitching.

"Horace Lisenbee and Irving Hadley looked great in 1927," he admitted, "but that was their first year in a major league. It is my belief that the toughest time in the career of any young pitcher is the period during which he pitches his second and third seasons in the big show.

"Herman Pilette won 19 games during his first year with Detroit and never was a winner thereafter. He was a morning glory. Then Sam Gray was a wizard in his first year with the Athletics, but he hasn't delivered since. Joe Shaute had a great first year for Cleveland, but he is still trying vainly to repeat. Hollis Thurston won 20 games in his first year with the White Sox, and then had two losing seasons in a row."

PITTSBURGH fans have not forgotten a similar case right here. Emil Yde won 16 games and lost only 3 in his first season with the Bucs in 1924, but after that he was practically worthless.

But the case of Grimes was just the opposite. Burleigh, instead of making a great start and then skidding, like those mentioned above, made about the poorest beginning in history and then developed into a star.

He won two games and lost three in the fall of 1916 after first joining the Pirates, and in 1917, his first full season here he made the awful record of winning only 3 games and losing 16, no fewer than 12 of his defeats coming in a row.

That he was able to live that down and keep on plugging until he became one of the game's greatest pitchers is quite a tribute to his courage and gameness.

Jack Onslow.

JACK ONSLOW, former Pirate coach, who filled a similar berth for Washington last season, and will act in the same capacity for the St. Louis Nationals this year, does not share the view that Lisenbee and Hadley are apt to weaken during their second campaign. "Those two boys are real pitchers," declared the Tarentum citizen. "I worked with them during all of last season and I know."

Onslow, by the way, is given much credit by Washington critics for the sensational showing of Lisenbee and Hadley last year. Jack worked hard to take the rough edges off the youngsters and to make them finished pitchers, and their impressive development was due largely to his efforts.

Onslow will leave Friday to join the advance guard of Cardinals for the trip to the spring training camp.

Wilkinsburg Pro Elated

By VERNON A. SWARTSFAGER

SMILING Wild Bill Mehlhorn is in town looking over his new stamping grounds at the Wilkinsburg Country Club. He arrived this morning from Hot Springs with the spoils of his victorious conquest and will stop over for only a brief stay before he continues his long trek to Belleair, Fla., where he will play in the southeastern tournaments until it is time to return and take up his duties here, early in April.

He was met at the station by President Harry E. Prettyman of the new club, and this morning looked over the new links for the first time.

Before going out to the club, Wild Bill paid a visit to Dr. Harry Goehring, an osteopath, who treated his wrenched right leg. It was learned that Mehlhorn played through the South Central open at Hot Springs with torn ligaments paining him continually.

"That's what I get for trying to play football," said Bill. "Harry Cooper, Harold Long and the rest of the fellows would play football en route to Hot Springs from San Antonio. We stopped over at Texarkana and, after procuring the largest apple we could find, began to line up. I was quarterback. In trying to dodge the opposition on a fake forward pass I wrenched my leg, although I didn't feel it until I got back on the train."

Mehlhorn feels that he is going to like Pittsburgh, and is certain he will make a number of friends at Wilkinsburg.

And, furthermore, Wild Bill has added to his makeup one good-looking mustache since we saw him crowned national amateur champion at the 18.1 game, will be one of Chapman's opponents in the 18.2 tourney. After tying Clinton and then annexing the crown by defeating the local star in a play-off in 1925, Appleby withdrew from 18.2 competition. Edgar Appleby, Francis' brother; Herbert Hammer of Newark, Emil Renner of Youngstown and Elvin Edwards of Columbia University will round out the 18.2 tourney field.

Hammering out better than 600 in each game, Team No. 2 added to its big lead in the Westinghouse Rate Dux League by taking three straight contests from Team No. 5. Although Team No. 2 apparently has the title clinched, the race for minor honors is very close, Teams Nos. 4, 7, and 8 being in a second-place deadlock.

The biggest five-game total ever recorded by a woman in Omaha bowling history is owned by Miss Nadene Thompson. In a recent competition, Miss Thompson turned in games of 201, 198, 278, 268, and 197 for a 1,142 total.

The feat of Richard Regg, who recently rolled 289 to set a new one-game duckpin record for the Brookline Club alleys, was equaled by William Davis on Monday when he recorded the same score in exactly the same manner. Each started off with 10 straight strikes, and each made a good strike hit on his eleventh effort only to have one pin stand. They then spared out. After turning in his 289 game, Davis refused to rest on his laurels and followed it up with games of 212 and 209. His three-game total of 710 is the highest ever recorded at the Brookline alleys and one of the highest ever recorded anywhere.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15—Jake Schaefer, world 18.2 balkline billiard champion, led Welker Cochran, 1,062 to 732, at the opening of the fourth block of their 4,000-point exhibition match here.

HUDKINS THREATENS TO QUIT BOXING

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Ace Hudkins served notice today that he would quit the ring unless given an opportunity to meet Champion Joe Dundee for the welterweight title.

Hudkins declared he expected to knock out Sergeant Sammy Baker in their melee here Friday night and that if he isn't carded against Dundee afterwards, he will hang up the gloves and go into business.

The Nebraska wildcat said he had saved a little fortune through boxing and that the only lure the game now offered to him was the championship.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Indianapolis—Spug Myers knocked out Eddie Dyer, 2 rounds; Tony Larose and Tommy Milton drew, 6 rounds.

At Milwaukee—Billy Light defeated Floyd Hybert, 10 rounds.

At Hot Springs—Milton Manguna defeated Johnny Rosen, 10 rounds.

At Los Angeles—Jackie Fields defeated Vince Dundee, 10 rounds; Billy Burke defeated Johnny Reisler, 4 rounds.

At Seattle—Young Harry Wills defeated Freddy Mack, 6 rounds; Roy Williams stopped Battling Slim, 2 rounds.

At Portland, Ore.—Charlie Belanger stopped Bob Mariels, 4 rounds.

VINCE DUNDEE BEATEN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—The flashing left of Jackie Fields, Los Angeles welterweight contender, has advanced him another step in his drive for a chance at Joe Dundee's title. Jackie carried the fight from the start in his bout with Vince Dundee, brother of the champion, here last night to win a decision in 10 rounds.

squad when it arrives in Chicago Friday morning. As has been the custom in Pirate affairs, no terms were given out.

Eight players, club officials and newspapermen will make up the first squad of Pirates leaving the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie depot tomorrow night for Paso Robles, according to the official list announced this morning by Samuel W. Dreyfuss, treasurer of the club.

Among those who will leave with the party from Pittsburgh are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Dreyfuss, Manager Donie Bush, Haeffner, Hemsley, Dawson, Mehaffey, Walsh, Leheny, Deming, Trainer, George (Chauff) Asten, Caleb McCarey, clubhouse boy and newspapermen.

Arriving in Chicago early Friday morning, the Pirate squad will be increased by the addition of six players and Coach Stanage. Hill, Grimes, Brame, Tauscher, Bartholomew and Spencer are scheduled to entrain in the Windy City.

No additions will be made until the Pirate advance squad stops in Kansas City, Mo., where Catchers Earl Smith and Claude Linton are to be picked up. This will complete the advance party until the special rolls into Los Angeles, where Miljus, Lindsey, Fussell and Mrs. Fussell join the tourists.

Arriving at Paso Robles, the Pirates will be greeted by Kremer, Peery, Scott and Coaches Devine and Fraser. Catcher Johnny Gooch and Pitcher Lee Meadows, who were scheduled to leave with the advance squad, have been given permission to delay their departure

CHILLY SAUCE

By CHILLY DOYLE

THE spring training season for Pirate fans will open in unofficial way tomorrow night when the advance squad of Buccos, headed by Donie Bush, leaves Pittsburgh for the Paso Robles camp. The athletes are scheduled to depart from the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Station at 8:20. The first leg of the long journey takes the party to Chicago by way of Youngstown, Cleveland and other points.

THE long itinerary of the Pirates in a large measure, was worked out by Carl H. Beach, of the Santa Fe, which road the Pirates will use from Chicago to Los Angeles. The players are due to reach Chicago Friday morning. A six-hour layover is carded there. The next jump will land the squad in Kansas City. It will be a little after midnight when Kansas City is reached. Players will be picked up in Chicago and Kansas City, but no others will climb aboard until the train reaches Los Angeles Monday morning.

THE springtime activity—one of the big thrills of the sport—has been going on for a long time. In touching on this angle of the game, George Moreland, veteran baseball man, states that it was a Pittsburgh club which inaugurated the popular idea.

"THE Pirates of 1893 were the first club to go into the Southland to prepare for the season," said Moreland. I had a connection with the club and I remember some of the details. The late Capt. W. W. Kerr was owner of the team and Al Buckenberger was manager.

"APPARENTLY Buckenberger had the idea, for he went to Kerr and told him of his desire to take the Pirates to New Orleans. Capt. Kerr was shocked by the request, he taking the stand that such a move would entail a big financial loss. But Al won his point and the team went to the Louisiana city. And I distinctly recall that when the final reckoning was made the trip showed a net profit of $1,800—a lot of money in those days."

Allegheny, Geneva Here

By JESS CARVER.

THE weekly invasion of Pittsburgh by out-of-town teams, begun last night when American U. attacked the Dukes' stronghold on the Bluff, will continue tonight with a pair of tri-state district varsities playing here. Allegheny College of Meadville will meet the undefeated Pitt Panthers in the Stadium and Geneva College's Covenanters will face Carnegie Tech in the Tartans' gym.

The American University team that played the Dukes last night, for all it was defeated, looked like a good ball club. The Capital City players played one of the cleanest games that has been seen here this year. Beaten by a 24-18 score, they never lost hope, and they never roughed it up. Big, rangy and lightning fast, they gave the Dukes a stiff tussle. A two-minute rally in the first half that netted six points really won the game for Duquesne.

American U. led, 4-0, for the first six minutes of play. Then the Dukes tied it up and finally forged to the front, Vernon, Rosenberg and Ganzy Benedict flipping in three hoops in about the time it takes to tell it. American never recovered from that sortie, though they struggled manfully. They were trailing 13-6 at half time.

At one time during the second half, when W. Birthright, a good basketball player, flipped in a couple of hoops and the boys continued their good work at the foul line, American U. pulled up to within two points of the Dukes. That was as far as they got, however.

Tonight's games at Pitt and Tech are non-conference battles. The Panthers have little to fear in Allegheny, though the Methodists, heartened by the victory over Wash-Jeff last Saturday, may give Dr. Carlson an uneasy moment or two. It is very likely that Doc will use his regulars for only a short while, saving them for the Notre Dame game Saturday.

Tech is looking forward to this game with Geneva with high hopes of victory. So far, the Tartans have been unable to ring one up on the right side of the ledger, and have already dropped one to Col. McMillin's boys.

Wash-Jeff plays West Virginia tonight in a Big Four contest.

THE American Leaguue held its monthly meeting at headquarters last evening. In the absence of President Hillen, Bobby Robinson of Harmarville presided. Nothing of importance was on the agenda except the Corinthians protest against the German club. The Cooley aggregation won the protest and the game was ordered replayed.

It was also announced that Harmarville and Swissvale would play their national amateur cup tie at Harmarville Sunday. The cup committee held a meeting previous to the American League session. The junior game scheduled for Sunday in the semi-final will not be played. The cup committee also announced that a 50-cent admission fee would be charged at the senior cup tie at Westinghouse High School field Saturday.

EUCHRE TO BE SUCCESS

The Homewood Baseball Club's euchre and dance, to be held next Monday evening in McDougall's auditorium, East End, to raise funds for the coming season gives promise of going over with a bang. Many tickets already have been sold and indications are that the club treasury will be such following the event as to insure the team getting off to a fine start in the County League race.

LOCAL ICERS BOLSTERED

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—Dave Larochelle, speedy right wing, has been purchased by the Pittsburgh Hockey Club and will make his debut against Ottawa tomorrow night. Horace Townsend put through the deal with Les Canadiens Monday while here to attend the league meeting.

I., Feb. 15.—(INS.)—Roy (Red) Randall, former captain of the Brown University football team, has been acquitted of a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. Randall admitted enough evidence in the lower court to convict and then appealed a decision of guilty to the Superior Court.

BURLEIGH SIGNS BUC CONTRACT

BURLEIGH GRIMES — BARNEY DREYFUSS

The veteran pitcher obtained by the Pirates in the straight trade with the Giants for Vic Aldridge last Saturday came to Pittsburgh from his home in Minerva, O., late yesterday, and, after a short confab with President Dreyfuss, signed a Pirate contract. Picture shows the pair in session.

defense for a goal. The teams entered the last session with the Pirates out in front by two goals. Darragh scored for Pittsburgh in the first period with only 30 seconds of play remaining. In the second period, White plunked the disc into the net after about four minutes of action.

In the last period, Lowery scored for the Leafs and threw somewhat of a scare into the Buccos. Herb Drury chased the gloom by tallying a goal shortly after Lowery's effort, and then Duncan put the Leafs back into the game with another goal. Drury again came to his team's rescue, and with the frame half over, McCurry passed to Herb and in went the fourth and final Pittsburgh goal.

The game was strenuously contested. Toronto was crippled with two regulars out of the game, but the locals made a game attempt to thwart the third place ambitions of the Bucs.

The Bucs are now six points behind the New York Rangers and the Boston Bruins, leaders in the American section, and are a point ahead of the slipping Detroit Cougars. They have won six out of the last seven games.

After meeting Ottawa tomorrow, the Bucs will return home for a game with the lowly New York Americans Saturday night.

PORTLAND SIGNS WARHOP

FREEPORT, Ills., Feb. 14.—(AP.)—Jack Warhop, Freeport, former pitcher for the New York Yankees and last year with Bridgeport, in the Eastern League, has signed with Portland of the Pacific Coast League as a coach of pitchers and will himself take a turn on the mound.

NOTES of the BOXERS

MIDGET WOLGAST of Philadelphia, who meets Willie Davies in the 10-round main bout at Motor Square Garden next Monday night, with the State flyweight championship at stake, believes he is destined to win the world's crown. He holds victories over Davies and Corp. Izzy Schwartz, who is recognized as the champion in New York State, and insisted on the mill here being for the State title because of the many involved claims, with Davies seemingly having the edge.

Arrangements have been made to handle a large crowd at the Gen. Logan Armory, home of the One Hundred and Seventy-sixth Field Artillery, when the regiment stages its amateur boxing show for the benefit of the Miners' Relief Fund Saturday night. A fine card has been booked and the committee in charge is hard at work to put the affair across.

Motor Square has a match in prospect between Tug Phillips and Steve O'Malley. That ought to be a wow.

Frank Ketchel of Washington, Pa., and Ray Crawford of McKeesport will clash in one of the bouts on the miners' benefit card at Johnstown tomorrow night.

Young Rudy of Charleroi meets Joe Cannal at Youngstown tonight. Young Amos of New Kensington boxes Kid Boychan at Steubenville. Phil Krug and Walcott Langford at San Francisco. Joe Sekyra boxes Tiny Tim Herman at Dayton.

Joe Bernstein, one of the few boxers who went the limit with Terrible Terry McGovern when the latter was at his best, is in a dying condition in Bellevue Hospital, New York, and the boys are arranging a benefit show for his family. Bernstein was the pride of New York's Ghetto in his prime.

Battling Levinsky boxes Jack Gagnon in a 10-round bout in Boston Friday night.

Jack Wells of Wellsburg, W. Va., has drawn the color line and refused to box Ike McFowler of Johnstown in the opening six-rounder at McKeesport tomorrow night. As a result, another opponent will have to be dug up for him. The balance of the card, three eight-rounders, will stand as announced, viz: Allen Beatty vs. Mickey Solomon, Andy Tomosky vs. Andy Nanci and Jack O'Connell vs. Linn Jordan.

Champs Out For Revenge

By JULIUS LEVIN.

THE scene of the Duquesne Lafayette-Enoch Rauh Club basketball feud shifts to Duquesne High School tonight, where the Allegheny County League champions and their foremost challenger come together for the fourth time this season.

Always a magnet for the basketball fans in this section, the contest between the Lafayettes and the Rauhs is expected to pack the spacious Duquesne High School floor tonight. The Rauhs are the only County League team to defeat the Lafayettes in the second-round schedule and it is the intention of the Scarlet Hurricane to turn the tables tonight.

The Lafayettes suffered their worst defeat in years at the hands of the Rauhs recently and they are determined to prove to their followers that their downfall in that particular game was a slight reversal of form suffered by the best quintets.

Admitted to be almost invincible on their home court, the Lafayettes take the floor against the Rauhs tonight a favorite to vanquish the Columbus Temple aggregation. The champions have taken two out of three games from the Rauhs so far this season and will be out tonight to make it three out of four.

All chances of the Rauhs to win a place in the championship playoffs at the close of the season depend on the outcome of the game with the Lafayettes. Should the Rauhs suffer another defeat at the hands of the champions their chances for the second-round laurels will be void.

With a place in the championship elimination series uppermost in their minds, the Rauhs will invade the confines of Duquesne High School tonight battling to the limit to prevent the Lafayettes from removing them as a contender for the honors.

A large delegation of Rauh supporters will accompany the team to Duquesne tonight.

The Braddock American Legion has withdrawn as a member of the Allegheny County League owing to the loss of the Braddock Moose Temple as its home court.

As Braddock had only one more league battle scheduled to complete its second-round program, the decision to withdraw from the race should work no hardship with the league officials.

Braddock has been having some difficulty making professional basketball a paying proposition in that vicinity, the fans favoring the scholastic sport, and its decision to quit the Allegheny County League comes as no surprise.

The withdrawal of Braddock marks the second change in the league personnel since its organization, the McKees Rocks quintet leaving the league to compete in the P. & O. circuit, Butler taking its place. According to reports Butler also plans to quit the league.

GOLF

here last during the National Open at Oakmont.

CAMOZZI COPS TOURNEY

John C. Camozzi of the Pittsburgh Field Club outclassed a field of almost 150 to capture the first indoor 36-hole golf tournament of the Hotel, Club and Restaurant Golf Association, held on the local National Indoor Links, last night. He scored superbly to register a 38 on the first 18 holes and a 39 on the second for an excellent 77.

Harry Bailey ranked second, with an 87, and Billy Tavano was close on his heels with an 88. T. A. Coleman 90, John Tierney 91 and Tom Carey and Frank Gibboney tied at 92, followed in their wake. Walter Mennigke struck a 93. Tony Conforti was victor in the Kicker's handicap.

Regardless of his score, the lone other man to cop a prize, even if it was the booby prize, was Charley Schmidt.

Following the golf play, members of the association repaired to Tony Conforti's Nixon cafe, where they made merry across the festive board. It was during the delicious repast that President John C. Jordan, acting as toastmaster, presented the prizes.

Frank (Sunny) Brockett, better known as "Little Eva," was in charge of the tournament, ably assisted by the popular Dave McKay, professional at the Pittsburgh Field Club. Another tourney will be held in three weeks inasmuch as the first was such a big success. Following were the leading scores:

John C. Camozzi, 38-39-77; Harry Bailey, 42-45-87; Billy Tavano, 42-46-88; T. A. Coleman, 47-43-90; John Tierney, 44-47-91; Tom Carey, 46-46-92; Frank Gibboney, 46-46-92; Walter H. Mennigke, 46-47-93; Otto Eberly, 49-46-95; John C. Jordan, 47-48-95; Victor Elliott, 54-44-98; Tom Tierney, 57-45-102; Paul Tomsak, 48-54-102; Vernon A. SAYS KLAN WIZARD THREATENED TO KILL HIM

SLAYER BARES BRIBE CASE DETAILS

By EUGENE J. CADOU,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans, of the Ku Klux Klan, threatened that D. C. Stephenson would be "killed in the witness chair" if he testified in his own behalf during his trial for the Madge Oberholtzer murder at Noblesville, Ind., three years ago, Stephenson charged today from the witness stand in Marion Criminal Court here.

Stephenson was the state's chief witness today in the trial of Gov. Ed Jackson of Indiana for alleged attempted bribery of former Gov. Warren T. McCray in 1923.

ADMITS SUPPLYING FUNDS

Stephenson had been on the witness stand for more than three hours and had testified that he had furnished the $10,000 which Gov. Jackson and his co-defendants were alleged to have offered to McCray as a bribe for the appointment of a Klan favorite as prosecutor of Marion county. The witness was being cross-examined by Associate Defense Counsel Clyde H. Jones, who was rehashing some of the former grand dragon's troubles with the law.

"Why didn't you take the stand for yourself in your trial for murder at Noblesville in 1925?" Jones asked.

"Because I was under duress and was told that I would be killed in the witness chair if I took the stand," Stephenson replied.

"Well, who made those threats?" Jones asked.

"The man who put you on the Public Service Commission," was the retort of Stephenson.

"Who was that?" asked Jones, who resigned from the commission about one year ago.

"Hiram Wesley Evans," was the answer from Stephenson.

Emphatic denials came from Stephenson to questions asking whether he had formed a plot to murder Gov. Jackson.

"You conspired to have Gov. Jackson assassinated, didn't you?" Jones asked.

"Certainly not," the witness replied.

Stephenson denied that a woman had been involved in an episode at the Hotel Deschler in Columbus, O.

"I came in from Washington, D. C., early in the morning and went to the Deschler," said Stephenson. "I was tired—had been playing poker all night—and went up to my room.

"Two representatives of Hiram Wesley Evans came to my room. We had a thorough free-for-all, broke the furniture and I knocked them down. Police charges against us were dropped."

As court adjourned for the noon recess, Stephenson was still in the witness chair.

Robber's Stolen Money Can Bury Him

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Stolen money found on a dead thief's body may be used to pay his funeral expenses and costs of administering his estate, the Ohio Supreme Court held in effect today in refusing to review a case involving use of such money found on a slain bank robber.

The case grew out of the robbing of a Columbus bank, May 22, 1923. One of the robbers, V. C. Stewart, was killed by police officers later in the day. On his person was found $2,004 of the loot. Administrators of his estate used $745 for funeral expenses and costs of administering the estate.

The bonding company which reimbursed the bank contended that the administrators could not make such use of the money.

WINS 8 MILLION SUIT AGAINST DUKE ESTATE

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 15.—After deliberating five hours, a jury in Federal Judge William N. Runyon's court delivered a verdict of $8,000,000 against the estate of James B. Duke, former tobacco magnate, in favor of George D. Haskell, of Springfield, Mass.

Haskell sued Duke's estate, alleging that Duke broke an agreement with him to enter the aluminum business. Duke died October 10, 1925. Charges were filed in the suit shortly before his death.

Haskell sued for $45,000,000, claiming this as potential profits of the aluminum business if Duke had not broken the agreement. He claimed that Duke sold out to the Aluminum Company of America. In affidavits Haskell alleges the Aluminum Company of America to be a trust. Under a clause in the Sherman anti-trust act, Haskell could ask for treble damages.

COUNTY GRANTS WIDOW CLAIM OF $15,000

Carelessness on the part of officials of the County Public Works Department in not installing guard rails at a dangerous curve on the Clifton-Bridgeville road cost the county $15,000.

Michael Antion, 64, and his two daughters, 13 and 10, were drowned in McLaughlin's Run, near Clifton, August 20, 1927, when a machine they were riding in went off the unprotected road into the creek. Antion's wife and two other children, occupants in the automobile, were saved by passing motorists.

Mrs. Antion submitted a claim against the county, charging that the death of her husband and children was due to negligence on the part of the county in not having guard rails erected at the curve. She asked for $20,000.

County Solicitor W. Heber Dithrich informed the commissioners today that the county was responsible for the accident and recommended that $15,000 be paid the the widow and children. The commissioners granted the request.

Honor Maine Victims on 30th Anniversary

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Thirty years ago this day, the battleship Maine, the gallant Sigsbee in command, was blown up in Havana Harbor.

Today the mast of the historic vessel in Arlington Cemetery was a mecca for a little group of veterans of the war that followed, to pay tribute to the memory of the two officers and 261 men who were killed so suddenly in the disaster 22 days after the Maine arrived in Cuban waters on a peaceful mission.

Sponsors of the services were the Ladies Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans and the Lineal Society of the Spanish War.

Near by, in the riding hall at Fort Myer, Va., another group of United States Spanish War veterans congregated for similar exercises.

BRIDGE OPENING DELAYED AGAIN

Another delay in opening the Liberty Bridge was revealed today when the County Commissioners granted Booth & Flinn, contractors, an extension of time to lay the span's north approach.

The company informed the commissioners that it could not finish the approach on scheduled time due to inclement weather.

"I thought that all delays were over and the bridge could be opened soon," Commissioner Joseph G. Armstrong said. "Now comes along this request."

The last date fixed for the bridge opening was February 1.

$500 Raccoon Coat, Auto Theft Sends Youth to Jail

Raccoon coats days are no more for Edward J. Cox, Jr., of 1509 Foliage avenue, Wilkinsburg. In Central Police Court today he was held for court on four charges, obtaining goods under false pretense and stealing an auto.

According to testimony, Cox nonchalantly bought a $500 raccoon coat, emblem of the collegiate sophomore, at a department store and charged the purchase to Mrs. W. H. Hazlett, of Aspinwall. In two other department stores he bought merchandise sold at $100, police charged, and on February 10 stole the auto of J. J. Weiskiersher, of 531 Collins avenue, in which he went riding with his raccoon coat.

TUBE FINANCING ANNOUNCED BY SPANG CO.

Financing of the acquisition of the Standard Seamless Tube Company by Spang, Chalfant & Co. is announced today with the offering of $7,000,000 Spang, Chalfant & Co., Inc., first mortgage, 5 per cent sinking fund gold bonds. The issue is being offered by a syndicate composed of the Peoples Savings and Trust Company, Dillon, Read & Co., and the First National Bank at Pittsburgh. The $7,000,000 is part of an authorized issue of $12,000,000, of which $10,000,000 will be presently outstanding.

The offering follows announcement a short time ago that Spang, Chalfant had arranged for acquisition of Standard Seamless Tube and also for purchase of 100,000 shares of the now outstanding 375,625 shares of Oil Well Supply Company common stock.

The consolidation with Standard Seamless and the line-up with Oil Well Supply will give Spang, Chalfant an annual capacity of 600,000 tons, at present about evenly divided between welded and seamless tubing, together with an outlet for its production through the Oil Well company's distributing organization, which consists of more than 85 stores and warehouses throughout the country.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Capital reorganization of Spang, Chalfant also is announced with the offering. Entire capital prior to reorganization consisted of $7,000,000 authorized stock (par $100), of which $6,583,300 was outstanding. The new capital set-up will show $12,000,000 authorized first mortgage 5 per cent sinking fund gold bonds, of which $10,000,000 (this issue) will be outstanding; $15,000,000 authorized 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock (par $100), of which $11,750,000 will be outstanding, and 1,000,000 authorized shares of no-par common stock (stated value $5 a share), of which 750,000 shares will be outstanding.

Combined annual earnings of Spang, Chalfant and Standard Seamless Tube for the three years ended December 31, 1927, exclusive of income received from investments and call loans liquidated to that date, after depreciation and all other charges except interest and federal taxes, were $3,524,312 for 1927, $3,905,803 for 1926 and $4,407,906 for 1925.

ASSETS $30,026,743

Balance sheet of Spang, Chalfant as at December 31, 1927, after giving effect as at that date to the acquisition of assets and assumption of liabilities of Standard Seamless Tube; to the recapitalization of Spang, Chalfant; to the issuance of the $10,000,000 5 per cent bonds, and other adjustments, including the payment of the $2,570,960 cash dividend in January, 1928, shows current assets of $8,720,000, as compared with current liabilities of $1,861,672. Net tangible assets, after deducting reserves and all liabilities, except these bonds, are shown as $30,026,743.

Henry Chalfant will be chairman of the board of Spang, Chalfant & Co., Inc. Gordon Fisher will be president. W. C. Fownes, Jr., will be chairman of the executive committee. C. F. Cruciger will be vice president and treasurer, and C. R. Barton, vice president. The board of directors will consist of, in addition to the foregoing, J. H. Hillman, Jr., W. S. Mitchell, A. B. Sheets, I. C. Chalfant, C. F. Beachler and W. J. Hampton.

STEEL BUYING RETARDED

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The Iron Age in its weekly summary of the iron and steel trade tomorrow will say:

Steel production is approaching a state of equilibrium, and current market activity is limited mainly to specifying against past commitments.

A retarded rate of buying is not surprising in view of heavy purchases occasioned by an advancing market and the obvious advantage to consumers of taking full shipments against orders placed at lower prices.

Production at Chicago remains at 92 per cent of capacity, while the average for Pittsburgh and nearby districts is between 75 and 80 per cent.

The upward trend of steel prices this week extends to hot rolled strips, on which a new price schedule for the remainder of this quarter, and for second quarter not only puts quotations $1 to $2 a ton higher, but establishes four groups of widths, each taking its own base price. Sheet manufacturers have announced the opening of books for second quarter at 2.90c, Pittsburgh, for black; 2.10c for blue annealed; 3.75c for galvanized and 4.15c for automobile body sheets, Pittsburgh.

Both of the Iron Age composite prices have advanced. Higher prices on wire products have raised the finished steel composite to 2.364c from 2.350c last week. It is now at the highest point since mid September. Pig iron has gone to $17.75 from $17.67 last week, because of an advance in Eastern Pennsylvania foundry iron.

NEW DIXIE GAS BOND ISSUE OFFERED

A new issue of $1,500,000 three-year 6 per cent convertible gold notes and a new issue of $3,000,000 10-year secured 6½ per cent sinking fund gold bonds of the Dixie Gas and Utilities Company are offered today by a syndicate headed by Goddard & Company, and including Moore, Leonard & Lynch, Waters & Company and Hutchison & Company.

The notes are priced at 98 and interest, to yield 6.75 per cent. They are due February 1, 1931, will be convertible at the option of the holder at any time before maturity or prior to any date fixed for redemption, into the 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock of the company at the rate of 10 shares of preferred stock for each $1,000 aggregate principal amount of notes. Ten shares of the no-par common stock also will be given for every $1,000 of notes so converted.

The bonds, due February 1, 1938, are priced at 99½ and interest, to yield over 6.55 per cent. They are accompanied by a warrant entitling the holder to buy 10 shares of the no-par common stock for each $1,000 of bonds held, at prices ranging from $11 to $15 a share, according to the dates on which the purchases are made.

The Dixie Gas and Utilities Company is a holding concern, engaged, through subsidiaries, in the production and distribution of natural gas for domestic and industrial purposes in eastern Texas and western Louisiana.

On completion of this financing the company will have no funded debt outstanding other than these bonds and notes.

SCHOOL BOARD BIDS FOR SENATOR'S HOME

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Feb. 15.—The school board has taken an option on the old homestead of the late State Senator S. P. White, it was announced today. While plans of the board were not given out, it is believed that a new school building, with a large gymnasium and public library, will be built there.

PITTSBURGH PLATE GLASS RESTS AFTER SPURT

PRODUCE MARKET

Demands for practically all lines of fruit and vegetables were rather poor today at the local wholesale produce district. The prices of cauliflower and spinach were lower, while celery, onions and iceberg lettuce were higher. The fruit market was dull. All fruit sold at about unchanged quotations.

The poultry market was steady and the demand was fair. The supplies were nominal. No change was made in the quotations.

The butter, egg and cheese markets were firm. No change was made in the quotations.

Carlot supplies were fairly liberal, a total of 534 cars being on track. Arrivals included 8 cars of apples, 11 cabbage, 5 carrots, 3 cauliflower, 4 celery, 5 grapefruit, 1 lemons, 6 lettuce, 3 onions, 5 oranges, 1 peas, 1 peppers, 39 potatoes, 3 spinach, 3 sweet potatoes and 4 tomatoes.

NEW YORK BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Bond prices had a firmer trend in today's market, but the volume of trading showed few signs of expanding. New offerings again gathered considerable force, the day's total running close to $35,000,000. The chief item among these was the $15,000,000 loan to the Republic of Finland, which was reported promptly oversubscribed.

Growing interest was evidenced in a few railroad mortgages, especially Chicago and Eastern Illinois 5s, Canadian Pacific 5½s and "Katy" 5s. California Petroleum 5s changed hands in rather large amounts, with little effect on the price.

Business appeared to dwindle in the foreign department. Italian issues, which have been setting the pace in recent sessions, showed little activity in the early dealings. Finnish bonds eased off, probably in reflection of the new financing.

United States government obligations again were slow in getting under way.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Transactions in the most active bonds on the New York Stock Exchange today were as follows, (00 omitted in sales column) (United States bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds of dollars):

STANDARD PLATE MOVES UP

Pittsburgh Plate Glass ran into a little profit-taking in the early dealings on the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange today, but held fairly steady at a level about two points under the high of the current movement.

The stock enjoyed an advance of about 25 points over the past 10 days or so and traders had been looking for a halt or a setback ever since the issue crossed 225 on its way up from around 210. The spurt was based primarily on the announcement of the company's plans to manufacture non-shatter glass at a new plant to be erected at Creighton, Pa. Pittsburgh Plate is embarking on the project in conjunction with the DuPont interests and it is assumed that the output of the new factory will go to the various General Motors divisions.

Standard Plate Glass Company issues enjoyed a sharp rise in the New York market, with a heavy turnover accompanying the advance. In the local market there was some trading in the stocks, but volume was light and the dealings merely followed the price trend on the "big board." There was no explanation of the spurt in the Standard Plates, but traders were inclined to attribute the move to a possible reorganization and adjustment of the capital. Company is not paying dividends on either the prior preference stock or the preferred. Both are 7 per cent cumulative stocks. Last dividend on the prior preference shares was paid in January, 1927. Dividend arrearage on the preferred is $17.50 a share. There are $3,000,000 of 6 per cent gold notes outstanding. Standard Plate Glass was incorporated in 1923, being a consolidation of the old Standard Plate Glass and the Heidenkamp properties.

SUGAR MARKET.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The raw sugar market was easier early today, with prices declining 1-16 cent and into new low ground for the season. Sales reported were 23,500 bags of Cuban afloat and 10,000 of Porto Rican for prompt shipment at 4.21c.

Raw sugar futures opened unchanged to 1 point lower and continued to sag throughout the remainder of the forenoon on March liquidation and selling of the later deliveries by houses with trade and Cuban connections. Inactivity in the spot market, and continued light inquiry for refined sugar seemed to discourage aggressive buying, and prices at midday showed net losses of 1 to 3 points, with the new months showing the maximum decline.

The refined sugar market was unchanged at 5.70c for fine granulated, with demand light and a hand to mouth character.

To be dated January 1, 1928 To mature January 1, 1948

To be authorized $12,000,000; presently to be issued, including this offering, $10,000,000; the additional $2,000,000 bonds are issuable at any time without restrictions. Interest payable January 1 and July 1, without deduction for Federal income tax not exceeding 2% per annum. Principal and interest payable in United States gold coin at the office of the trustee, or at the principal office of The Chemical National Bank of New York. Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000, registerable as to principal only. Redeemable as a whole, or in part by lot, at any time on sixty days' notice, to and including January 1, 1933, at 105 and interest; thereafter to and including January 1, 1938, at 104 and interest; thereafter to and including January 1, 1943, at 103 and interest; and thereafter prior to maturity, at 102 and interest. Peoples Savings and Trust Company of Pittsburgh, Trustee.

Free of present Pennsylvania Four-Mill Tax

The mortgage is to provide for a sinking fund of $375,000 per annum, payable semi-annually commencing January 1, 1929, to be applied to the retirement of first mortgage bonds (including, if issued, the additional $2,000,000 of authorized bonds) by purchase at or below the then current redemption price, or, if not so obtainable, by redemption by lot at that price; but the company shall have the right to deliver bonds at cost (not exceeding the then current redemption price) in lieu of cash payments to the sinking fund.

The following information has been summarized by Mr. Gordon Fisher, President of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, from his letter dated February 14, 1928, copies of which may be obtained upon request, and is subject to the more complete information contained therein:

HISTORY AND BUSINESS

The business of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, a well-known manufacturer of welded tubing, was founded one hundred years ago; the present company was incorporated in 1899 under the laws of Pennsylvania. The company is to supplement its production of welded tubing by acquiring the entire business and assets of Standard Seamless Tube Co., the third largest manufacturer of seamless steel tubing in the United States. The capacity of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, for the production of welded and seamless tubing, after such acquisition, will be exceeded by that of only two other companies in the United States. Combined sales in 1927 were in excess of $25,500,000. Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated is also to acquire 100,000 shares, of a total of 375,625 shares now outstanding, of the common stock of Oil Well Supply Company.

EARNINGS

Combined annual earnings of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated and Standard Seamless Tube Co., for the three years ended December 31, 1927, exclusive of income received from investments and call loans liquidated subsequent to that date, after depreciation and all other charges except interest and Federal income taxes, have been certified by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., public accountants, as follows:

1925 .... $4,402,906
1927 3,524,312

Combined earnings, as shown above, averaged $4,611,007 per annum for the three-year period, or over 9 times the maximum annual interest requirement of $500,000 on the $10,000,000 first mortgage bonds presently to be issued. Such earnings for the year 1927 were 7 times this interest requirement.

SECURITY

These $10,000,000 bonds, together with the additional $2,000,000 bonds authorized but not presently to be issued, are, in the opinion of counsel, to be the direct obligation of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, secured by first mortgage lien upon all the land and buildings, and machinery and equipment thereon, presently to be owned by the company. The aggregate sound value of the properties to be subject to the mortgage, as appraised by Mr. H. A. Brassert, consulting engineer, as at January 1, 1928, was $24,000,000.

ASSETS

The pro forma balance sheet of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, as at December 31, 1927, after giving effect as at that date to the acquisition of assets and assumption of liabilities of Standard Seamless Tube Co., to the recapitalization of Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated, the issuance of these $10,000,000 bonds, and to other adjustments including the revaluation of fixed assets at approximately 83% of appraised sound value, and the payment by Spang, Chalfant and Co., Incorporated of cash dividends aggregating $2,570,960 in January, 1928, as certified by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., shows current assets of $8,730,000, as compared with current liabilities of $1,861,672. Net tangible assets, after deducting reserves and all liabilities except these bonds, are shown as $30,026,743.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

These $10,000,000 bonds are being issued in connection with the acquisition of the business and assets of Standard Seamless Tube Co.

We offer these $7,000,000 bonds for delivery if, when and as issued and accepted by us, subject to approval of legal proceedings by counsel. It is expected that delivery will be made on or about February 28, 1928, in the form of temporary bonds of the company, or interim receipts of Peoples Savings and Trust Company of Pittsburgh.

It Is Human Beings, Not Resources, That Make Cities.

By B. C. FORBES

IN THE NORTHWEST, Feb. 15. MEN in the West strike me as being very keenly interested in business and in their own cities.

Several experiences prove this.

FIRST, at a luncheon at Oakland the attendance, mostly of business men, was so great that the largest hotel could not feed them all. President Field of the Chamber of Commerce felt obliged to publish an apology next morning to the 150 who had to be turned away. Business and civic affairs only were the subjects discussed.

AT two different meetings I had the privilege of attending in San Francisco, one of business leaders and the other of investment bankers, where again nothing but financial and business matters were taken up, the attendances were astonishingly large.

As you may recall, I gave in this column the names of San Francisco men of affairs who have played a leading part in helping the community, men who have distinguished themselves for disinterested public service. The bestowing of this slight recognition has brought many commendations. Mayor Rolph, for example, writes:

"I want to thank you for your splendid article in the San Francisco Examiner regarding those citizens who have been particularly helpful in the development of San Francisco during the past few years.

"I am sure that your commendatory expressions will be helpful, and I thank you for the way in which you have handled the subject."

AT Seattle I witnessed something I have never seen matched in New York. The occasion was nothing more than a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. What happened?

Every seat in the large hall was occupied and some 300 were unable to get in for the lunch. About 200 stood crowding round the doors all through the food serving and then swarmed in, without having had any lunch, to hear nothing but business-civic affairs speechified on. And at that most of them had to stand all through the speechmaking.

Can you picture a New York or Chicago business meeting arousing that amount of interest?

THE woman mayor of Seattle, Mrs. Landes, was enthusiastically cheered, I noticed. During conversation at this lunch I asked her if the responsible business men of the community took a reasonable amount of interest in doing things for their community. Her observations were favorable.

It was a business man, Nathan Eckstein, who won the Post-Intelligencer's cup recently for having done more than any other citizen for the well being of the city and its people last year.

After conferring with the civic authorities and others familiar with the facts, it was agreed that the following lead in public spiritedness and usefulness:

Nathan Eckstein, W. L. Rhodes, L. J. Colman, Worrell Wilson, J. W. Spangler, David Whitcomb, Robert S. Boyns, E. H. Hatch, Frank Waterhouse, Harvey Lindley, J. D. Lowman, George Donworth, Floris Nagelvort, W. Hemphill, H. C. Henry and the Revs. J. Ralph Magee and M. A. Matthews.

SPECIAL mention should be made of the educational, cultural, musical, artistic activities of a number of women and men in Seattle. If San Francisco doesn't watch out, Seattle promises to attain first rank on the Pacific along such lines. Others readily acknowledge indebtedness to the following encouragers of cultural developments: Mrs. A. H. Anderson, Mrs. C. D. Stimson, Mrs. D. E. Skinner, Mrs. A. S. Kerry, Mrs. Edgar Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Merrill, H. C. Henry, A. B. Stuart, James D. Hoge, Victor Elfendahl, J. F. Duthie and William E. Boeing.

AT Portland there was the same convincing testimony of keen interest in business and city. A luncheon held by the Chamber of Commerce was crowded to the portals, and Mayor Baker, Portland's popular "perennial" civic head, assured me that he had the cordial support of the majority of business men in all movements for the city's betterment.

AFTER all, it is human beings, not natural resources in and by themselves, that build up great cities.

DIVIDENDS.

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
150th Dividend
The regular quarterly dividend of Two Dollars and Twenty-Five Cents ($2.25) per share will be paid on Monday, April 16, 1928, to stockholders of record at the close of business on March 15, 1928.
H. BLAIR-SMITH, Treasurer.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Utility Calls Preferred.

American Super Power Corporation has called for redemption on April 16 its 7 per cent cumulative participating preferred stock at $30 a share, plus accrued dividends. There are 273,916 shares outstanding.

Commonwealth Edison Cuts Rate.

Commonwealth Edison Company, Chicago, announces another voluntary reduction in rates for electric service to residences, effective April 1, amounting to a total revenue reduction of $1,300,000 a year.

Beet Sugar Parley Begins.

Negotiations concerning 1928 beet sugar contracts have commenced between the Great Western Sugar Company and representatives of sugar beet farmers of Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana. No agreement is expected for some time and it is probable the matter under discussion will be referred to individual market organizations before a final decision is arrived at.

McKeesport Tin Plate Gains.

McKeesport Tin Plate Company net income for the year 1927 was $1,549,332 after charges, equal to $5.19 a share on 300,000 common shares, against net of $1,384,527 or $4.61 a share in 1926. Net sales were $15,163,195, against $14,141,065 in 1926.

Seminole 100,000 Under Peak.

The Seminole area for 24 hours ended at 7 a. m. Tuesday produced 320,174 barrels of crude oil, compared with a peak of 527,400 barrels July 30, 1927.

A. P. I. Oil Figures.

American Petroleum Institute estimates daily average gross crude oil output in the United States for week ended February 11 at 2,354,500 barrels, a decrease from the preceding week of 7,500 barrels.

Pipe Line Oil Stocks Lower.

Stocks of crude oil held by Eastern pipe lines in January totaled 11,276,710 barrels, a decrease of 61,517 barrels from December, according to the Oil City Derrick. Pipe line runs totaled 1,640,934 barrels, a decrease of only 564 barrels from December, while deliveries increased 40,165 barrels to a total of 4,540,222 barrels.

Indiana Pipe Earned $9.65.

Indiana Pipe Line Company reports for year 1927 net income of $961,465 after charges, equal to $9.65 a share on 100,000 shares, comparing with net of $811,630 or $8.17 a share in 1926.

Prairie Oil and Gas.

Annual report of Prairie Oil and Gas Company, to be issued shortly, will show net profits for 1927 of approximately $2,500,000. This is but slightly more than $1 a share on 2,400,000 shares issued and contrasts with profits in 1926 of $15,962,367, equal to $6.65 a share. Profits were about $1,100,000 less than cash dividends, three quarterly payments of 50 cents a share each, so year resulted in deficit after dividends. Prairie passed the quarterly dividend last October. Reasons for this sharp setback in profits may be found in lower prices for crude oil. Prairie not only is a big producer of crude but also is one of the largest purchasing companies. It always carries large crude inventories; it had nearly $80,000,000 in crude starting 1927, and low prices necessitated inventory write-downs.

Prairie Pipe Line.

Activity in Prairie Pipe Line stock, which reached a new high today, is predicated on preliminary estimates that the company's 1927 earnings were around $17.10 a share on 310,000 outstanding shares. This includes profits from Pure Oil Pipe Line, a subsidiary. In 1926 Prairie earned $17.63 a share and Pure Oil the equivalent of $1.49 a share, or a total of $19.41 a share on Prairie stock.

Simmons Earnings Increase.

Simmons Company reports for 12 months ended December 31, 1927, net profit of $4,252,164 after depreciation, federal taxes, etc., equivalent after 7 per cent preferred dividends, to $3.86 a share earned on 1,000,000 shares of no par common stock. Previous report covered year ended November 30, 1926, and showed net profit of $2,786,967, or $2.37 a share. The preferred stock was retired on November 1, 1927, and the fiscal year changed from November 30 to December 31.

Telautograph Corporation.

Telautograph Corporation reports for year ended December 31, 1927, net profit of $248,309 after depreciation, interest, federal taxes, etc., equivalent after 7 per cent preferred dividends, to $1.02 a share earned on 192,000 shares of no par common stock. This compares with $190,123, or 72 cents a share in 1926.

Issue Has Novel Proviso.

A bond offering with some interesting new features makes its appearance today in the issue of $1,000,000 United States Mortgage and Title Guaranty Company of New Jersey first mortgage collateral 5½ per cent bonds, due December 1, 1937, which are being offered by Bailey, Stuart & Co. at 100 and interest. Two provisions represent something of a new departure in bond financing. The first of these provides that in the event of the death of the holder of any bonds before their maturity, an event of default not existing, the company will, upon the written request of the holder's legal representatives, purchase the bonds at their face value and accrued interest. The second provision states that, an event of default not existing, at any time after three years from the date of the bonds, the holder having given notice to do so, shall have the right to require payment of the principal sum and accrued interest out of any moneys received by the company, after receipt of such notice in payment of the principal sum of deposited mortgages or out of the proceeds of deposited governmental securities or deposited cash, and after payment of bonds with respect to which the company shall previously have received similar notice. In other words, at any time after December 1, 1930, an event of default not existing, the holder has the right to have his bonds called if there are funds available for their payment, as set forth above.

Fewer Surplus Freight Cars.

Class 1 railroads had 402,792 surplus freight cars available for service on January 31, according to the American Railway Association. This was a decrease of 17,498 cars compared with January 23.

Brake Shoe Earned $5.28 a Share.

American Brake Shoe and Foundry Company reports for year 1927 consolidated net income of $2,794,951 after depreciation and taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $5.24 a share on the 448,124 common shares, against $3,029,116 or $5.64 a common share in 1926.

American Express Net Lower.

American Express Company net income was $2,000,914 for the year ended December 31, 1927, after all charges, compared with net of $3,028,477 in 1926.

McCrory Stores for 1927.

McCrory Stores Corporation reports for the year ended December 31, 1927, consolidated net income of $2,422,907 after charges and taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $5.21 a share on 414,663 common and class B shares, against $2,390,911 or $4.96 a share on 455,772 combined shares in 1926.

Calumet and Hecla Earned 29 Cents.

Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Copper Company reports for year ended December 31 consolidated net income of $582,743 or 29 cents a share on 2,005,502 shares, again $1,505,499 or 75 cents per share in 1926.

Locomotive Earned $4.86.

The American Locomotive report for 1927 shows $4.86 earned on the common stock, against $7.41 in 1926. There was a deficit of $1,463,722 after common dividend in 1927, compared with surplus of $115,708 in 1926.

Phillips Jones Corporation.

Phillips Jones Corporation reports for 1927 net income after charges, taxes and preferred dividends, equal to $4.37 on the common, against $4.16 in 1926.

Carnegie Starts Another Furnace.

Carnegie Steel, United States Steel subsidiary, has started a blast furnace in the Youngstown district, making 9 of its 11 units there active. For the district 22 of the 29 furnaces are blowing.

World Wheat Crop.

World wheat crop for 1927 as reported by 41 countries to the United States Department of Agriculture is now 3,435,000,000 bushels, against 3,317,000,000 bushels in 1926. Total winter wheat area in 11 countries is reported at 121,116,000 acres, against 116,426,000 acres last year. Winter rye area in eight countries is reported at 12,052,000 acres, increase of 3.4 per cent over 1927 harvest.

St. Paul Declares Interest.

The St. Paul Railroad declared 1½ per cent interest in respect of the October 1, 1927, coupon on the new adjustment mortgage bonds. This coupon covers the period from February 1, 1925, to June 30, 1927, and will be payable as soon as the new bonds have been delivered. The directors also declared one-half of 1 per cent interest in respect of the coupon due April 1, 1928, which covers the last six months of the year 1927. It is expected the new securities will be ready for delivery within a few days. These are the new adjustment bonds set up in the reorganization of the old Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway into the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific. H. A. Scandrett was elected president of the new St. Paul Railroad. H. E. Byram was made chairman of the board. The executive committee is H. A. Scandrett, H. E. Byram, F. H. Ecker, S. H. Fisher, G. E. Roosevelt, W. W. Colpitts and R. T. Waine.

Brokers Urge Caution.

Eastman, Dillon & Co. say: "The indications that the reserve bank is going further with its policy of stiffening up the money market renders the utmost discrimination absolutely necessary in making new commitments.

"The first pieces of unexpected news will have its influence enhanced by the nervousness aroused over money conditions and thus the reaction that is likely to result may be more severe than would otherwise be the case. Under such conditions profits should be accepted on all rallies."

Money Main Factor.

Henry Clews & Co. wired A. E. Masten this morning as follows:

"Money is slowly but surely becoming an important stock market factor and it rather looks as if the rates will continue firm until such time at least as liquidation worthy of the name takes place.

"Even in quarters where bearishness is quite pronounced it is not believed that a major downward movement is in the making, but brokers' loans are too high and the Federal Reserve authorities are of the opinion that they must be reduced.

"That is about the sum and substance of the situation as it exists now, so what more need be said except to repeat again that so long as there is this attitude on the part of those holding the purse strings it is just as well to assume a very conservative attitude in stock market operations and not be too heavily committed on the long side."

International Paper.

Net earnings of International Paper Company and subsidiaries for 1927 are estimated at approximately $5,700,000, after all charges, compared with $8,275,282 in 1926. This would be equivalent, after preferred dividends, to about $2 a share on 800,614 shares of no par common stock outstanding on December 31, 1927, and compares with $2.15 a share on 500,000 no par common shares in 1926.

On the average number of common shares outstanding during 1927 (approximately 745,000) estimated earnings are equivalent to about $2.65 a share.

Electric Refrigeration.

Electric Refrigeration held steady around the best levels of the current movement.

Coincident with announcement of change of name to Kelvinator Corporation, it was made known that J. S. Bache and others had been elected directors. These new interests, it is stated, took a dominant position in the company during the recent unsettlement and have plans for adding to its activity so as to give it a more stable earning power.

Sun Life Assurance Grows.

Annual report of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada shows total income of more than $100,000,000 for 1927, an increase of approximately $22,000,000 for the year. The company, operating in all parts of the world, now has more than $1,500,000,000 of assurance in force. Payments to living policy holders last year were about $20,000,000 and to beneficiaries a little over $13,000,000. Undivided surplus is now well over $42,000,000 after making provision for dividends to policy holders accrued, but not yet due, and exclusive of contingency funds of over $12,000,000. Undivided surplus increased about $11,000,000 for the year.

STOCK MARKET MOVEMENTS NARROW

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP.)—Trading in today's stock market was largely a specialty affair, with standard industrials and rails moving within rather narrow and irregular limits. Pools succeeded in marking up about a dozen issues to new high records and a few soft spots were uncovered by bear traders. Trading was in moderate volume, although a few large blocks changed hands in the early part of the session.

Renewal of call money at 4½ per cent tended to check bullish operations, although there was little calling of bank loans. Trade developments were largely favorable, the chief item being reports of a further increase in steel mill operations and a stiffening price tendency in the iron and steel market.

American Express extended its early gain to more than 5 points by early afternoon and American Railway Express jumped nearly 7 points. Baldwin also moved up 7 points despite the publication of an unfavorable 1927 earnings report the other day. Standard Plate Glass common advanced from $3 to $5 a share and the preferred from $12 to $19. Gold Dust, Air Reduction and Liggett & Myers B also responded to pool operations.

Pan-American issues sold below $40 for the first time since 1921. Directors of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey declared the usual extra of 12½ cents, in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents. Crude Oil production showed a further decrease last week of nearly 8,000 barrels daily. Dupont broke 6 points and weakness cropped out in Wright Aeronautical, Case Threshing, Rossia Insurance and American Zinc preferred.

CHICAGO BOARD

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Lively profit-taking on the part of recent buyers of corn did a good deal to make corn prices turn downward early today. Wheat also went lower, influenced by the fact that Liverpool quotations showed an unexpected decline, with prospects of large shipments from Argentina. Opening unchanged to ⅛c off, corn underwent a moderate setback all around. Wheat started unchanged to ⅛c lower and subsequently showed a general drop. Oats were easy. Provisions also tended to sag.

Sellers in the corn market today appeared to be affected by talk current in some quarters that corn prices are about 17 cents a bushel higher than a year ago, whereas the crop is 100,000,000 bushels larger. It was also asserted that hogs are being fed at a loss and are being marketed on a big scale. Another bearish circumstance as to corn was that the corn market had risen to within about 33 cents of the price of wheat.

The Bank of America, New York City, Trustee

Mr. W. L. Moody, III, President of the Company, has summarized his letter to the Bankers as follows:

COMPANY: The Dixie Gas and Utilities Company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware, is a holding company and, through wholly owned subsidiaries, is engaged in the production and distribution of natural gas for domestic and industrial consumption, in the eastern section of Texas and the western part of Louisiana, between Houston and Port Arthur, Texas, and Shreveport, Louisiana.

Upon completion of this financing, and current construction now nearly finished, the Company, through its subsidiaries, will serve directly the domestic requirements of the following towns: Beaumont, Scottsville, Jonesville, Hallsville, Marshall, Henderson, Jacksonville, Rusk, Kilgore, Orange, Carthage, Garrison, Nacogdoches, Timpson and Livingston, Texas, and Cedar Grove, La. In addition the Company sells gas at wholesale for distribution in Palestine, Longview, and Tyler, Texas, and Shreveport, La.

GAS SUPPLY: It is conservatively estimated that the present daily open flow capacity of the gas wells available to this Company is in excess of 1,000,000,000 cubic feet.

Messrs. Brokaw, Dixon, Garner & McKee have reported that, in their opinion, an adequate supply of gas to meet the present requirements of all of the Company's subsidiaries will be available for many years beyond the life of these Notes. The gas reserves of the Company are the fields which it controls in the Shreveport and Richland Parish areas, and, in addition thereto, a long-term contract with the Dixie Gulf Gas Company.

GAS SALES CONTRACTS: Dixie Gulf Gas Company, controlled by interests closely identified with the Company, has completed the construction of a main trunk pipe line extending from the Shreveport area to Houston and Port Arthur, Texas. In addition to the long term contract for the purchase of gas from the Dixie Gulf Gas Company, the Company also will sell to the Dixie Gulf Gas Company large quantities of gas from its acreage in the Shreveport area, and a contract will be entered into with Moody-Seagraves Gas Company, Inc., for the sale of gas from the Company's holdings in the Richland Parish Field. This last mentioned contract will be unconditionally guaranteed by the Moody-Seagraves Company, which owns all of the capital stock of the Moody-Seagraves Gas Company, Inc. It is estimated that sales from these two sources alone will amount to or exceed thirty million cubic feet of gas per day, and the earnings therefrom are included in the estimated earnings given below.

SECURITY: These Notes, in the opinion of Counsel, will be the direct obligation of the Company and will be subject only to $3,000,000 Ten Year Secured 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, Series A, to be presently outstanding. The properties of the Company and its subsidiaries (including distributing systems, pipe lines, gas wells and leases owned and acquired through this financing) have been appraised by independent engineers, at a going concern value, substantially in excess of the aggregate principal amount of the Ten Year Secured 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, Series A, and this issue of Notes. Upon completion of this financing the Company will have no funded debt outstanding in the hands of the public other than these Notes and its Ten Year Secured 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, Series A, and will have no current obligations other than in respect to construction contracts which will be provided for out of this financing.

	1928	1929	1930
Gross revenues	$1,612,742	$2,000,110	$2,074,312
Net operating revenues, before depreciation and depletion	720,779	1,009,647	1,056,849
Bond interest	195,000	195,000	195,000
Balance available for these notes	$525,779	$814,647	$861,849
Note interest	90,000	90,000	90,000
Times interest earned	5.84	9.05	9.57

* Messrs. Sanderson & Porter, in their reports, estimate that the net operating revenues of the distributing property now owned by the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries and the distributing property at Beaumont, Texas, to be acquired out of this financing, will be as follows: 1928, $408,000; 1929, $465,500; and 1930, $491,500; Messrs. Brokaw, Dixon, Garner & McKee in their reports, estimate that the net operating revenue, as above stated, of the producing properties of the Company's wholly owned subsidiary companies will be as follows: 1928, $384,747; 1929, $590,110; and 1930, $611,317. The totals of these estimates, less estimated expenses of the Company for each of the three years mentioned, comprise the total estimated net operating revenues as above stated.

CONVERTIBLE FEATURE: These Notes will be convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time before maturity or prior to any date fixed for redemption into the 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Company, at the rate of ten (10) shares of such Preferred Stock for $1,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes. At the time of such conversion, the holders of the Notes so converted also will receive no par value Common Stock of the Company, at the rate of ten (10) shares of such Common Stock for $1,000 principal amount of Notes.

These securities are offered on the express condition that no statement above or in the letter to the Bankers constitutes any representation, guaranty or warranty by us.

All legal details in connection with the issuance of these Notes are subject to the approval of Messrs. Beekman, Bogue, Clark & Griscom, New York, counsel for the Bankers, and Messrs. Vinson, Elkins, Sweeton & Weems, Houston, Texas, counsel for the Company.

We offer these Notes for delivery if, when, and as issued, received and accepted by us, subject to the approval of our counsel. It is expected that delivery will be made on or about March 1, 1928, in the form of temporary Notes or Interim Receipts exchangeable for Notes in temporary or definitive form.

This last mentioned contract will be unconditionally guaranteed by the Moody-Seagraves Company, which owns all of the capital stock of the Moody-Seagraves Gas Company, Inc. It is estimated that sales from these two sources alone will exceed thirty million cubic feet of gas per day, and the earnings therefrom are included in the estimated earnings given below.

SECURITY: These Bonds, in the opinion of Counsel, will be the direct obligation of the Company and will be secured by deposit and pledge with the Corporate Trustee under the Trust Indenture of all outstanding bonds and stock (less only directors' qualifying shares) of the present subsidiary companies. The principal amount of these pledged bonds will exceed the principal amount of the Bonds to be presently issued. The properties of the present subsidiary companies (including distributing systems, pipe lines, gas wells and leases owned and acquired through this financing) have been appraised by independent engineers, at a going concern value, substantially in excess of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds to be presently issued and the Company's Three-Year 6% Convertible Gold Notes. Upon completion of this financing the Company will have no funded debt outstanding in the hands of the public other than these Bonds and $1,500,000 principal amount of Three-Year 6% Convertible Gold Notes, and will have no current obligations other than in respect to construction contracts which will be provided for out of this financing.

Additional Bonds of this or other series, up to the total authorized amount of $25,000,000, may be issued for the acquisition of securities of present and/or new subsidiary companies and/or for properties (to be defined in the Trust Indenture) or to refund outstanding Bonds issued under the Trust Indenture.

EARNINGS: Consolidated net operating revenues of the properties of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary companies now in operation and to be shortly placed in operation are estimated as follows:*

Gross revenues	$1,612,742	$2,000,110	$2,074,312
Net operating revenues, before depreciation and depletion	720,779	1,009,647	1,056,849
Interest requirements on these Bonds	195,000	195,000	195,000
Times interest earned (approximate)	3.69	5.17	5.41

* Messrs. Sanderson & Porter, in their reports, estimate that the net operating revenues of the distributing property now owned by the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries and the distributing property at Beaumont, Texas, to be acquired out of this financing, will be as follows: 1928, $408,000; 1929, $465,500; and 1930, $491,500; Messrs. Brokaw, Dixon, Garner & McKee in their reports, estimate that the net operating revenue, as above stated, of the producing properties of the Company's wholly owned subsidiary companies will be as follows: 1928, $384,747; 1929, $590,110; and 1930, $611,317. The totals of these estimates, less estimated expenses of the Company for each of the three years mentioned, comprise the total estimated net operating revenues as above stated.

STOCK PURCHASE WARRANTS: Each Series A Bond will carry a warrant entitling the holder to purchase shares of the no par value common stock of the Company at the rate of ten shares for each $1,000 principal amount of Bonds at $11.00 per share at any time on or before February 1, 1929; thereafter and at any time on or before February 1, 1931, at $12.50 per share; thereafter and at any time on or before February 1, 1933, at $14.00 per share, and thereafter and at any time on or before February 1, 1938, at $15.00 per share. The warrants will be non-detachable during the life of the Bonds except upon exercise of the warrant, or upon the redemption of the Bond to which the warrant is attached. Any money received by the Company from the purchase of stock under these warrants shall be used for retiring Series A Bonds, in addition to the regular sinking fund.

These securities are offered on the express condition that no statement above or in the letter to the Bankers constitutes any representation, guaranty or warranty by us.

All legal details in connection with the issuance of these Bonds are subject to the approval of Messrs. Beekman, Bogue, Clark & Griscom, New York, counsel for the Bankers, and Messrs. Vinson, Elkins, Sweeton & Weems, Houston, Texas, counsel for the Company.

We offer these Bonds, with warrants, for delivery if, when, and as issued, received and accepted by us, subject to the approval of our counsel. It is expected that delivery will be made on or about March 1, 1928, in the form of temporary Bonds and warrants, or Interim Receipts exchangeable for Bonds and warrants, in temporary or definitive form.

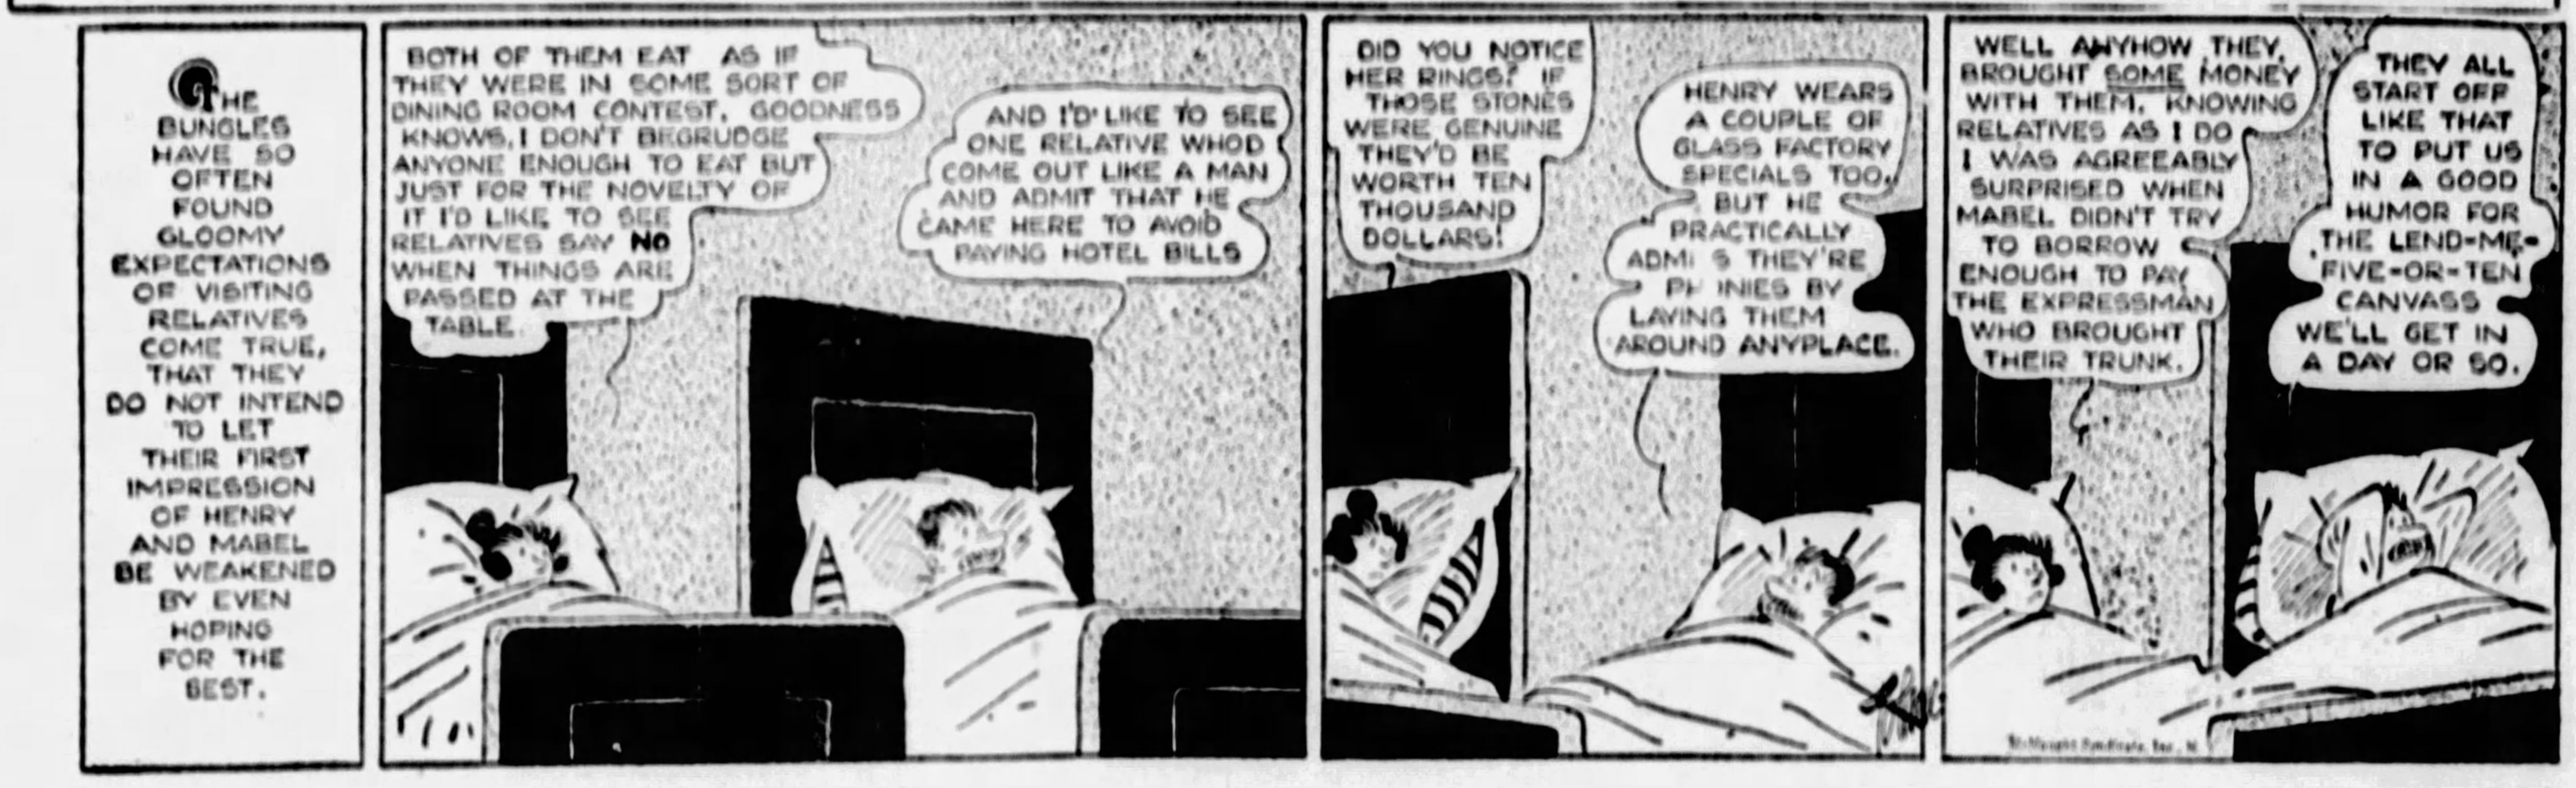
THE BUNGLE FAMILY

The Evening Conference



THE BUNGLES HAVE SO OFTEN FOUND GLOOMY EXPECTATIONS OF VISITING RELATIVES COME TRUE, THAT THEY DO NOT INTEND TO LET THEIR FIRST IMPRESSION OF HENRY AND MABEL BE WEAKENED BY EVEN HOPING FOR THE BEST.
BOTH OF THEM EAT AS IF THEY WERE IN SOME SORT OF DINING ROOM CONTEST. GOODNESS KNOWS, I DON'T BEGRUDGE ANYONE ENOUGH TO EAT BUT JUST FOR THE NOVELTY OF IT I'D LIKE TO SEE RELATIVES SAY NO WHEN THINGS ARE PASSED AT THE TABLE.
AND I'D LIKE TO SEE ONE RELATIVE WHOD COME OUT LIKE A MAN AND ADMIT THAT HE CAME HERE TO AVOID PAYING HOTEL BILLS
DID YOU NOTICE HER RINGS? IF THOSE STONES WERE GENUINE THEY'D BE WORTH TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!
HENRY WEARS A COUPLE OF GLASS FACTORY SPECIALS TOO, BUT HE PRACTICALLY ADMITS THEY'RE PHONIES BY LAYING THEM AROUND ANYPLACE.
WELL ANYHOW THEY BROUGHT SOME MONEY WITH THEM. KNOWING RELATIVES AS I DO I WAS AGREEABLY SURPRISED WHEN MABEL DIDN'T TRY TO BORROW ENOUGH TO PAY THE EXPRESSMAN WHO BROUGHT THEIR TRUNK.
THEY ALL START OFF LIKE THAT TO PUT US IN A GOOD HUMOR FOR THE LEND-ME-FIVE-OR-TEN CANVASS WE'LL GET IN A DAY OR SO.

BUGS BAER Says

HOOVER has crowned the optimistic exhalations of his boosters by hatching out an excellent campaign slogan.

If you haven't got a slogan, then the public has no more use for you than Lindbergh has for a railroad ticket.

We are commuting in an age of labels and prescriptions. Cigarets, motor cars and oatmeal are all bally-hooed by tag lines. The slogan is the snapper on the whip which cracks in the ear of the ultimate boob.

ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER.

Roosevelt was the master gagster of political sub-titles. His "carry a big stick, but tread softly," was elastic enough to fit a nation seeking war or a soup-eyed janitor hunting a house.

"Remember the Maine" and "he kept us out of war" both served the purpose. If we had forgotten the Maine and remembered a Coney Island boat, we would have gone on a picnic. And when we were kept out of war four million doughboys went for a boat ride.

When they asked Hoover if he would permit his name to be posted on the presidential bulletin board, he sloganed:

"I do so." Which epigram is as authoritative and powerful as a "no smoking" sign on Vesuvius. It doesn't mean any more than bubbles on near beer.

If we analyze this slogan through the channels of behaviorism, we find that "I" is the first person singular, "Do" is an active verb, and "So" is either a particle or the potential mood, peculiar.

"I do so," from the viewpoint of vacuum-analysists, is the political method of nodding in the affirmative. If a politician merely said "Yes," he would fear his constituents would mistake him for a blushing bride and his enemies classify him as a moocher.

When Coolidge sloganed "I do not choose to run," the band wagon excursionists figured that he was wagging his tail on one end and barking on the other.

Dissecting both slogans, we discover that Hoover means "yes" and Coolidge declares "no."

But as neither one of those words constitute a slogan, both boys decided to do some fancy needlework on the postscript and pencil a memorandum that would turn newspaper editors gray trying to figure whether it was a berth notice or an epitaph.

The other presidential candidates have not yet selected their war snorts. But the increased sale of gypsy dream books and Sam Loyd's puzzles indicate that we will soon be hearing some fine campaign anagrams that can be read sideways, vertical and diagonal without meaning any more than the graduation speech of the village idiot.

Convince Ballot Crooks By Preventing Cheating

Convince the criminal that he ''can't get away with it,'' and crime will decrease, Ferdinand Pecora, of the New York district attorney's office, told women voters of Allegheny county, his topic being ''Fighting the Criminal.''

That is a big order. The criminal has not been convinced despite centuries of convicting evidence that he cannot get away with it. Even with an election board under arrest, awaiting trial, at the time of the last primary election, a large number of crooks thought they could get away with election thefts.

Of the more than 100 under arrest, some of them, even if guilty, may be successful in evading the law, owing to the difficulty of conviction, because in such cases witnesses have a habit of disappearing. Months have passed since the indictments were found, and but few cases have been brought to the bar. Resort to technicalities and appeals may extend final disposition of the charges to a greatly prolonged period, as in the case of Golden, convicted only in October last of election frauds charged to have been committed in May, 1926, and whose request for a new trial has just been refused.

There is both encouragement and discouragement for the friends of honest elections in the Golden case decision. It tends to show that convictions in election crimes can be made to stick, but there is discouragement in the indication that it appears to take an interminable time to do it. At that rate it will take years to dispose of the indictments based on the September primary.

A better way to prove to the ballot crook that he cannot get away with it is to prevent him from doing it. That can be effectively done through the use of the voting machine, which is cheat-proof.

Keep that in mind when the state amendment permitting its use comes up for your approval.

"Jay-Walk" and Be One Of 177 to Die This Year

If the law of averages is maintained, more than 177 persons will lose their lives in automobile accidents in Allegheny county in 1928. Resolve now that you will not be one of the victims nor be responsible for the death of any of them. Make it your firm purpose that the law of averages shall not be maintained. Decide that 177 fatalities from motor accidents in 1927, as given in a report by Coroner W. J. McGregor, represents a terrible cost in human life and that that cost will be cut down rather than increased in 1928.

You will increase your own safety and greatly lessen your own chances of being one of the doomed 177 by crossing traffic at signal points and by waiting for the signal, since it is shown that 56 pedestrians killed last year met death while ''jay-walking,'' as crossing streets at other than intersections is called. Not a person was killed while crossing at a signal-covered street intersection. If you are determined to be one of the 177 who will not be here next year, ''jay-walking'' gives you the needful hazard.

If you wish to be the cause of the death of one or more of the 177, you have the choice of driving carelessly and recklessly, passing standing street cars, not stopping at through ... streets, turning to the left when you shouldn't, driving through safety zones, ''cutting in'' or not using extreme caution in streets where there are playing children.

Vote on Power Probe Acid Test for Our Senators

The power lobby fears Senator Walsh, an investigator who goes to the bottom and keeps the people informed. It evidently does not fear the Federal Trade Commission as now organized.

The only possible inference from its drive to have the power inquiry made by the Federal Trade Commission instead of by Senator Walsh is that it knows of facts which it would prefer that the public should not know.

The second section of the Walsh resolution reads as follows:

> ''The committee is further empowered and directed to inquire and report whether, and to what extent, such corporations or any of the officers thereof, or any one in their behalf or in behalf of any organization of which any such corporation may be a member, through the expenditure of money or through control of the avenues of publicity, have made any and what effort to influence or control public opinion on account of municipal or public ownership of the means by which power is developed and electrical energy is generated and distributed, or to influence or control elections.''

A rider added by the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee limits the inquiry as to elections to ''the elections of President, Vice President, members of Congress.'' But it leaves the committee with full power to uncover all the activities of the power lobby aside from elections.

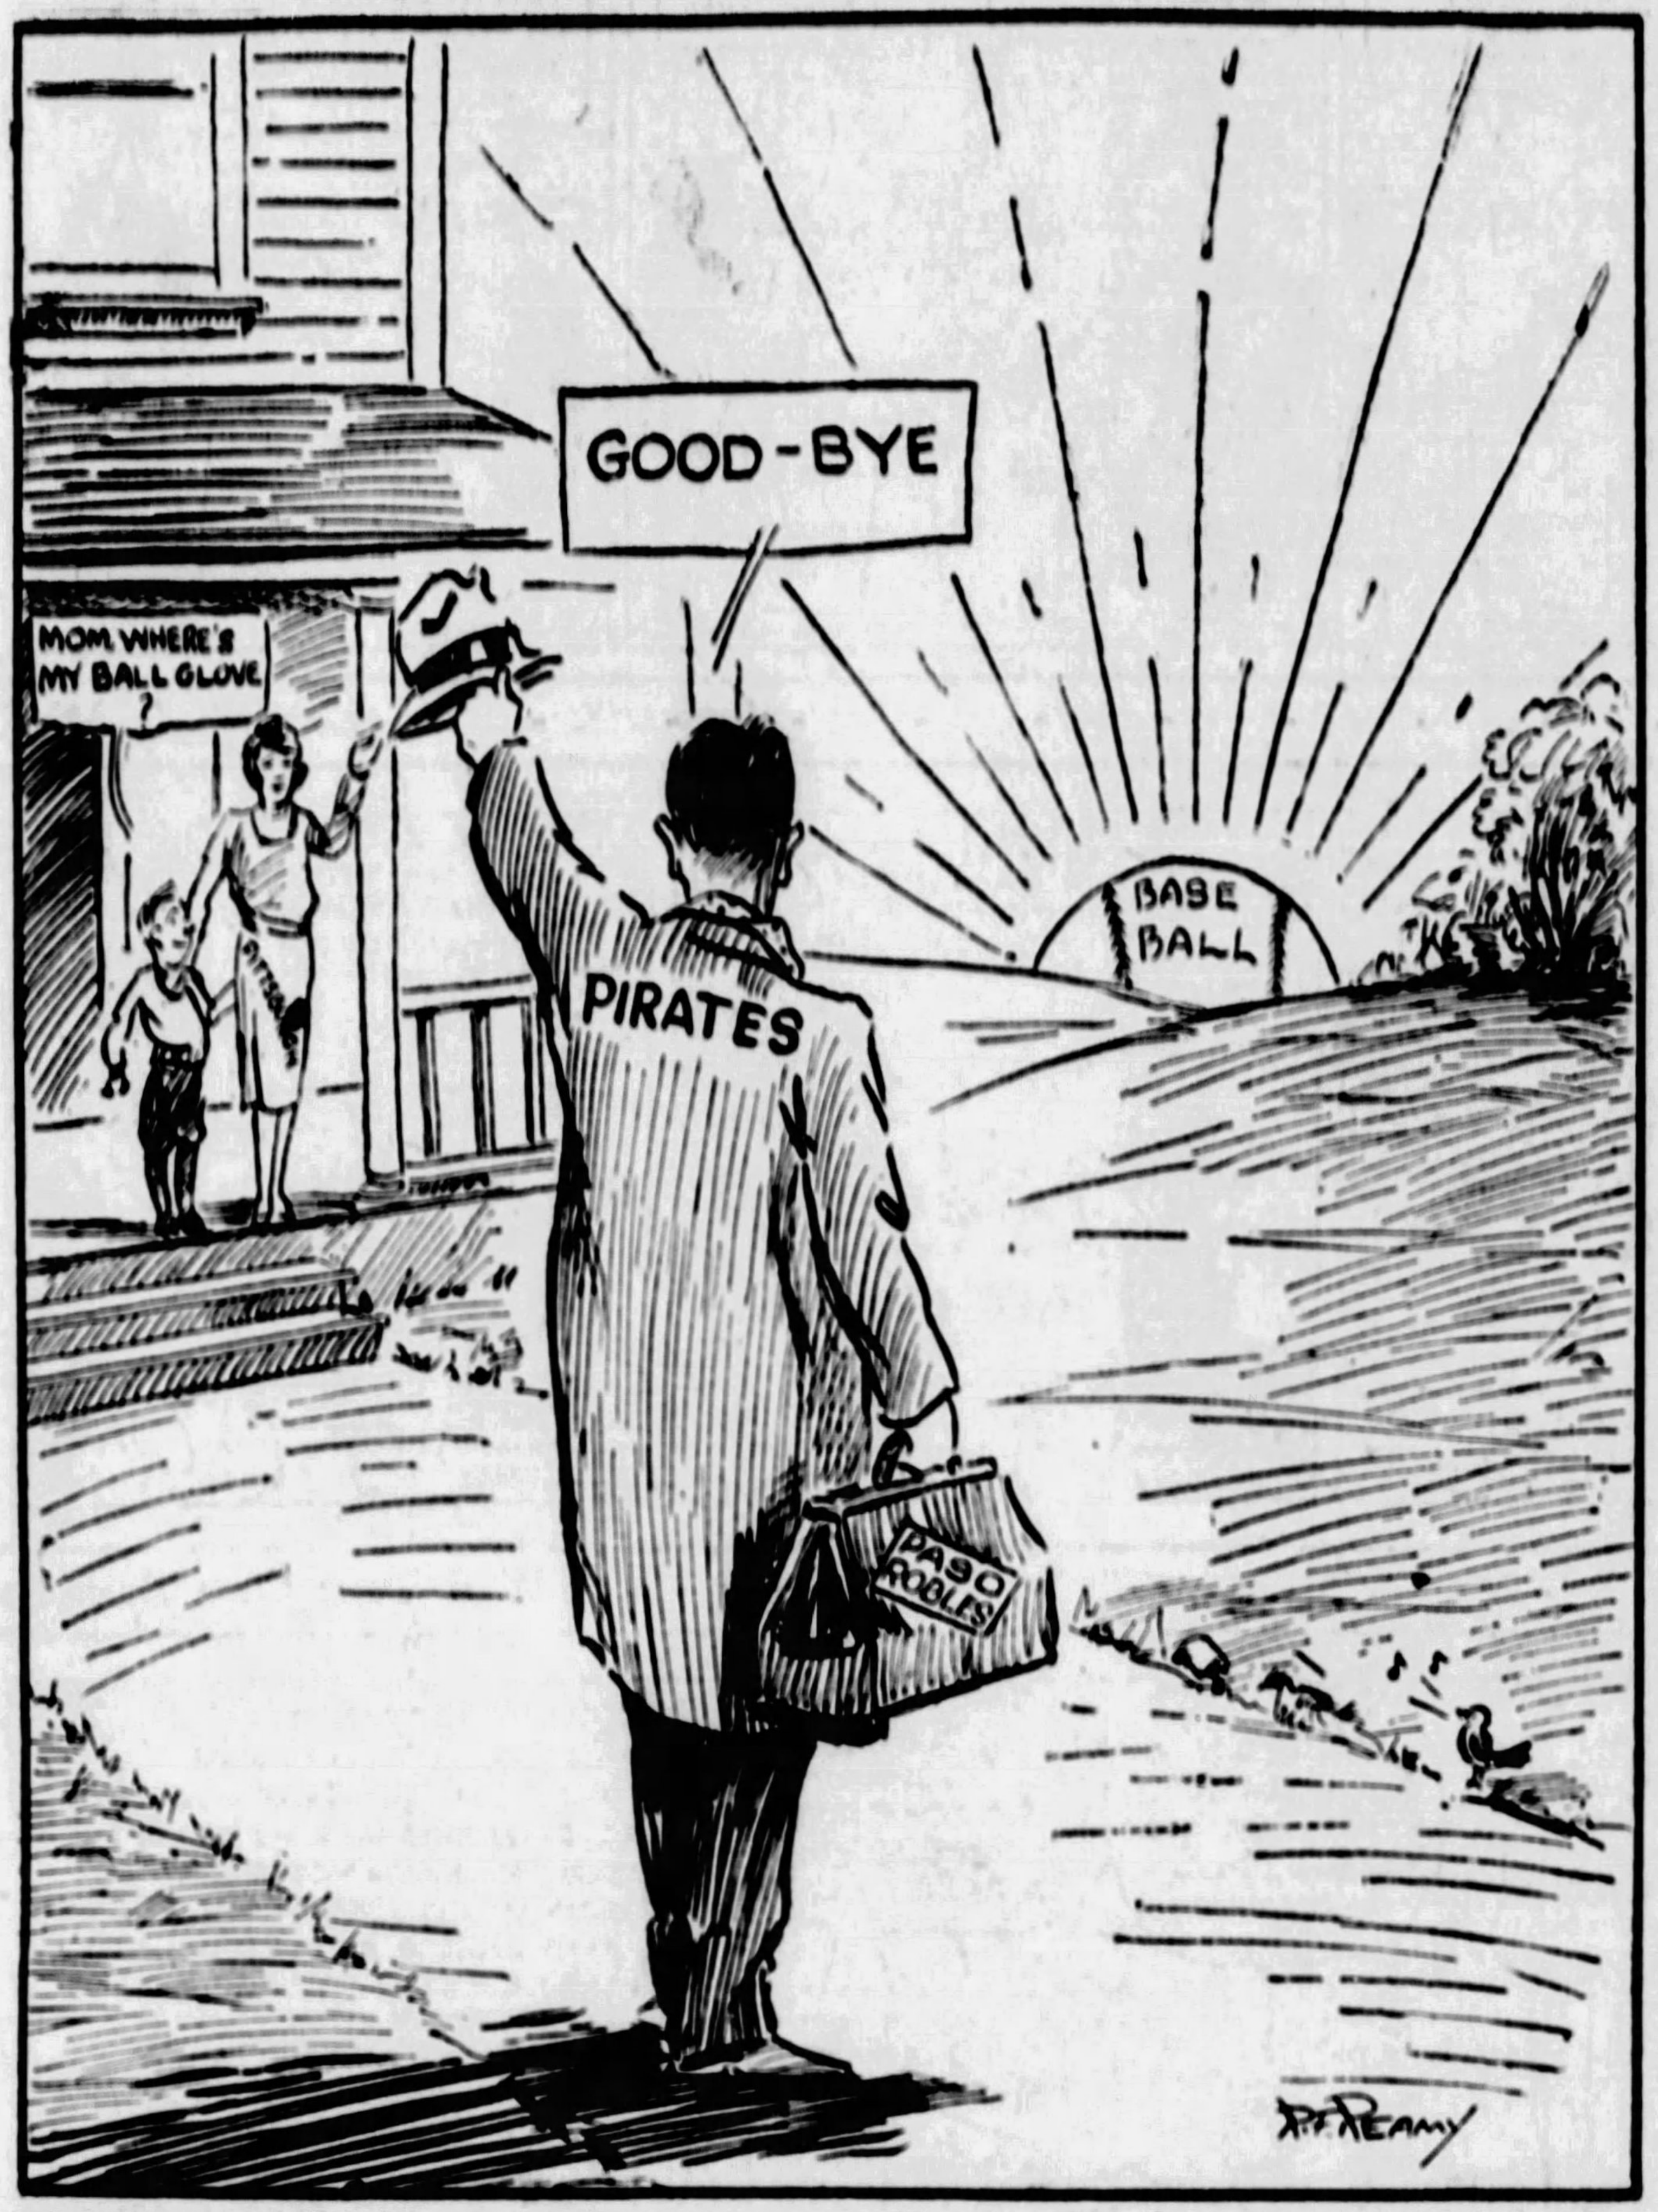
Walsh at the head of the probe would do just that thing.

Whether the Federal Trade Commission would try hard to do it and not do it or do only a little of it in a perfunctory way, nobody knows.

But the fact that the power lobby picks the Federal Trade Commission as the body it prefers to wield the probe should suggest to the Senate, as it does to the people, that Walsh would be the likelier prober to succeed.

The vote on this issue will be an acid test of Senators.

HIS ANNUAL TRIP



Garrett P. Serviss Says:

Living Explosives

WHAT must seem to most persons a very novel view of disease and death was suggested recently by Dr. W. W. Lepeschkin at the opening of the Redstock Biology Hall in the Washington University, St. Louis. The principal substances that constitute living matter, he said, have been found so very inconstant as to be comparable with explosives, which explode, or disintegrate into their component parts, very easily. A blow, the application of heat, the influence of a strong light or the action upon them of various chemical agents, cause explosive substances to blow up, or disintegrate.

Hence, because of the resemblance in the matter of inconstance of state between explosives and living matter, it was reasonable to conclude that the latter, too, would "explode," or be very easily destroyed by similar agents. Thus the study of the peculiarities of explosive substances opened a way for us to learn more about the properties of living matter with respect to illnesses, diseases and the causes of death. To combat these things it should be our aim to make the principal substances composing our bodies constant, so that they would not be so easily destroyed, thus leading living matter and organisms to death.

Next the question arose, how can we make living matter constant. Here, the study of explosives has furnished a curiously interesting reply. The introduction of certain chemically indifferent substances, such, for instance, as narcotics, into liquid explosives abolishes their explosive qualities.

"It is sufficient," said Dr. Lepeschkin, "to add only five per cent of aceton (a substance used in making chloroform) to nitroglycerine to make it quite inexplosive."

By analogy, the introduction of similar substances into living matter diminishes its sensibility to injurious influences.

Now, however, for the other side. "While narcotic substances are really indifferent to explosive substances, they are not so with reference to the principal substances of living matter, because these substances contain proteins, which are destroyed by narcotics, and after a short excitement an injurious and dangerous effect is produced which makes living matter more sensitive than before."

Only, then, in case we could find a harmless narcotic which would not destroy proteins, could we make our living matter constant and so abolish illness and diseases. But Dr. Lepeschkin pointed out another way in which the application of chemical reagents capable of disintegrating living substance promises to abolish diseases of bacterial origin. This is based upon the difference between the chemical composition of living matter in bacteria on the one hand and in man and animals on the other hand. In consequence of this difference, he believes "we can expect that chemical reagents will be found that will destroy the principal substances of living matter in bacteria but will not destroy them in man."

The doctor's closing words are enthusiastic: "Therefore the time will certainly come when all harmful bacteria and the diseases produced by them will be expelled from the earth forever, and it depends upon us to accelerate the coming of such a time. I am delighted to be able to predict it, and I hope that biology will be able to widen its ways and to bring near this happy time."

Talking a Mile—

THE telephone company has produced a loud speaker that can be heard distinctly at a distance of one mile. Interesting, although radio makes it unnecessary.

A Greek philosopher said no nation could keep its liberty after it grew so big that all the citizens could no longer listen to the same speaker in the public square at the same time.

The daily newspaper helped solve THAT problem.

Soon radio will make it possible for everybody on earth to hear the same speaker literally at the same second—electricity travels around the earth seven times in a second.

Therefore, it will be possible some day for the entire earth to be one nation. And that's what is going to happen, perhaps five hundred thousand, perhaps five million years hence.

February Fancies

"IN my garden, sweet and merry . . ."
"Garden? Now, in February?
Surely you've no posies blooming through the snow!"
"Yes, the truth is, in dark hours
I find rarer, brighter flowers
Than some gardens boast when skies are all a-glow.

"For it's when the winds are howling
And the winter skies are scowling
That I seek for every promise of delight,
Every tiny bud of beauty
Every deeper bloom of duty,
Every joy which lifts brave petals to the light.
Winter gardens, gayly gleaming,
Fashioned through glad hours of dreaming,
How your fancies make earth's darkest season bright."

Tales That Are Told

He's Happy Now

GEORGE was always complaining of his wife's memory.

"She can never remember anything," said he. "It's awful."

"My wife was just as bad," remarked his companion, "until I found a capital method."

"What was it?" asked George eagerly.

"Simple. Anything particular that I want her to remember I write on a slip of paper and gum it on the looking-glass."

A Changed Tune

HIS friend Murphy had come off very badly in a fight and, although Samson was only a bantamweight, he danced round thirsting for revenge.

"Show me the man who struck Murphy!" he said, as his friends stood admiringly around. "Show me the man who struck Murphy!"

Just then a brawny, towering giant came around the corner.

"I'm the man who struck Murphy," he said, menacingly.

Samson, the courage oozing out of his boots, looked up and responded feebly, "I'm bound to say ye struck him well."—London Tit-Bits.

On the Wrong Head

A HARDY tourist, who had been caught in a severe snowstorm in the Scottish Highlands, congratulated himself on finding a solitary cottage and being asked to stay the night.

After dinner, wearing an ancient suit belonging to his host while his own was drying by the fire, he encountered the mistress of the house on the stairs.

There was very little light, and the good woman, mistaking him for her husband, dealt him a resounding clump on the head with a broom she had in her hand.

"There," she said savagely, "tak' that for askin' the man to stay!"—London Answers.

Something to Think About

By BRUNO LESSING

Prohibition

PROHIBITION is doing more harm than saloons ever did. That may seem a bold and raw statement. But it is a fact, apparent to all thinking men.

We made a mistake in injecting prohibition into the Constitution of the United States. It requires wisdom and courage to acknowledge a mistake and to rectify it. Alas! We haven't that much wisdom or that much courage. We prefer to flounder along in our mistake.

It really would be better to abolish prohibition even if the saloons came back. That is another bold and raw statement.

"What, ho!" the Prohibitionist will cry. "Do you mean to say that you want the old saloon back?" (Prohibitionists love to ask that question).

You have brought the saloon back, dear Prohibitionist, in a different form, to be sure, because the law must be evaded, but on a wider scale and with infinitely more vicious consequences.

Most successful restaurants, today, are saloons, on the sly. Hundreds of thousands of homes have been transformed into saloons. Hundreds of thousands of young people carry saloons around with them in their hip pockets. Anyone who thinks that you cannot get liquor on an American steamship is crazy. Nearly every steward has his private saloon.

Travel where you like in the United States. As long as you have money in your pocket, you can get a drink. If you are up against it—and have enough money—some prohibition enforcement officer or other public official will help you out.

The whole country is honeycombed with saloons!

But the greatest harm which prohibition is doing is not in spreading the illicit indulgence in low-grade alcoholic drinks, but in undermining human character. When you introduce governmental force into the control of personal habits, you weaken the personal fabric. You undertake to rob the individual of his sense of responsibility. You tell him where to "get off," and you expect him to "get off" there.

But he never does. Human nature is not constructed along those lines. God made men. Or Nature. Or any deity that you believe in. But no government ever made men.

Many honest people believe that because it is the province of government to make laws against theft and murder and forgery, there ought to be no harm in government making laws against the drinking of alcohol. Those are acts or crimes which harm other people, no matter what their degree may be. The drinking of a glass of beer or wine harms no one.

If the drinking be done to excess and leads to harm to others, there are sufficient laws to punish the offender.

It is easy to make a cart-horse out of a thoroughbred or to make a lion stand on his hind legs. All you need to do is to use a heavy whip and crush his spirit.

Prohibition, if successful, will crush the spirit of men. They will obey laws instead of obeying the dictates of their conscience.

The writer is strongly opposed to alcoholic excess. He feels strongly that the prohibition of alcohol leads to excess.

But he feels more strongly that the harm which governmental "DONT'S" do to the temperament and the character of citizens is worse than the harm of the rotten saloons.

Listeners

COUNT among the greatly worth-while people those who really listen.

There are talkers enough—ranging in variety from the spouter of empty words to the artist in conversation who scatters wisdom's pearls. But listeners are rare.

Some folks give ear to talk reluctantly; they resent loss of precious time in which they might be wagging their own jaws. Some heed with only half a mind; the other half is busy changing over what is heard into individual opinions to be spilled the moment opportunity offers.

Few indeed listen interestedly, whole-heartedly, sympathetically. What a comfort when you find one!

Indifferent listening is a manifestation of selfishness, something to be schooled out of the makeup.

New York Day by Day
O.O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The bobbed head is facing what diplomatists call a crisis. It is said the next few months will tell whether short hair is to survive or go the way of the bicycle. There is no denying an increasing number of women are permitting their hair to grow.

Just now that little puff of newly grown hair at the nape of the neck is decidedly smart. Debutantes are making the new fashion hum. Gloria Swanson and several other picture stars have taken it up, which means that innumerable ga-ga worshipers will follow suit.

Whether it will be just a fad of the moment or a return to long hair permanently becomes simply a matter of guessing. Hair bobbing parlors are not looking on the matter with no concern. Many of them remember what suddenly happened to hairpin manufacturers.

They are increasing their advertising. No fashion is so subjected to the winds of chance as Milady's coiffure. The shingled head, for instance, was started when Irene Castle, recuperating from fever, was forced to have her locks clipped.

She was at the time a style pace maker and her perfectly innocent gesture swept the world. It turned thousands of Jims, Guses and Petes of the ordinary side street barber shops into Gastons, Pierres and Alfreds with avenue salons and coupon-clipping incomes.

So they accept the reasonable deduction another Irene Castle may come along, offer something new in long hair and Voila! Back they go crying "Next!" in the barber shops. Those who know, however, say a return to the old custom will not be as swift as was its passing.

Thousands of women have bobbed their hair, not as a concession to style, but simply for comfort and to lessen the daily toilette duties. This is especially true of working women who often had to stand a half hour before their mirrors every morning arranging their hair.

It is noticed, too, that those thin capsuled mustaches on young blades aching to appear worldly are growing slighter. I hope to catch one of those birds some day in a revolving door.

* * *

The tonsorial titillations for the day might be concluded with the information that New York has 8,190 barber shops and the daily average of barber shop tips has been estimated at $5,000. And that if changed into pennies would reach from here to—oh, just make out I never brought up such foolishness.

* * *

A pompous racket indulged by those desiring to attract a little notice is to take seats in the theater in the middle of the first act and depart at intermission. Nobody knows them and nobody cares, but that's New York.

There is something stimulating about Harlem's "main stem," which is One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. It is different and in many ways more New Yorkish than other bustling thoroughfares. There are the pool hall and barber shop characters that might have stepped from one of Tad's cartoons. Radios buzz to attract trade. Movies are gaudily bannered and the sporting clubs appeal to youths in fancy sweaters instead of raccoon coats. It is a street where derbies cocked to one side and high buttoned shoes with colored uppers are common. Yet with all its slightly blatant manner One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street has a certain dignity. It has a large hotel that attracts a steady trade among many it would be suspected would prefer the downtown location and environment.

Harlem to many New Yorkers seems a vague part of town, a sort of nondescript section between Manhattan and the Bronx. Yet it has apartment houses, department stores and such as grand as those downtown. And certainly the finest delicatessen stores on the entire island.

Changing the Alphabet

By DR. FRANK CRANE

At the English Language Congress in Philadelphia it was proposed to arbitrate, change, enlarge and otherwise alter the alphabet, to make it more simple and representative.

This is one of the dictates of common sense which, however, will probably go down before the inertia of custom.

There have been many efforts to alter the English language by Esperanto, Ido, etc., to make the written speech conform more closely to the spoken. These efforts, however, have not been markedly successful.

The trouble is that language is custom. It is not reason, nor is it controlled by reason. Its destiny lies in the habits of the common man. Any one who thinks that the world is looking for a reform and to have things made different is mistaken. The majority of the world want things to go on as they have been. They are used to them.

We know what is the difficulty with things that we have and use and we do not know what the difficulty will be with something new.

No amount of argument by learned men can induce the common man to change unless he feels like it. He wants change only when the change is gradual and easy and natural.

The proposal to use a sign for the word "the" has some probability of adoption. This word is said to occupy one-seventh of the space on a page. By the use of a symbol vast quantities of ink and paper may be saved every year. To adopt a symbol for this word might be feasible.

When the Normans conquered England they were unable to force their Frenchified speech upon the Saxons and you can still trace the influence of the two peoples in our language. Things out of doors and in the fields, such as sheep, cows, etc., retain their Saxon names, but when they are served upon the table for the gentry to eat they are given Norman names, like beef and mutton.

The influence of the two classes of the population, their habits and customs, has lasted longer than the influence of any professors of language might have lasted.

We still retain our pounds, shillings and pence in England and our pounds and ounces throughout the English-speaking world in defiance of the logical metrical system.

We still hold to our old and wobbly calendar containing months of various lengths and will not adopt a sensible calendar of 13 months.

Ever since man appeared upon the planet he has been busy at devising ways to record his spoken utterances in visible symbols. From the influence of provincialism and isolation there have been formed many languages. There will probably never be a new one because transportation and intercommunication are gradually but slowly welding the world into but one unit.

If there is ever a universal language it must come about by growth and come up from the bottom like the adoption of slang terms into elegant speech. It cannot be imposed upon the world from the top, for no matter how much you tell a man that nite is the way to spell night he will go on spelling it night because he is used to it.

Richard Grant White quoted a little couplet to illustrate how the English language is pronounced. He gives seven ways of pronouncing the combination of letters o u g h. The couplet is:

"Though the tough cough and hiccough plough me through,
O'er life's dark lough my way I will pursue."

All you have to do to observe how absurd this combination is, is to pronounce every ough as it is in hiccough. It would then read:

"Thup the tup cup and hiccup plup me thrup, O'er life's dark lup my way I will pursue."

Every student of a new language realizes that logic and reason and system have very little to do with forming a tongue.

Once Overs

Encouragement

AREN'T you a little harsh in your criticism of those who do not stand up well under adversity?

Some persons are so constituted that they cannot meet trouble bravely.

You call them weaklings and to an extent you are right.

But much depends upon temperament.

In your life, no matter how strong, there have been times when you were at the point of breaking down.

If it had not been for the encouraging words of friends at the critical time, you might have given up the struggle.

But your family and friends braced you up and you weathered through.

It is easy to pass judgment on one who has lost ambition and hope.

You feel he is not worth worrying about.

How many weak and incompetent men do you know who might be induced to take a more determined stand as the result of encouragement from you?

How many times have you tried to help a person who was down?

Right now there may be some friend who needs your help.

A little help from you may be just what he needs to encourage him to carry on.

Making the Man

THE National Association of Merchant Tailors sets as the standard of sartorial fitness five overcoats to the man, with full evening attire instead of Tuxedo.

We hope the other caterers to man's adornment will insist on a few shirts, socks and ties.
